STOCK AND WOOL.

Wet Weather has Caused Delay in Wool Business.

There is practically nothing new to report in the wool situation. Conditions remain unchanged. The London wool market is quite strong, and the Eastern market shows a weak tendency which presents rather a peculiar situation. Manufacturers seem to be buying sparingly. At present there is quite a difference between the buyer and the grower.

Wool is coming in slowly, due mainly to the continued wet weather which has delayed shearing and made the roads in bad condition for hauling.

200,000 pounds will probably cover the amount of wool brought to Heppner this season.

The market remains about stationary. Last week J. Devin sold 10,000 pounds of wool to E. J. Burk, representing Judd & Root, for 11 cents per pound.

Indications are now that not much wool will be offered for sale until the sales on the 4th and 5th of June.

Crawford Bros. of The Dalles purchased 2500 yearling wethers of John Woodard and Wm. Spencer.

A. G. Butterfield of Weiser, Idaho, who was here looking for sheep, will return.

Wesley Paul, representing the Associated Wool Growers Co. of Boston, is here looking after consignments. Mr. Paul was here last season looking after the interests of this association. He states that this concern is now fitted up in new quarters in a fine five story building in Boston. About 100 sheep owners from Utah and the middle West are interested, holding from $20,000 to $25,000 worth of stock. Mr. Paul stated that C. B. Wade and J. E. Smith of Pendleton, Douglas Belts, president of the Oregon Wool Growers' Association, Geo. A. Young & Son of Shaniko and other Oregon sheep growers are interested the proposition. He said that last year's business brought a return of profit.

A railroad man who keeps in close touch with the sheep industry has stated that the clip in southwestern Idaho would be larger this year than ever before. Every town of any size on the Short Line in this part of the state will become a wool station. At Mountain Home he estimated there would be over 3,000,000 pounds of wool marketed this spring, and several other points would make nearly as good a showing.

The first wool clip of the season was brought into Glasgow, Montana, a week ago. This wool comes from the south side of the Missouri river, Compton Bros. and several other sheepmen on the south side have finished shearing before the lambing season. So far the weather has been favorable. This is the first time sheep have been sheared before lambing in this part of the state.

A cattle deal of considerable importance, as far as establishing prices for the season, was consummated in this section recently. Wm. Brown, of Lone Rock, paying J. C. Oliver, of John Day $50 per head for 100 two-year-old steers. These cattle had been well wintered and were a fine, even lot of steers, and Mr. Oliver considers that he got no more than they were worth. Mr. Brown at once started the cattle on the road to Lone Rock where he has an excellent range and will dispose of them for beef later in the season.—Blue Mountain Eagle.

Fred Doe was in Arlington this week. He informs this office that he will start with his 3500 head of mutton sheep for his summer range near Mt. Adams, next Monday.—Arlington Record.

A meeting of the Umatilla County Woolgrowers' association is called by the President Douglas Belts through the secretary S. P. Gould, to be held in Pendleton May 29. On that date and the following day there will be wool sales on the sealed bids plan and many sheepmen are expected to be in the city. Officers of the association are to be elected and other important business is to be transacted.—Pendleton Tribune.

WHOOPING COUGH.

A woman who has had experience with this disease, tells how to prevent any dangerous consequences from it. She says: Our three children took whooping cough last summer, our baby boy being only three months old, and owing to our giving them Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, they lost none of their plumpness and came out in much better health than other children whose parents did not use this remedy. Our oldest little girl would call lustily for cough syrup between whoops.—Jessie Pinkey Hall, Springville, Ala. This remedy is for sale by Slocum Drug Co.
