Poor Richard Says:

"The worst wheel of the cart makes the most noise."
We have often heard it said in defence of poor printing that it attracts attention. Attracting attention is only a part of its mission. Printing that will do you good should attract favorable attention. There are some things which are better overlooked. The kind of commercial printing which a great many merchants are willing to use belong to this class. You want your printing to attract attention not by its defects but through its merits. It should be so good, so perfectly suited to its purpose that it will attract attention only through the clean, clear and satisfactory way in which it delivers its message.

Means Trouble in Cuba.

WASHINGTON, June 23.—General Leonard Wood said today that he believed the best sugar men of the United States had overreached themselves in defeating a 20 per cent reduction for Cuba. His advice for the island are to the effect that the planters kept many men employed in the hope of securing concessions from the United States. Now that such concessions are refused these men are to be discharged, and while General Wood takes no stock in the reports that they will become rebellious bands, he thinks they will give the authorities a great deal of trouble, as idle and unemployed men will prey upon those that have something that can be stolen or captured. He thinks the sentiment in favor of reasonable concessions to Cuba will take such form that instead of a 20 per cent reduction, the next reciprocity proposition will be for a 40 per cent reduction.

The worst feature of the best sugar situation has been the work that Oswald has done in connection with it. He was sometimes with the trust, some times against it, but he seems to have always been able to control the situation largely in his own interest.

Makes Radical Changes

Washington, June 23.—Senator Penrose, from the committee on immigration, today reported the general immigration bill. There are numerous amendments in addition to the amendment changing the educational test. Among these is the one increasing the head tax on immigrants to $3 per head and extending it to immigrants coming in overland, which is to be paid by transportation companies carrying them. The time for the deportation of objectionable immigrants is extended from one to three years after landing, and the transportation companies bringing in such objectionable persons are required to pay half the land transportation where the immigrants have left the seaboard. There are also increased restrictions on the importation of anarchists and insane and diseased persons, and also on the bringing in of contract laborers. Because of the radical changes made, and the probability of early final adjournment, consideration of the bill is doubtful.

Girls Quit Smoking.

An Army officer who has just returned from the Philippines says the native women are imitating the American women, school teachers and wives of army officers, in the matter of dress, personal adornment and manners.

During the last year a great change of this nature has been observed among the native women, who have been thrown into contact with the "Americans."

The Philippine women now insist not only upon having more clothes, but better clothes, and the result is a marked improvement in their average personal appearance.

A year and a half ago this officer passed through a village in Luzon. In the house where he lodged was a girl of 10 to 12 years who smoked big, black cigars and apparently enjoyed them. Visiting the same village a few months ago the officer called to see his friends, the native family. He found the girl, now a little larger, of course, and also very much better dressed.

"You are not smoking, I see," he said to her.

"No, Senator."

"Well try one of these," he said, offering her his cigar case.

"No, thank you, Senator," replied the girl in fair English, "no more smoke now. Americans women no smoke."

READ IT IN HIS NEWSPAPER.

George Soltau, a well known German citizen of New Lebanon, Ohio, is a constant reader of the Dayton Volanteer. He knows that this paper is the best to read, and when he saw Chamberlain's Pain Balm advertised therein for lame back, he did not hesitate to buy a bottle for it for his wife, who for eight weeks had suffered with the most terrible pains in her back and could get no relief. He says: "After using the Pain Balm for a few days my wife said to me, 'I feel as though born anew,' and before using the salve contents of the bottle the unbearable pains had entirely vanished and she could again take her house hold duties." He is very thankful and hopes that all suffering likewise will bear of her wonderful recovery. This valuable liniment is for sale by Slocum Drug Co.

Big Wool Clip.

President Lyle of the Columbia Southern says that there will be a wool clip of 7,500,000 pounds of wool brought into the market at Shaniko this season.

"Sherman county will have the largest clip it has ever had this year," said President Lyle. The country south of Shaniko is developing to an extraordinary degree. There are many settlers here and the sheep raising industry is becoming more and more important.

President Lyle said that he would like to see the distance between Sherman county and the Columbia Southern shortened. He said that he would like to see the Columbia Southern run from Sherman county to the Columbia Southern.
