by our new invention. Only those born deaf are incurable.
HEAD NOISES CEASE IMMEDIATELY.
F. A. WERMAN, OF BALTIMORE, SAYS:
BALTIMORE, Md., March 30, 1901.
Gentlemen: — Being entirely cured of deafness, thanks to your treatment, I will now give you a full history of my case, to be used at your discretion.
About five years ago my right ear began to sing, and this kept on getting worse, until I lost my hearing in this ear entirely.
I underwent a treatment for catarrh, for three months, without any success, consulted a number of physicians, among others, the most eminent ear specialist of this city, who told me that only an operation could help me, and even that only temporarily, that the head noises would then cease, but the hearing in the affected ear would be lost forever.
I then saw your advertisement accidentally in a New York paper, and ordered your treatment. After I had used it only a few days according to your directions, the noises ceased, and to-day, after five weeks, my hearing in the diseased ear has been entirely restored. I thank you heartily and beg to remain Very truly yours,
F. A. WERMAN, 730 S. Broadway, Baltimore, Md.

LEXINGTON NEWS.

LEXINGTON, April 16, 1902.

Chas. Barnett has added a new sign to the hotel.

J. M. White killed fifteen coyotes one day last week.

K. L. Beach was quite sick three or four days last week.

Mrs. Frakes moved into town last week from Ione.

N. S. and Victor Phelps were visiting at Lexington, Sunday.

Harvey McAlister moved on to his ranch the first of the week.

Benj. Thompson began teaching in the Burchell district Monday.

A plan is on foot to open a good road from here to the Eight Mile country.

William Barnett is having a vacation. He finished plowing last week.

Mrs. H. Pierson is visiting at Sam Tyler's. She is a cousin of Mrs. Tyler.

Tom Irwin's smiling countenance was visible above the horizon last Saturday.

J. B. Carmichael went to Portland, Saturday to serve on the U. S. grand jury.

The Meneley Quartette will be here on the 22d inst to sing prohibition songs for us.

The warm weather is making a marked improvement in the appearance of the wheat crop.

Misses Delia Leach and Nellie Reaney came down from Heppner Friday morning.

Bids have been coming in lately for furnishing lumber for the Artisan hall. Work will begin soon.

Miss Kitty Wilmot came up from Ione Saturday evening with her sister Mrs. W. P. McMillan.

Will Allen and Lark Bosher are battling with coyotes in the northern part of the county this week.

The small boys of this place will go to Ione Saturday to play a game of ball. The Ione first nine will play the Lexington first nine here Sunday.

W. B. McAlister is prepared to attend to all kinds of land business. He has been appointed U. S. Commissioner for this place.

The Ridgeway and Matteson shearing crew passed through town Saturday. They were on their way to Doherty's. They were preceded by Charley Barnett, C. A. Johnson, Al Zink and Jas. Cypert.

IONE ITEMS.

IONE, April 15, 1902.

Mrs. J. H. Franklin is seriously ill at her home in Ione.

Hon. G. W. Miller of Arlington spent two days in Ione this week.

Hon. Henry Blackman, democratic nominee for State Treasurer was in Ione, Saturday shaking hands with his friends and incidentally talking a little politics.

A Sunday closing crusade is on in Ione and all lines of business forbidden by law to open for traffic on that day have received notice to quit or something will happen.

George Caseday has moved up from his valley home and located with his family on his homestead near here. George expects to make his future home in Morrow County.

William McCausland and Frank Briggs of Sherman county are in this vicinity looking for land. They are both excellent young men and we hope they may find suitable locations.

W. K. Corson has the neatest little home in town. He has put in a new sidewalk and a new picket fence and everything fairly shines since he began to be imbued with the spirit of progress.

Loyd Woolery left yesterday morning for St. Louis to have his eyes treated there by an eminent specialist. His many friends here sincerely hope he will be allowed the relief desired and that he may soon return to Oregon.

Charles Martin departed for the dog show in Portland, this morning, taking with him his celebrated grey hound "Never Sweat," and is confidently hoping something may turn up whereby the aforesaid canine may walk off with the persimmons while on exhibition before the judges of [illegible] grey hounds. Charley has a good dog and ought to win a prize on his enthusiasm if not on the points of the dog. He proposes to turn the bear loose on the exhibition next year if not successful this season.

Sheep Notes.

The lamb feeding season in the Greely district in Colorado, is practically over. About 4,000 or 5,000 late ones will be fed till May, as they are not in marketable condition now. Last week fully 190 cars, containing 25,000 lambs, were shipped from different stations in the district, Greely, Eaton, Lucerne, Evans and La Salle, and by April 12 only a few thousand head will be left. In comparison with last year prices have been much better, averaging $6 45 per 100 pounds from the first January shipments to the present. One thing feeders have learned is that to have good solid tallow-fat lambs or sheep they must give them corn for 30 days before marketing. They also have learned that beet pulp and hay is as good as hay and barley, or hay and wheat, but corn must be given at the close-up, if better than 75 lb to 80 lb stock is expected.

The Norther Pacific and Great Northern Railways have agreed upon an equal division of the wool output this year and will not compete for that profitable traffic in Montana. This report from Helna and Great Falls confirms the statement that hereafter there will be no "hustling" for business on the part of either system where one or the other must get it. Supposedly by Mr. Hill's orders the roads will wait for the business to come to them.

The reported losses in the recent blizzard in South Dakota are much heavier than at first reported, especially in the North. The losses seem to be much greater among the sheep men than the cattle men, although a considerable number of range cattle are reported to have died, particularly among young range cattle. At least 10,000 sheep must have perished in the storm.

Interest continues intense with the efforts to break up the wool smuggling gang. To such great proportions has the illicit traffic grown during the past two years, that it has become as much, if not more, of a menace to existing laws than the opium and Chinese trade. Quiet watching and systematic investigation during the past few weeks on the part of those in charge of the United States revenue cutter "Grant," and her launches, "Scout" and "Guard," have done much to bring to light the details of these smugglers' operations.

The prohibition party is the first political party to file its state organization at the office of Secretary of State Dunbar at Salem. A certified list of the candidates has been filed at the state house. Prohibitionists throughout the state are confident that they will poll a larger vote this year than at any previous election in the history of the party in Oregon. At the June election, 1900, the party cast 4500 votes, but O. S. Jory, a prominent prohibition worker of Salem says the party will this year double, and probably treble its vote of two years ago. Mr. Jory bases this prediction on the encouraging reports received of unusually and enthusiastic county conventions, and the evidence of an unprecedented interest and activity among prohibition workers generally all over the state.

Everybody wants to know what The Oregonian has to say.

Let it Alone.

Scott's Emulsion is not a good medicine for fat folks. We have never tried giving it to a real fat person. We don't dare. You see Scott's Emulsion builds new flesh. Fat people don't want it. Strong people don't need it.

But if you are thin Scott's Emulsion is the medicine for you. It doesn't tire you out. There is no strain. The work is all natural and easy. You just take the medicine and that's all there is to it.

The next thing you know you feel better—you eat better—and you weigh more. It is a quiet worker.

Morrow's Great Climate.

That the climate of northern Morrow county is becoming more favorable for wheat growing there can be no doubt, according to W. B. McAlister, a prominent farmer and business man of Lexington, who was in Portland, says the Telegram.

"Quarter sections that several years ago were abandoned or sold for a song, have now become worth $1000 to $2000 each," he says. "Mining quarters that were entered but never proved up on are now being farmed and cannot be bought for $1000 each just for the Government right.

"These lands were settled first by farmers about the years 1884-5-6, and after many thousands of dollars had been spent in buildings, improvements and in breaking up the sod they were abandoned to the sheep, which had formerly overrun them.

"Within the past five years nearly every quarter has become occupied again and the crops of wheat grown have justified the venture. Farmers are now fairly well to-do, and there is no indication that the country lying between Lexington and the Columbia River will ever be surrendered to live-stock again.

"Even the squirrels which used to concentrate by the thousands in the wheat fields and thus destroy the crops of the pioneer, have disappeared. Their decimation was caused by a malignant disease that broke out among them a year or so ago, and Morrow county farmers need not spend their money for strychnine to feed the pests any more. Formerly lots of money each year was sent out of the county for strychnine."

Mr. McAlister likes the climate of Eastern Oregon so well that he has determined to stay there the remainder of his life. "I have visited my old home in Iowa twice within the past 15 years," he said, "and each time I return to bunchgrass, happy in the thought that I have made my home in Oregon."

He likes Lexington, which he considers a desirable town, with good school facilities and altogether a favorable place to bring up a family in. "We have tried hard to keep a saloon out of the town," he said, "and have thus far succeeded, but I fear we cannot do this much longer, as there are signs of the approaching saloon on the horoscope."

Mitchell's Land Bill.

Senator Mitchell's bill, as passed, provides that where homestead, timber culture, desert land or other entries of public lands are or have been cancelled or relinquished because of conflict, or where the entry has erroneously been allowed and cannot be confirmed, the secretary of the interior shall repay the entryman all fees, commissions, purchase money and excesses paid upon the same, when such entry is duly canceled by the department.

In cases where parties have paid double minimum price for land, which has afterwards been found not to be within the limits of a railroad grant or within the limits of any portion of a grant which may be forfeited for failure to construct that portion of the railroad in aid of which the grant was made, the excess of $1 25 an acre shall be repaid to entrymen. Claims for repayment to be valid must be filed within three years.

A DOCTOR'S BAD FLIGHT

"Two years ago, as a result of a bad cold, I lost my voice," writes Dr. M. L. Scarbrough, of Hebron, Ohio, "and began an obstinate cough. Every remedy known to me as a practicing physician for 35 years, failed, and I daily grew worse. Being urged to try Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, I found quick relief, and for last ten days have felt better than in two years." Positively guaranteed for Throat and Lung troubles by [illegible] Drug Co. 50c and $1.00. Trial free.
