A Good Company

The Clara Mathes Dramatic company is now at the Heppner opera house in a weeks engagement in repertoire. It is certainly rare for Heppner people to have the opportunity to see a first class company for a week. Heppner people are showing their appreciation of a first class company by crowding the opera house. The costumes are elegant and the delineation of the strong plays which are controlled by Miss Mathes are good. The leading lady, Miss Clara Mathes, is exceptionally strong in heavy work, and she is supported with a caste that can be highly spoken of.

Bert P. Van Cleve as a comedian can please any audience.

Interesting features are the high class specialties.

M. W. Marsh is not only a very clever actor, but one of the most pleasant managers on the road.

MARRIED.

SHARRARD — DEOS—At the M. E. parsonage in this city, October 29, 1902, Mr. Morris W. Sharrard, of Seattle, and Miss Rosa Deos, of Willows, Oregon, Rev. H. L. Beightol officiating.

HEPPNER WHEAT MARKET.

Thursday, Oct. 30.

Club—59@60 cents per bushel.

Blue stem—63@64 cents per bushel.

The wheat market is still very strong with a decided upward tendency. San Francisco and Eastern markets and cables show a strong market.

Look Out For Fever.

Billousness and liver disorders at this season may be prevented by cleansing the system with DeWitt's Little Early Risers. These famous little pills do not gripe. They move the bowels gently, by copiously, and by reason of the tonic properties, give tone and strength to the glands. Slocum Drug Co.
