Christmas Special for the Children.

In the center of main floor—Counters, showcases and table are resplendent with an array of Christmans goods, such as we never had before. There will be no trouble in selecting something to delight the little ones. Magical toys, automobiles, engines, trains, musical toys, horns, bugles, slide trombones, soldier outfits, Magic lanterns, blocks, books, dolls, games, ping pong sets, table tennis, dominoes. Well the list is two long to enumerate. You must see them.

For the Ladies.

If you set down with your elbows on your knees, hold your head in your hand and think from now until the crack of doom, you'll never hit on a more useful or appropriate gift for your mother, wife, sister, daughter or sweet heart, than the first article in this long list of gifts. Fur boas, scarfs, collarettes, black silk ruffs, Indian blankets, Indian shawls and couch covers, dress and waist patterns, boleros, dressing sacques, silk undershirts, Eskay Gloves, lace handkerchiefs, carving sets, chafing dishes, damask table covers and napkins, silver knives and forks, pictures, medallions, rings, necklaces and chains, etc.

For the Men.

Their wants are few, anything you get will be good enough for them. A very suitable and appropriate gift would be one of those large silk mufflers, silk handkerchiefs, suspenders, or a nice pair of castor or silk lined gloves.
