Cured of Piles After 50 Years.

Mr. C. Haney, of Geneva, Ohio, had the piles for forty years. Doctors and dollars could do him no lasting good. DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve cured him permanently. Invaluable for cuts, burns, bruises, sprains, lacerations, eczema, tetter, salt rheum, and all other skin diseases. Look for the name De Witt on the package—all others are cheap, worthless counterfeits.

Sheep Notes.

The highest price ever paid for Angora goats was driven last week at Kansas City, Mo., for the sweepstakes buck of this year's show, owned by D. C. Taylor, of Lake Valley, N. M. The purchaser was A. Kemble, of Muscatine, Ia., he paying $1,400. Last year's price for the sweepstakes buck was $1,050. After the sale of the sweepstakes buck, a yearling buck from the herd of C. P. Bailey & Son was led into the ring and sold for $700.

Feed on the range throughout the Rosebud region in Montana, was completely destroyed by the grasshopper plague. Except in the meadows along the creek, every vestige of vegetation is obliterated. The ground for miles above Sabra shows only bare topsoil. The scourge first appeared in late March, and the work of devastation continued till into July. The flocks which have for years ranged in this section (it has been a famous grazing region) are now all north of the Yellowstone, along Sunday creek, and other tributaries of the Yellowstone. The conditions resulting from the ravages of the grasshoppers were aggravated by a protracted drought.

There was a good deal of wool in southeastern Montana consigned this year, it having gotten into Miles City and other shipping points late, and there being few buyers at hand, there was little or no competition, and offers were unsatisfactory.

There is considerable alarm among the sheep men of the eastern part of Montana over the threatened epidemic of scab.

Portland Will Entertain.

The Oregon Irrigation Association convention of over 400 delegates will assemble in Portland Tuesday and Wednesday, November 18 and 19; also the Oregon Bar Association meets here on the same days, on which occasions the railroads have made reduced rates, tickets good for six days on all lines from points in Oregon to Portland.

Portland proposes to entertain all visitors over the railroads on the occasion with a ball or concert, free theaters, with visits to wheat ships, public library, Oregon Historical Society rooms, the $500,000 City Hall and the $1,000,000 Federal custom house, a steamboat ride on the Willamette and Columbia Rivers and in other ways as will best show Portland's enterprise, hospitality and desire to become better acquainted with the people of the whole state and they with it.

It is expected several thousand people from all over Oregon will take advantage of the cheap excursion rates announced by the O. R. & N., Southern Pacific and Northern Pacific to visit Portland irrigation week, and it is the intention of the business men of Portland to give these a royal welcome and free entertainment regardless of whether they come as regularly appointed delegates or simply as visitors.

Portland's shipment of grain in the month of October aggregated nearly two million bushels of wheat. This is a record-breaker.

An annual colt show will be held in Brownsville November 14. Efforts are made by the business men to hold a fruit fair at the same time.

Business Change.

Chas. Thomson has purchased the interest of John Ewing in the general merchandise store of Ewing & Thomson. The new firm will be known as Thomson Brothers.

Clara Mathes Company.

The Clara Mathes Dramatic company closed a very successful week's engagement at Garrigues opera house, Saturday evening. The people were well pleased and this company will be well received should they come to Heppner again. Heppner people showed their appreciation of a good company by turning out and crowding the opera house every night. The strongest and most popular play presented during the week was Nel Gwynn. In this play Miss Mathes shows her great ability in heavy work and pleasing versatility that holds the sympathy and attention of the audience. Del Lawrence as Charles the II, King of England, in this role presents the dignified and haughty appearance of the mediaeval king, carrying the student of history back to that time. Manager M. W. Marsh is certainly a very clever actor. Miss Emma Mathes, Miss Estella Cleveland, Oswald Roberts, Henry Rowe, Thos. Elmore and Bert P. Van Cleve, all sustained their respective roles in a clever and pleasing manner. This is a strong, entertaining, and historical play. The rich costumes which were correct in appearance added much to the general effect. Every play presented by this company was of a high order and these people deserve the success that they are meeting with.

China's Curious Way.

London, Nov. 3.—Giving an instance of the Chinese way of fulfilling treaty obligations, the Pekin correspondent of the Times notes the issuance of an imperial rescript in response to a request made by the Governor of Kwang Si Province, elevating fourth-grade officials to the rank of first grade Mandarins for their patriotism in smuggling into Kwang Si 1000 Mauser rifles and 300,000 cartridges, which were placed at the service of the Governor for the suppression of rebels. This was done, says the Times correspondent, although an imperial decree issued in August, 1901, in accordance with the protocol, forbade the importation of arms.

Tea, it is reported, can be raised in Josephine county of the very best quality.

Miss Ida M. Snyder, Treasurer of the Brooklyn East End Art Club.

"If women would pay more attention to their health we would have more happy wives, mothers and daughters, and if they would observe results they would find that the doctors' prescriptions do not perform the many cures they are given credit for.

"In consulting with my druggist he advised McElree's Wine of Cardui and Theodor's Black-Draught, and so I took it and have every reason to thank him for a new life opened up to me with restored health, and it only took three months to cure me."

Wine of Cardui is a regulator of the menstrual functions and is a most astonishing tonic for women. It cures scanty, suppressed, too frequent, irregular and painful menstruation, falling of the womb, whites and flooding. It is helpful when approaching womanhood, during pregnancy, after childbirth and in change of life. It frequently brings a dear baby to homes that have been barren for years. All druggists have $1.00 bottles of Wine of Cardui.
