jured. He was hurt about the head and his spine was also injured. Had it not been for a heavy woolen cap that he was wearing he probably would have been killed. Dr. Higgs is the attending physician.

Sheriff and Mrs. E. M. Shutt visited Ione, Wednesday.

M. D. Haman who recently went to a Portland hospital for medical treatment, is reported to be in a critical condition.

Saturday, Dr. McSwords performed a surgical operation on Mrs. Wesley Johnson for decay of the jaw bone. She is now improving rapidly.

Will Fristoe started Monday morning for Phoenix, Arizona. Mr. Fristoe who is suffering with lung trouble goes to Arizona for the benefit of his health.

The 7-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Ayers of this city was severely burned Tuesday. The child was playing around a fire in the court house yard when her clothing caught fire. Dr. Kistner is the attending physician. The child will recover.

Shan Conser, the well known railroad conductor, brother of Geo. Conser, of this city, came up from Portland, Friday evening. Mr. Conser has been with the Southern Pacific company for years. He was in charge of the train that went through the Lake Labish trestle several years ago, which was one of the worst wrecks that ever occurred in Oregon. Mr. Conser returned to Portland, Monday.

Mose Elliott was quite badly injured while out at O. E. Farnsworth's Rhea creek ranch, one day this week. He was hauling out hay to feed the sheep, and fell from the wagon in an epileptic fit. Being unconscious he clung to the lines and the horses made a short turn, uncoupling the wagon. The horses went away with the front wheels dragging Mr. Elliott who still held the lines, over the rough ground and rocks. He was very badly bruised and lacerated about the face and head, but not severely injured. Dr. Kistner is attending him, and reports that the injured man is improving.

February was ushered in with cold weather but pleasant for winter. There was a light snow fall for a few days but the warm atmosphere melted the snow almost as fast as it fell. Back in the foot hills the snow fall was heavier and the mountains are well covered. So far, the winter has been very mild and the weather prophets say that there will be no heavy snow fall this winter. Stockmen, generally have plenty of feed. Winter wheat has not been injured any, and consequently climatic conditions this winter have been favorable for both stockmen and farmers.

Stockholders' Meeting.

Notice is hereby given that the annual meeting of the Heppner Mining Company will be held at the office of C. E. Redfield in Heppner, Oregon at 2 o'clock p. m., on Tuesday, February 10, 1903, for the purpose of electing directors and any other business that may come before the meeting.

Good Wool Prospects.

Edwin J. Burke, of Hartford, Conn., representing the wool dealers, H. C. Judd & Root, of Hartford, was in the city this week.

"I am here at this time for recreation and to look over the situation," said Mr. Burke.

"The outlook is certainly bright, but of course what might develop within 60 days, no one can tell."

"I will be with you again during the wool season."

Greenhorn miners are sending large petitions to Salem against the repeal of the one-mile liquor law relating to mining camps.

W. O. W. JOINT INSTALLATION.

The Ceremonies Were Impressive and Elaborate.

Friday evening, the officers of Heppner Camp No. 66, and Maple Circle No. 250, W. O. W. were jointly installed, and the work and ceremonies, and not leaving out the banquet, was something of which the representatives of wood craft may feel justly proud.

The ceremonies in order to accommodate the large number of people were held in the I. O. O. F. hall. The work showed the result of careful preparation and interest by the members of this grand organization with the noble aims and objects to look after the neighbors in need.

The exercises commenced at 8:30. The floor work was beautiful, and reflects great credit upon the teams engaged. The marching consisted of forming the letters W. O. W. and emblematic figures, all without any confusion, in perfect order, which requires only careful training and practice to perform.

To the invited guests not members of the order, it was certainly a fitting delineation of the fact that the neighbors of both the Circle and Camp are earnest workers, and will result in added membership.

The officers of the Circle were installed by Past Guardian Nighbor Mrs. Inez A. Freeland, who in a clear and distinct voice conducted the work which had been carefully committed. The officers of the Circle are as follows:

Guardian Neighbor, Mrs. Effie Gilliam; Advisor, Mrs. Rose Richardson; Clerk, Mrs. May Kenton; Banker, Mrs. Lonetta Maris; Attendant, Mrs. Mary M. Reid; Magician, Mrs. Mary A. Neville; Inner Sentinel, Louis Summerfield; Outer Sentinel, Edw. Brown; Musician, Miss Ethel G. Reid; Managers, Mrs. Mary A. Neville, Mrs. Margaret Justus; Physician, Dr. A. K. Higgs.

Past Consul W. W. Smead installed the officers of the Camp as follows:

Past Consul, W. E. Brown; Consul Commander, J. W. Tidler; Advisor Lieutenant, Wm. Ayers; Banker, Frank Gilliam; Clerk, J. L. Yeager; Physician, Dr. A. K. Higgs; Escort, L. M. Summerfield; Watchman, H. E. Clark; Sentry, A. K. Higgs; Manager, W. E. Walbridge.

Following are the members of the teams: Maple Circle--Mrs. Luella Gardane, Captain; Cora Crawford, Nellie Slocum, Hannah McBride, Lena Lichtenhal, Ella Florence, Lauretta Yeager, Iva Hart, Anna Higgs, Hessie Kinney, Frankie Luper, Lenora Rhea, Edna Slocum.

Heppner Camp--Douglas Gurdane, Captain; Wm. Walbridge, Albert Slocum, Mr. Harris, Dan Hornor, F. F. Kenton, Will Dutton, Frank Goff, L. W. Briggs, Wm. Bechdoit, Mr. Smith, Dr. Higgs, Jerry Reedy.

The long tables in the banquet hall were nicely decorated and the luncheon was highly enjoyed.

OFFICERS INSTALLED.

Joint Installation of Rawlin's Post and W. R. C.

Rawlin's Post No. 31, G. A. R., and Rawlin's W. R. C. jointly installed their officers Saturday evening at the Masonic hall.

The ladies of the W. R. C. had prepared a nice luncheon for the boys in blue and the affair was very pleasant.

The following officers of Rawlin's Post were installed by P. P. C. G. W. Rhea: Com., J. C. Ball; S. V., D. W. Keister; J. V., J. S. Hockett; Chap., A. G. Bartholomew; Q. M., G. W. Smith; O. D., H. D. Mikesell; O. G., Jake Shaner; Delegate to Encampment, A. G. Bartholomew, alternate, D. W. Keister.

The officers of the W. R. C. were installed by Mrs. Margaret P. Ball, as follows: Pres., Bertha Drew Gilman; S. V. P., Clara Mikesell; J. V. P., Susan Lettler; Treas., Margaret P. Ball; sec., Mattie T. Smead; Chap., Mary Bartholomew; Con., Emilie Kelly; Guard, Jennie Her; Asst. Con., Eliza Willis; Asst. Guard, Olive Turner; Asst. P. I., Mattie Smead; Asst. Press Cor., Emilie Kelly. Color Bearers, 1st, Mrs. D. W. Keister; 2d, Mrs. T. A. Rhea; 3d, Mrs. Belle Leland, 4th, Mrs. Jas. Jones.
