LAND IS WITHDRAWN

Move Toward a Big Reserve in Eastern Oregon

6000 SQUARE MILES IN IT

Land Office Will Carefully Examine the Tracts Before the President Issues a Poclamation—Sheepmen Protest

Washington, July 25.—Acting Secretary Ryan today ordered the temporary withdrawal from settlement or entry of all public lands in the tract of about 6000 square miles in the Strawberry and Blue mountain regions of Eastern Oregon, with a view to its ultimate creation into a forest reserve. The withdrawal will remain in force until the President's proclamation is issued.

While withdrawn, these lands will be finally examined by officials of the land office to determine exactly what tracts shall be included in the reserve, and what shall be restored to the public domain. Already most of the valley lands that are susceptible of agricultural development or valuable for pasturing have been excluded from the withdrawal, including most lands on which settlers are located. Those lands lying south of the Strawberry range which were recommended for withdrawal by Commissioner Hermann and Superintendent Ormsby are also to be examined by the Geological Survey, before they are included in a reserve.

By the reports upon which this vast withdrawal was made, it is certain that this land is heavily covered with timber, principally pine and fir, much of which is commercially valuable. There are some smaller valleys affording good pasture land, which may or not be opened for grazing after the reserve is created. Grazing it is said, is the only industry, if any, that will be interfered with by reserving these lands.

Contemplating the proposed establishment of this reserve, a number of settlers in Eastern Oregon have filed vigorous protests with the department, while others have strongly indorsed the proposed step. The sheepmen generally are fearful that they will be handicapped if a reserve is created, while the farmers, and those looking forward to irrigation development, are heartily in favor of a more adequate water storage and conservation. Before the final lines of the reserve are drawn all protests will be carefully examined.

The disposition of the large tract of land is a matter of much interest to Morrow county sheepmen. The question of grazing is an important item. If the reserve is ultimately created and sheep are shut out, it will be a blow to this industry. If grazing is allowed, it will be a benefit. It will embrace the territory where the range disputes are now causing trouble and a forest reserve would settle this matter without question.

Telephone Without Wire.

Berlin, July 28.—Ernest Ruhmer, an electrical inventor, succeeded Saturday evening in telephoning seven kilometers by his wireless methods. The speaking voice was perfectly audible continuously during the experiment. Ruhmer, who hitherto has used a searchlight 35 centimeters in diameter, intends to construct another between 100 and 200 centimeters, expecting to speak 40 kilometers, which would be a distance sufficient to cover a modern city. It is affirmed, however, that the apparatus is too large and expensive and too delicate to be practicable commercially, but it will be highly useful to warships in transmitting orders at sea. Herr Ruhmer's invention acts on the principle of the transformation of light waves to sound waves by using a searchlight and a microscope.

The M. E. Church and the M. E. church South have arranged to hold union services on Sunday evenings during the month of August. The first Sunday evening August 3, the services will be at the M. E. church. The next Sunday August 10 at the M. E. church South, etc.

SHEEP NOTES.

It is estimated that there are more sheep on the Oregon ranges than ever before. Comparatively few were sent to market last year because the price was not so high as the year before, and this resulted in a large accumulation of sheep that would have moved under other conditions. The large increase this season has still further crowded the range and brought the number of animals well up toward 5,000,000. The conditions are such that the market is rather expecting the price of sheep to fall. No large shipments of sheep have gone East this year. If the corn crop of Kansas, Nebraska and Iowa turns out good, a considerable sheep movement in that direction may be looked for, for the price of screenings, on which sheep are fattened, is governed by the price of corn, and a large corn crop will mean cheap screenings and a heavy demand for range sheep to fatten. The present prospect for corn is good, and it is certain that the overpressure on the Oregon ranges will welcome the relief that will come from an active demand in that quarter. A few bands of sheep have been driven into California this year, and many more are likely to go that way, but the 100,000 or so sent to adjoining states are hardly missed from our millions. The wool clip has been unusual for both quantity and quality. The quantity is not adequately represented by figures of weights, for the wool is so clean that the fleeces are lighter than common. But the wool is there just the same, and it is of long, even fibre, that gives it added value.—American Wool and Cotton Reporter.

IONE ITEMS.

(Received too late for last week's publication.)

C. J. Pennington will shortly begin the erection of a dwelling on Second street.

J. P. Louy has gone to Ohio where he expects to be under treatment of an eminent specialist for the benefit of his health.

Mat Halvorsen proposes to make extensive improvements to his store building, and to enlarge the hotel in the near future.

D. H. Grabill will erect a neat two story dwelling on his lots in Ione, early this fall, and Kerr, Gifford & Co. propose to double the capacity of their already extensive warehouse at this place.

There is a scarcity of harvest hands here and no immediate prospect of relief in the near future. Three hundred men can find work in Morrow county at good wages from now until snow flies.

Reward—A substantial reward is offered by the manager of the Ione baseball club for information leading to the discovery of the location of a nine of baseball players that the Ione nine can beat in at least one seven-inning game at any time before Christmas next. No team south of Klondike and North of the South Pole barred. Address all claims for reward to the aforesaid manager to Lock Box 365, Ione, Oregon, and receive particulars and arrange game.

IONE, July 29, 1902.

John Parkins, of Lexington, spent the day in town on business.

W. T. McNabb, the rustling wheat buyer of Douglas, spent today in town looking after business.

Carpenters are busy at work erecting an extensive addition to C. T. Walker's already extensive store building.

J. F. M. Farrens is slowly recovering from a protracted sickness. He has been under the care of a doctor at the Ione hotel for several days.

C. T. Walker had the misfortune to lose a new separator by fire today at noon. The fire seemed to originate from an explosion caused by smut.

Charley Richie got excited during the recent fire at Walker's threshing machine and ran a sack needle full length into his side, requiring the aid of a surgeon.

A young fellow while intoxicated last Sunday evening tried to give an exhibition of how to be brutal to a horse he was riding, when the animal fell on him and broke his leg near the ankle.

LEXINGTON NEWS.

LEXINGTON, July 31, 1902.

Several threshers will be put in operation in this vicinity next week. Many farmers will finish heading this week if the weather is favorable.

Our school will open September 1 this year, we understand. This is a little earlier tnan usual, and it would be well for the patrons to bear this fact in mind.

Mat Gray and family arrived here from Missouri Saturday. He is the father of our John Gray. His son-in-law, Hayes Stockard, and James Stockard, a brother of Hayes, accompanied him. They all expect to locate here.

CAR WHEELS MADE OF MONEY

Every year our government destroys nearly half a billion dollars' worth of soiled or torn bank notes, and after they have been reduced to pulp are used for making railroad car wheels. From a bank note to car wheel is about as radical a transformation as the one brought about in the case of all weak, nervous and sickly people who will use Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, the favorite American remedy for stomach, liver and bowel complaints. A wineglassful before meals will put the stomach in good condition to digest the food and prevent the bowels from becoming constipated. Every one should keep it in the house to prevent belching, flatulency, insomnia and nervousness, also to cure indigestion, dyspepsia, and liver and kidney troubles.

The Austrian parliament has resolved to abolish the army practice of tying refractory soldiers up to hooks and binding their hands and feet.

THE SAME OLD STORY.

J. A. Kelly relates an experience similar to that which has happened in almost every neighborhood in the United States and has been told and re-told by thousands of others. He says: "Last summer I had an attack of dysentery and purchased a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, which I used according to directions and with entirely satisfactory results. The trouble was controlled much quicker than former attacks when I used other remedies." Mr. Kelly is a well known citizen of Henderson, N. C. For sale by Slocum Drug Co.

British Columbia grew the world's record apple last year. It was 16 inches in circumference and weighed 1 pound and 3 ounces.

MRS. IDA L. ROSER

Grand-Niece of Ex-President James K. Polk, Writes to Mrs. Pinkham Saying:

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I have been married for nearly two years, and so far have not been blessed with a child. I have, however, suffered with a complication of female troubles and painful menstruation, until very recently.

MRS. IDA L. ROSER.

"The value of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound was called to my attention by an intimate friend, whose life had simply been a torture with inflammation and ulceration, and a few bottles of your Compound cured her; she can hardly believe it herself to-day, she enjoys such blessed health. I took four bottles of your Compound and consider myself cured. I am once more in fine health and spirits; my domestic and official duties all seem easy now, for I feel so strong I can do three times what I used to do. You have a host of friends in Denver, and among the best count, Yours very gratefully,—MRS. IDA L. ROSER, 326 18th Ave., Denver, Col."—$5000 forfeit if above testimonial is not genuine.

If you are ill, don't hesitate to get a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound at once, and write to Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass., for special advice—it is free.
