BIG SCHEME HIT.

Hitchcock Will Fight Oregon Men-- Baker Reserve Involved.

Washington, Nov. 1—The Secretary of the Interior is being advised by representatives of his department, who are making investigations of the land included within the Blue Mountain withdrawal, in Eastern Oregon, that there is within its limits considerable land evidently taken up just prior to his order of withdrawal, with speculative intent. These reports show that a great portion of the state lands have been bought up, and that in many instances lands of little face or commercial value have, on the very outside limits of the withdrawal, been recently entered.

The inference is that the greater portion of such entries at least were made by persons who had information of the Government's intention to create a Blue Mountain forest reserve, and who hoped by taking up tracts in advance to have them included in the reserve when created. This would convert their holdings into lieu base, and give them the right to make selection of valuable timber land elsewhere. These discoveries tend to complicate the contemplated action of the department, and will probably materially affect the shape and size of the reserve when created. The department is determined to use every possible means to prevent the general creation of lieu base, and as a last resort may abandon the idea of establishing the Blue Mountain reserve altogether, although this extreme step is not likely to be taken.

Gold Stampede at Boise.

Boise, Idaho, Nov. 1—At 11 o'clock tonight a wild stampede is in progress here. All the livery rigs and all the available saddle horses have been secured by those engaged in the rush, and men unable to find animals are starting out on foot. The cause of the stampede is the discovery of an enormously rich body of ore in the Black Hornet district, 10 miles east of town. J. W. Mehargue, formerly of Anaconda, came in during the evening with a lot of ore taken from the discovery. He reports the ledge is seven feet wide. It was discovered in running a trench to serve as discovery work on some claims he and others had purchased. They were making some relocations, and did this work in pursuance of their plan of operations. The trench they had men running on uncovered a blind lead. Mr. Mehargue dug out some sacks of ore and brought it to town. It is very rich and is estimated to be worth $10,000 a ton.

PRESIDENTS COMPARED.

Roosevelt More Effective Than Loubet Because Elected by People.

Paris, Nov. 2.—In an article headed "Two Presidents," La Patrie today compares President Roosevelt with President Loubet. Referring to the French and American coal strikes, the paper says the energetic measures adopted by President Roosevelt brought the American strike to an end and declares that President Loubet was confronted by conditions exactly the same as those Mr. Roosevelt dealt with, but that the President of France remained passive, with the result that the French strike continues. The paper draws the conclusion that the American President, who is elected by the people, represents the people, whereas the President of France waits the slow process of the Parliament and that the French people suffer from the reign of parliamentarism.

To Clean and Pack Wool.

Baker City, Nov. 2—A new corporation will begin business in this city next Spring, to be known as the Heilner Wool-Pressing and Grading Company. S. A. Heilner, the senior member of the Heilner Commercial & Commission company, is the promoter and principal of the new company will erect a stone building near the O. R. & N. tracks, 50x300 feet, commencing early in the Spring. This building will be provided with the latest machinery for cleaning, and grading and pressing wool. The machinery will all be operated by electric power. The building is to be fire-proof throughout.

This will be the only establishment of the kind in the state. It will be a great convenience to the woolgrowers, especially in Eastern Oregon, as it will enable them to have their wool cleaned, assorted and pressed into compact form, so that it can be shipped to advantage to Eastern markets. The purpose is to prepare the wool so that it can be shipped direct to the mills from the warehouse in this city, and when received it will be ready to send to the carding and spinning machines to be converted into yarn.
