AT COURT HOUSE

THE COUNTY COURT HOLDS ADJOURNED MEETING.

Taxes Well Paid Up--Work on Court House Grounds--Real Estate Transfers

The county officers are now getting comfortably located in the new court house. Most of the new furniture has arrived and is in place.

The new dials for the clock, which will be five and one half feet in diameter, have been shipped and are expected to arrive at any time.

The court house grounds are being cleaned up and graded which adds much to the appearance of the county property.

Assessor W. L. Saling is still busily engaged in listing the real property on the blanks for this purpose. He expects to finish this work by the latter part of next week, when he will commence on field work as soon as possible.

Taxes are now well paid up. The new jail seems to be attractive, and being much better patronized than the old one. Since the completion of the new structure it has not been without an occupant.

COUNTY COURT.

The county court met in adjourned session Monday, with a full board present with the exception of Commissioner Griffin.

In the matter of making settlement with J. K. Carr, as superintendent of construction of new court house.

A warrant was ordered drawn in favor of Mr. Carr for $200, in full payment of services.

An appropriation of $150 was made in favor of Judge A. G. Bartholomew, for the purpose of carrying on the work of improving the court house grounds.

Peculiar To Itself

In what it is and what it does—containing the best blood-purifying, alterative and tonic substances and effecting the most radical and permanent cures of all humors and all eruptions, relieving weak, tired, languid feelings, and building up the whole system—is true only of

Hood's Sarsaparilla

No other medicine acts like it; no other medicine has done so much real, substantial good, no other medicine has restored health and strength at so little cost.

"I was troubled with scrofula and came near losing my eyesight. For four months I could not see to do anything. After taking two bottles of Hood's Sarsaparilla I could see to walk, and when I had taken eight bottles I could see as well as ever." SUSIE A. HAIRSTON, Withers, N. C.

Hood's Sarsaparilla promises to cure and keeps the promise.

Resolution of Respect and Condolence.

At a regular communication at Heppner Chapter No. 26, R. A. M. held in their temple March 19th, 1903, the following preamble and resolutions were unanimously adopted:

Whereas, it has pleased the great architect of the universe to remove from our midst our beloved companion, W. A. Kirk, and

Whereas, it is but just that a fitting recognition of his name and virtues should be had, therefore be it

Resolved, by Heppner Chapter No. 26, on the registry of the Grand Chapter of Oregon, that while we bow with humble submission to the will of the most high, we do not the less mourn for our brother who has been taken away from us. His labors are ended here below, but we trust he has entered upon the higher and nobler life which can only be reached through the portals of death. To the family and friends of our beloved companion W. A. Kirk who has labored in the quarries, has presented his work for the Grand Overseer's inspection and passed the veils, we tender our earnest and heartfelt sympathy.

Resolved, that these resolutions be spread upon the records of Heppner Chapter No. 26, and a copy thereof be transmitted to the family of our deceased companion and to each of the newspapers of Heppner, Morrow county, Oregon. Fraternally submitted.

SEVERE ATTACK OF GRIP.

Cured by One Bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

"When I had an attack of the grip last winter (the second one) I actually cured myself with one bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy," says Frank W. Perry, Editor of the Enterprise, Shortsville, N. Y. "This is the honest truth. I at times kept from coughing myself to pieces by taking a teaspoonful of this remedy, and when the coughing spells would come at night I would take a dose and it seemed that in the briefest interval the cough would pass off and I would go to sleep perfectly free from cough and its accompanying pains. To say that the remedy acted as a most agreeable surprise is putting it very mildly. I had no idea that it would or could knock out the grip, simply because I had never tried it for such a purpose, but it did, and it seemed with the second attack of coughing the remedy caused it to not only be of less duration, but the pains were far less severe, and I had not used the contents of one bottle before Mr. Grip had bid me adieu." For sale by Slocum Drug Co.
