

LEXINGTON NEWS.

LEXINGTON, Feb. 4, 1903.

Deputy Sheriff Hill visited his parents here last Saturday.

Mrs. Minnie Broadley is quite sick. We hope she may recover soon.

The mask ball at the new hall last Friday night was well attended. Those who were there report a very pleasant time.

The revival meetings at the Methodist church closed Saturday night.

The funeral of Hugh Taylor was held at the Congregational church Thursday. Rev. J. C. White conducted the services. The deceased was a brother of Samuel Taylor of this place. He was over sixty years old. The remains were laid to rest in the Lexington cemetery.

John B. White is opening an implement business here. He received a carload of wagons, plows, etc. this week.

A city election will be held in the near future under the charter passed by the legislature a few days ago. Not many candidates are in sight yet.

Silas Beach, a brother of Rev. E. R. Beach, arrived here from New York Saturday evening. He will visit awhile, and may possibly locate here.

An illustrated lecture in the interest of the A. O. U. W. was given Monday evening at the Artisan hall by Rev. G. H. Osborne.

O. S. Hodsdon and Mrs. Henrietta McPherrin were married at the Methodist parsonage Friday evening by Rev. J. M. Turner.

David Brown and wife left here for Portland last Friday, where Mr. Brown has accepted a position. They will probably return next fall.

Mrs. Warfield has returned to Ione and will make her home there.

Rev. G. H. Osborne preached at the Congregational church Sunday afternoon. He addressed the young people at the Methodist church Sunday evening.

The Spokane Rod and Gun Club will arrange a bear hunt for President Roosevelt, on his Western tour next spring.

Maude M. Kearney, of Wasco county, was arrested in Eugene Friday for selling mortgaged property in Wasco.

OUTBREAK AT HAND.

China Planning to Repeat Work of 1900.

Victoria, B. C. Jan. 29.—According to advices received from North China fears are being entertained that China is planning another outbreak similar to that of 1900. The North China Daily News says:

"It has been learned on good authority that Yung Lu, the real ruler of China, and the man who is reported to be responsible for the murder of Professor Hubert James, of the Pekin University, will centralize the command of the military forces of the empire, or at least the provinces north of the Yangtse under himself and his henchmen Yuen Shih Kai and Tung Fuhsiang. The plot for the simultaneous murder of foreigners in 1900 failed, owing to the unwillingness of so many Viceroy and Governors to carry out the order telegraphed to them. On the next occasion, the order is to be sent to the military officials whose implicit obedience may be relied on. The maxim impressed on military officials is 'superiors can do no wrong.' Subordinates have no concern with the morality of an order, nor with consequences following obedience to it."

A correspondent of the Shanghai paper says:

"A census of Christian converts has been carried out and neighbors are to be held responsible for an exact declaration as to all friends of foreigners in each group of 10 families."

From other sources the paper learns that threats are being made in several provinces against foreigners such as "next time not one will escape," which is current in Shensi. "We will not leave one ocean demon alive in Shensi and Kansu," is the boast of Tung Fuhsiang's regiments and, "the friends of the foreigners will hereafter suffer for it."

The North China News, in the course of a long article headed "A Note of Warning," says:

"It is an anxious time for the diplomatic body at Pekin. The strenuous efforts of Yung Lu to concentrate all power in his own hands and those of his henchmen, the dispositions that Yuen Shih Kai is making of his well-drilled and well-armed troops round the capital and at Shan Hai Kwan; the energy with which arming and drilling, especially of the Manchuk troops; at the capital are being pressed on; the activity evident in the arsenals and powder factories of the empire—these movements are all compatible with the truth of the alarming rumors that reach us from the northwest. Are we yet walking over treacherous ashes under which the fires are still burning?"

The disturbances in West Che Kiang continue. The insurgents, who were defeated by the troops sent against them, rallied and cut up the regulars so badly that they retired to Yenchen to await reinforcements. A thousand imperial troops were sent and the insurgents took to the hills. The inhabitants of Yenchen Fu prefecture and districts near by were pillaged, churches, chapels and houses of converts being burned. The flames could be seen for miles, and the roads leading to Sang Chow were dotted with thousands of men, women and children of the better classes, fleeing for refuge. The insurgents number 200, and many were joining their movements.

The Kiangnan arsenal has been working night and day for some time turning out quick-firing field pieces and mountain guns which are being hurried to the Governor at Nanning for use against the Kwan Si rebels in the south. The rebels continue to oppose Governor Wong Chih Chan's route to Kweilin, the capital, which he has been unable to reach. His troops are getting mutinous because of lack of pay.

Mrs. W. L. Vance, wife of a prominent Albany capitalist, was found dead in bed Friday morning. She was a sufferer from heart disease.

HEAD END COLLISION.

Terrible Wreck on the Southern Pacific in Arizona.

Tucson, Ariz., Jan. 28.—The failure of Night Operator George Clough at Vails Station to deliver orders to westbound train No. 9, known as the Sunset Limited, caused a head-end collision at 3 o'clock this morning between trains No. 7 and 8, fourteen miles east of Tucson and six miles from Vails Station, with disastrously fatal results. At last accounts 20 bodies had been taken from the mass of burned and charred wreckage and it is believed this number will be swelled by the addition of several more before the search of the tangled and twisted mass of iron and steel shall have been completed.

Both locomotives burned, oil, and the oil tanks burst, so that the fluid poured over the trains and set them on fire.

The heat made rescue impossible, and 20 persons are known to have been burned to death, 16 of them beyond recognition.

The collision was due to the forgetfulness of an operator in not delivering orders to one of the trains.

THEDFORD'S BLACK-DRAUGHT THE ORIGINAL LIVER MEDICINE

A sallow complexion, dizziness, biliousness and a coated tongue are common indications of liver and kidney diseases. Stomach and bowel troubles, severe as they are, give immediate warning by pain, but liver and kidney troubles, though less painful at the start, are much harder to cure. Thedford's Black-Draught never fails to benefit diseased liver and weakened kidneys. It stirs up the torpid liver to throw off the germs of fever and ague. It is a certain preventive of cholera and Bright's disease of the kidneys. With kidneys reinforced by Thedford's Black-Draught thousands of persons have dwelt immune in the midst of yellow fever. Many families live in perfect health and have no other doctor than Thedford's Black-Draught. It is always on hand for use in an emergency and saves many expensive calls of a doctor. Mullins, S. C., March 10, 1901. I have used Thedford's Black-Draught for three years and have not had to go to a doctor since I have been taking it. It is the best medicine for me that is on the market for liver and kidney troubles and dyspepsia and all other complaints. Rev. A. G. LEWIS.
