FATAL ACCIDENT.

Robert Ober Crushed to Death by a Wagon.

A very sad accident occurred Monday on the road from Siocum's mill above the Penland headquarters. Robert Ober was hauling a load of lumber from Siocum's mill and was met by Lee Siocum above the Penland headquarters. Mr. Siocum had some nosebags for Mr. Ober and was handing them to him, and in reaching for them, Ober lost his balance and fell between the horses and the wagon. The horses became frightened and ran away and both wheels of the wagon passed over the unfortunate man's body killing him instantly.

Mr. Ober had been in the employ of A. M. Siocum for about six weeks and was a faithful and trusty man. He has resided in California and Oregon the most of his life. The remains were brought to town Monday afternoon. Mr. Ober was about 40 years of age.

The funeral was conducted at the Masonic cemetery near this city yesterday.

Progressive Hearts.

A very enjoyable evening was spent Tuesday by some sixteen invited guests at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. B. R. Patterson, in honor of Miss Gertrude Bishop, who has been visiting in Heppner for some time. The principal entertaining feature of the evening was progressive hearts. Two contestants tied for first prize, but in the draw Miss Myrtle Bryant captured it. The foot prize was won by Miss Bailey.

A dainty luncheon was served which was by no means the least pleasant of the features. After luncheon ping pong prevailed.

The occasion was one long to be remembered and Mr. and Mrs. Patterson proved themselves royal entertainers. Those present were:

Mr. and Mrs. B. R. Patterson, Misses Emma Welch, Myrtle Bryant, Grace Hager, Via Hart, Fay Bartholomew, May Bailey, May Farnsworth; Messrs. Will Smith, Mr. Toughbol, Hiram Wickersham, Ed Michell, Garfield Crawford, G. W. Hinton, Lou Bisbee.

Good Prospects for Oil.

Mr. E. E. Bartholomew informs a GAZETTE representative that the Columbia River development Co. has their new oil drill on the grounds ready for operation opposite Castle Rock. This drill will bore a hole 10 inches in diameter and 2000 feet deep. The company evidently means business, as they have already spent considerable money. Mr. Bartholomew states that they have a good flow of natural gas. A ferryboat is now running between Castle Rock and the Washington side of the Columbia. The postoffice will be established at Castle Rock and when trade increases trains will make this point a regular stopping place. If the company is successful in getting oil on the Washington side of the Columbia, there will be equal chances to find oil on the Oregon side in Morrow county. Should oil be found in sufficient quantity, and the assurance we have of an unbounded supply of coal, nothing can keep Morrow county from plunging ahead, and in the near future be noted for its oil and coal fields.

The Grant county Bank, which was recently purchased by W. H. Johnson & Sons, of John Day, will soon be reorganized. E. J. Bayley, J. A. Laycock and E. Stewart will become identified with the above firm in the management of the bank, thus greatly strengthening that already strong financial institution. Mr. Bayley will be the cashier of the reorganized bank and will soon assume the duties of the position.—Blue Mountain Eagle.

Mrs. Fred Unrath.

President Country Club, Benton Harbor, Mich.

"After my first baby was born I did not seem to regain my strength although the doctor gave me a tonic which he considered very superior, but instead of getting better I grew weaker every day. My husband insisted that I take Wine of Cardui for a week and see what it would do for me. I did take the medicine and was very grateful to find my strength and health slowly returning. In two weeks I was out of bed and in a month I was able to take up my usual duties. I am very enthusiastic in its praise."

Wine of Cardui reinforces the organs of generation for the ordeal of pregnancy and childbirth. It prevents miscarriage. No woman who takes Wine of Cardui need fear the coming of her child. If Mrs. Unrath had taken Wine of Cardui before her baby came she would not have been weakened as she was. Her rapid recovery should commend this great remedy to every expectant mother. Wine of Cardui regulates the menstrual flow.
