Charles Cunningham, who is the largest individual sheep owner in Oregon, holds the record this spring for lambing, his flock having dropped 9000 lambs, says the East Oregonian. The Cunningham flock now numbers 27,000 sheep of all ages and a prettier lot of high-bred sheep cannot be found. The flock will be strengthened by the importation of 100 head of standard-bred registered Ramboulett bucks from the east and California. The shearing this spring amounted to 200,000 pounds of wool, an average of 12 pounds to the sheep.

Mayor Frank Gilliam's barn and chicken house were destroyed by fire early Sunday morning. Mr. Gilliam is of the opinion that the fire started from a lamp that was used to heat a chicken brooder which was in the barn. The building was in a mass of flames before it was discovered. An alarm was turned in at a little before 3 o'clock, but the fire was beyond control before the alarm was given. Fortunately it was raining when the fire started or it would have been hard work to save Mr. Gilliam's residence. In the chicken house there were 400 young chickens and about 20 old ones besides some young ducks. All were destroyed. The loss is between $800 and $700. No insurance.

MEMORIAL SERVICES.

Impressive Ceremonies Conducted by the G. A. R.

Once more Memorial day has come and gone. This time not quite so many veterans in the parade. There will not be so many at the next, and so on for father time makes no distinction. The silent city is increasing. A patriotic people will continue to go once a year with beautiful flowers and kind words in grateful remembrance of the nation's heroes. In the hearts of the American people the Grand Army of the Republic will march on and on forever.

The services conducted by Rawlin's Post G. A. R. in this city, Friday were impressive. The ceremonies opened at 2 o'clock in the afternoon at the opera house and the following program was carried out: Dirge.....Heppner Symphony Band Opening address, Judge Bartholomew Prayer.....Rev. J. V. Crawford Male Quartet....."Crown Our Heroes" A. W. Lundell Messrs. Akers, Marden, Howard, Lundell. Oration.....Mr. Fred W. Wilson Mr. Wilson is one of the leading attorneys of The Dalles. His speech was appropriate and the audience was very much impressed with his remarks.

Male Quartet....."We Gather With Reverence".....Russell America.....Band After the exercises at the opera house the procession formed and headed by the Heppner Symphony band marched up Main street to May street and stopped at the May street bridge where there were short exercises by the children. From the bridge the Grand Army and Relief corps marched to the Masonic cemetery where the graves of the dead heroes were decorated with beautiful flowers.

In the evening services were again held at the opera house and the following program was rendered: Music.....Heppner Symphony Band Flag Drill.....Eleven Young Ladies Male Quartet....."Our Country" Parks Messrs. Akers, Yarden, Howard and Lundell. Tableau....."The Home Guard" Male Quartet....."The Pilgrim Fathers" Duaks..... Mrs. A. E. Binns Recitation.....Mrs. A. E. Binns Tearing on the Old Camp Ground Male Quartet....."America and Liberty" Tableau....."The Union Forever"

Sheep News. James W. Burns, deputy sheriff in Ione, who has just returned from a trip of inspection to Canada in Idaho, states that from Hardy Hill Springs to the boundary of the county, a traveler is hardly ever out of the sight of sheep. There are more sheep in Blaine county this year than there ever were.—Ex. Two thousand angora goats have been sold from the Bailey herd in Santa Clara valley, Cal., to John W. Patton, of Helena, who will take them to this state and introduce the goat business in this region. The Bailey herd is known to be the largest in the country, if not in the world, and is brought to the highest grade known outside Asia.
