THE CHOICE OF ROUTES

Spooner's Substitute For Nicaragua Canal Bill.

INTRODUCED IN THE SENATE

Authorizes the President to Select Either the Panama or the Northern Survey—Fixes Limit of Cost.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 28.—Just before the adjournment of the senate Senator Spooner today introduced a substitute for the Nicaragua canal bill. The new bill is a practical authorization to the president of the United States to choose between the Panama and the Nicaragua routes. The first provision looks to the acquisition of the franchise, right of way and other property of the new Panama Canal Company of France, including that company's control of the Panama railrord. The president is authorized to pay $40,000,000 for these, "provided a satisfactory title can be obtained."

He is then authorised to secure the necessary concessions from the Republic of Colombia, these to include the perpetual control of a 10 mile strip of tarritory from the Carribean sea to the Pacific ocean. A canal sufficient to accommodate the largest vessels is then to be constructed, under the supervision of the secretary of war.

The bill also carries an alternative provision authorizing the president to proceed with the construction of the Nicaragua canal in case he fails to secure the necessary concessions from Columbia or a satisfactory title from the Panama Canal Company.

An immediate appropriation of $10,000,000 is made in either event. The limit of cost is fixed at $125,000,000 in case the Panama route is chosen, while $160,000,000 is allowed in case the choice falls on the Nicaragua route.

A Human Monster.

Salt Lake City, Utah, Jan. 27.—According to the Pocatello, Idaho, correspondent of the Desert News, the residents of the little town of Chesterfield, Bannock county, Idaho, are greatly excited over the appearance of an eight-foot, hair-covered human monster.

He was first seen on January 14th, when he appeared among a party of young people skating on the Portneuf river. The creature, flourishing a large club and uttering yells, started to attack the skaters, who managed to reach the wagons and got away.

The measurements of the tracks showed the creature's feet to be 22 inches long and 7 inches broad. The people of that neighborhood have sent twenty men to effect its capture.

High Grade Oil in Malheur Basin.

Baker City, Jan. 27.—A messenger arrived in Baker City today, bringing with him a bottle of the first oil struck in the Malheur basin. The oil came from the Newell well, a short distance from the town of Nampa, and was obtained at a depth of 110 feet. The oil analyzes 78 per cent paraffine, the highest grade of natural oil known. Much excitement prevails.

Two miles from the Newell well oil has been reached at a depth of 450 feet. This well can now pump 25 barrels per day.

At the Pendleton high school building Wednesday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock what came near being a serious accident occurred. The children of the third grade in Miss Elsie Folsom's room were busy at their work when a piece of plastering suddenly fell from the ceiling in one corner of the room. The teacher and her pupils were startled but became quiet again. Then another piece fell and Miss Folsom becoming alarmed called in the janitor. He made a hurried examination while other small pieces were falling. Quickly the children were told to leave the room but the last one had hardly made his exit when the entire ceiling fell with a mighty crash on the desks and floor of the school room. The plaster was firm and did not break to pieces and its weight would have crushed many of the children to the floor. In places it would probably have broken through on their heads but it would have been a miracle for all to escape. The little people would have been greatly frightened and in their excitement some of them might have been suffocated. There were 65 in the room.—Pendleton Tribune.

Umatilla county road supervisors will attend a big meeting of road makers in Walla Walla, Feb. 4, when will gather supervisors from Umatilla, Walla Walla and other counties to discuss matters pertaining to their work. There is a general revival of interest in the building of good roads throughout the Inland Empire, due to agitation recently by newspapers, and the year 1902 will see many improvements made.

In the fight between Al Neill and "Mysterious" Billy Smith at the Exposition building in Portland, Thursday night, Neil won in the 10th round on a foul.

Umatilla County Sheep.

The Umatilla County stock inspector, J. E. Bean, has completed his report on the sheep industry for 1901. In Umatilla county the number of sheep January 1, 1902, was 241,700. The increase over last year was 22,000. Of the number 2000 are being fed for mutton.

No disease has been discovered among the sheep of the county during the last 13 months. The sheep are in a healthy condition and the prospects for a big crop of wool are very bright. Parts of the ranges have been taken up by homesteaders during the year but the land is used for pasture as before. The entire flocks of Umatilla county are divided into about 150 bands that may be seen on the bunch grass hills south and west of Pendleton or all toward the Columbia. The largest owner this year is Charles Cunningham who has about 19,000. Others who have more than 10,000 are E. Boetcher, 14,000; J. F. Smith & Sons, 14,000; W. Sinshor, 10,000; Ruggs Bros., 12,000. Several new sheep men have brought herds into the county or bought sheep already here during last year. A few bands have been driven to Wallowa county or to Idaho.

SHEEP NOTES.

The latest reliable information places the number of sheep on feed in the Arkansas valley, Colorado, at 121,293 head. In addition to this total, there are on feed in the San Luis valley 21,600 head. Compared with the early estimates, these figures are much higher than even the most liberal gave credit for. As late as December, prominent sheep men throughout the valley gave their estimate as 80,000 at the outside figure, and that number has generally been regarded as somewhere near the actual number on feed. The number last year was 273,000, which was the largest on record.

One of the new ranch companies in Colorado, the Angora Ranch Association of Mesa county, is managed by a woman, Mrs. Nancy B. Irving, who is president of the company. The company which she heads has 30,000 acres of land near Grand Junction, and on this land, is erecting ranch buildings and other necessary improvements. A thousand goats will be placed on the land, some stock will be raised, and bees will be kept as well.

State Sheep Inspector Lowe estimates that there are 3,000,000 sheep at the present time in Idaho, and that while possibly some other states may lead in the wool shipments, Idaho is the largest shipper of sheep and mutton.

An association of Weber county wool growers has been perfected in Ogden, Utah. The organization is to be an auxiliary to the State Wool Growers' Association and is favored by the chief wool growers of the county. The officers elected are Preston Blair, president; M. S. Marriott, secretary.

Reports from southwestern Wyoming tell of strained relations between sheep men and oil men there. Surface rights are involved, and the courts will be called upon to settle the difficulties. The trouble not only affects this section, but will probably extend over sheep grazing lands in Colorado and Utah, where oil has been found.

HOME AND CHILD

Does your horse "feel his oats"? What a difference between the grain-fed and the grass-fed horse! The first strong and full of ginger, the second flabby, weak and tired out before he begins. The feeding makes the difference.

Children are not alike either. One is rosy, bright-eyed, full of life and laughter, another is pale, weak and dull. The feeding again is responsible.

Sickly children need special feeding. They don't "feel their oats". Scott's Emulsion adds just the right richness to their diet. It is like grain to the horse. The child gets new appetite and strong digestion.

Scott's Emulsion is more than food. It is a strong medicine. It rouses up dull children, puts new flesh on thin ones and red blood into pale ones. It makes children grow. Scott's Emulsion makes ordinary food do its duty.

This picture represents the Trade Mark of Scott's Emulsion and is on the wrapper of every bottle.

MRS. J. E. O'DONNELL,

President Oakland Woman's Riding Club, Chicago, Sends an Unsolicited Letter to Mrs. Pinkham, and Wants It Published.

Sick Eight Years with Female Trouble and Finally Cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

The already enviable record of Mrs. Pinkham's great medicine becomes more and more glorious every day, and how the glad tidings are spread among women from the Atlantic to the Pacific is told in such letters as the one from Mrs. O'Donnell here published.

The troubles to which women are subject because of their sex are many,—every day a woman is liable to a new pain. Excessive worry may disturb the menstrual functions and unsettle the nerves. Over-excitement may set up inflammation of the ovaries and womb, but wherever or whatever the trouble is Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is sure to find and cure it. Read Mrs. O'Donnell's letter and try to realize that such generous testimony is not to be had for money, or any monetary consideration; it is purely out of the goodness of her heart and gratitude for her own cure that by this act she is endeavoring to lead other women to health and happiness.

Mrs. Pinkham invites all women who are ill to write her for advice. Address Lynn, Mass., giving full particulars.

MRS. JENNIE E. O'DONNELL.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I have never in my life given what you would call a testimonial before, but you have done so much for me that I feel called upon to give you this unsolicited acknowledgement of the wonderful curative value of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. For eight long years I had female trouble, falling of the womb and other complications. During that time I was more or less of an invalid and not much good for anything. Four years ago I read a book in the hall telling of the cures you could perform. I read it and became interested, I bought a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and was helped, and decided to use it for a year, but seven months sufficed to cure me, and since that time I have simply had perfect health. Thanks, dear Mrs. Pinkham again, health such as I now enjoy is worth all that and more."—MRS. JENNIE O'DONNELL, 259 East 31st St., Chicago, Ill.

☞ Surely such endorsement should dispel doubt from the minds of all hesitating women. After reading such a letter, if any woman is willing to remain sick, we can only say it is her own fault and she deserves to suffer; for the medicine that cured Mrs. O'Donnell and a hundred thousand others will surely cure her.

$5000 REWARD.—We have deposited with the National City Bank of Lynn, $5000, which will be paid to any person who can find that the above testimonial letter is not genuine, or was published before obtaining the writer's special permission. Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass.
