OUR LOCOMOTIVES THE BEST.

The ten new locomotives recently sent to France have been found very satisfactory, and as this number is only the first shipment of an order for fifty of them, it shows that foreign people appreciate the value of American products. There is another American product that has become very prominent during the past fifty years, and that is Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, the standard medicine for stomach, liver and bowl complaints. Many people who have experimented for years with unknown remedies without finding relief, have been brought back to health by its use. Then this is surely the medicine for you. It will cure dyspepsia, indigestion, constipation, flatulency, and malaria, fever and ague. We urge you to try it. Our Private Stamp is over the neck of the bottle.

Commencement Exercises.

The graduating exercises of the Heppner high school took place at the opera house last Friday evening and were witnessed by a large number of people. The background of the stage was beautifully decorated with fir bows, and on each side lace curtains were draped, making a very pretty effect. Above the stage curtain was the class motto, in gold letter, with a border of evergreens, "By Our Efforts we Hope to Rise." The following is the program:

Overture—"Ni-phrata" .... Hazel Symphony Orchestra.

Following are the class officers:

Bessie B. Edwards .... President
William H. Dutton ..... Vice-President
Grace V. Hager .... Secretary
Sadie E. McCarty .... Treasurer

The subjects chosen by the class showed good judgment, and notwithstanding the extra amount of work which they had to do, were well executed. The state school board has added an extra grade to the high school course, making double the work for those who graduate this year.

The president of the Pendleton Academy, Rev. F. F. Forbes delivered the address to the class, which was very instructive and if followed would tend to elevate mankind. He said that if you made up your mind to accomplish anything and used all your energy in that direction there was no such a thing as failure. Mr. Forbes cited instances where this had been put into practice successfully.

J. M. Hager, chairman of the board of directors, presented the diplomas to the class. He said that he was not a speaker, but by the time he had finished the audience was of a different opinion.

The Symphony orchestra furnished the music and Heppner people should feel very proud of having such good musicians. They play high grade music and will compare favorably with any orchestra with the same number of pieces.

The entertainment as a whole was a perfect success.

Mrs. J. C. Hostettler who has been visiting her parents Mr. and Mrs. Dawson in this city, returned to her home at The Dalles, yesterday morning.

COURT HOUSE NOTES.

Work on New Building Will Start About June 1.

This being court week, the different departments of county affairs were quite busy.

There being no side walks on account of construction work from the street to the court house, the heavy rainfall of Sunday night softened up the dirt that had been recently dug and there was a trail of mud which was well mixed by all who had business at the court house.

Stone and excavating work has been suspended for several days on account of rain.

Finishing work on the retaining wall will be completed this week. Work on the foundation will be commenced about the first of June. Contractor DuPratt states that it will take about 90 days to complete the stone work.

For the coming June election the county court has designated the following voting places:

Heppner, court house.

Mt Vernon, engine house.

Gentry, Garrigues' hall.

Mattison, building adjoining Palace hotel on the north.

Dairy, Rood's store building.

Lena, school house, district No. 2.

Pine City, school house, district No. 26.

Alpine, school house, district No. 27.

Wells Springs, school house, district No. 16.

Cecil, school house, district No. 5.

Gooseberry, school house, district No. 36.

Eight Mile, school house, district No. 31.

North Ione, King's implement house.

South Ione, Walker's hall.

Lexington, Penland building.

Gentry Bros.' Famous Shows.

Gentry Brothers' Famous Trained Animal Shows are all brand new for the season of 1902. The shows are decidedly the best of their kind in the world and never fail to give the greatest satisfaction. The entertainment given is strictly moral, and enjoys the distinction being the only show exhibiting under canvas that interferes in no way with any particular creed or religion, and it is endorsed by the clergy and educational commissioners wherever it exhibits. The shows will be seen in this city, two performances, afternoon and night, Wednesday, May 28th.

Drying preparations simply develop dry catarrh; they dry up the secretions, which adhere to the membrane and decompose, causing a far more serious trouble than the ordinary form of catarrh. Avoid all drying inhalants, fumes, smokes and snuffs and use that which cleanses, soothes and heals. Ely's Cream Balm is such a remedy and will cure catarrh or cold in the head easily and pleasantly. A trial size will be mailed for 10 cents. All druggists sell the 50c. size. Ely Brothers, 56 Warren St., N.Y.

The Balm cures without pain, does not irritate or cause sneezing. It spreads itself over an irritated and angry surface, relieving immediately the painful inflammation.

With Ely's Cream Balm you are armed against Nasal Catarrh and Hay Fever.

Indian George Acquitted.

The trial of Indian George has been looked to with great interest by his immediate family and by Blind Jim. That the Indians have affection for one another and have shown some of the finer sensibilities that belong to the human race has been demonstrated in this case. Almost daily, father or some member of the family, has been into see Indian George and offer some consoltation and company through the grim iron bars. They have felt the disgrace keenly. Old Blind Jim a well known character, the son of a once influential chief of the Columbia river Indians has made several trips to the court house to intercede in behalf of his friend and his people. He would hobble into the sheriff's office and inquire for the "jail man." Jim is very intelligent and talks good English. His face shows considerable individualty. Jim is shown considerable respect not only on account of his blindness, but from the fact that he has the reputation of being a good live Indian. Jim was in town Monday at the opening of the court. With him was his sister, bowed down with the weight of 80 snows. He was at the court house early and patiently and faithfully waited all day for a time to act as interpreter and do something for his friend. The old couple were there without a lunch. Nothing to eat from morn 'til night for they had not the price to get that which sustains life. The pangs of hunger were looked upon lightly for Blind Jim felt the weight of duty and eagerly listened for a word from the passing throng to tell him to come forth in defense of his brother of the world. Jim finally got the attention of District Attorney Hailey in public. The aged chieftain pulled off his coat and the flow of oratory was really interesting. He had probably hard in the preparation of that speech for he covered the ground from the early history of the Columbia river to the present time. As Jim warmed up he frequently reached to his back pocket where he kept a long bath towel to wipe the perspiration from his brow. He made a good finish and again waited results. Late in the evening the case was called and the suspense was quickly ended. George was given his freedom. Blind Jim and his followers immediately saddled their cayuses and jogged happily out of town to their lonely camps in the Blue mountains.

"Heart" Party.

A very enjoyable evening was spent Monday at the residence of Mrs. Tillard, when about thirty-five invited guests assembled to enjoy the hospitality of the hostess, Mrs. J. Venore Steeves and Miss Grace Tillard, who expect to leave for Oregon City in the near future, to remain during the summer. The rooms were beautifully decorated with potted plants and flowers which produced a pleasing effect.

"Hearts" predominated and the amusements were thoroughly enjoyed by all, except some time you could hear one palpitate, which is embarrassing. The head prizes were captured by Miss Emma Welch and Mr. Osman Hager, while the booby prizes went to Miss Grace Hager and Mr. Earl Bartholomew.

A dainty luncheon was served, and, judging others by the newspaper representative, was pronounced par excellence.

After the repast was finished the guests listened to some choice music, which was well received.

It was not till the wee hours of the morning that the crowd could decide to leave, knowing that such rare treats are few and far between.

CHANGE OF LIFE.

Some Sensible Advice to Women by Mrs. E. Sailer.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—When I passed through what is known as 'change of life,' I had two years' suffering,—sudden heat, and as quick chills would pass over me; my appetite was variable and I never could tell for
