

The Heppner Gazette

Issued Thursday Morning.

Warnock & Michell.

Entered at the Postoffice at Heppner Oregon, as second-class matter.

THURSDAY,.....April 16, 1903

On May 21st Mr. Simon can realize what a big fool he has made of himself.

This backward spring weather seems to have hit the county all alike. In several Eastern states the weather is cold and fruit buds have been killed.

During the year 1903, it is estimated that 800,000 foreigners will come to the United States. Indications are that the immigration to this country will be the largest ever known.

Keene got decidedly the worst of it in his deal with Harriman over Southern Pacific stocks. Keene is a noted stock gambler but Harriman is too big for him. And now Keene is crying about it.

The Spanish warship Reina Christina, which was sunk at Manila by Admiral Dewey has been floated and beached. The hulk of the vessel presented the gruesome sight of 80 skeletons of Spanish marines that went down with the ship. Such is war.

It is time that some action should be taken about getting up a big Fourth of July celebration in Heppner. Morrow county people would like to celebrate in Heppner this year, and there is no question but what there would be an immense crowd. Pendleton is not backward and will celebrate. Why not Heppner.

E. H. Flagg, of Salem, is a candidate for the office of labor commissioner. The bureau of labor statistics was created at the last session of the legislature, and the office of commissioner is an important place. Mr. Flagg is a man well fitted for this position and competent. His appointment would meet with general approval.

In the selection of Binger Hermann by the Republicans of the second district to succeed the late Thos. H. Tongue, shows good judgment. Mr. Hermann can be elected by a good majority, and will go to Washington with valuable experience gained by long service in Congress. Mr. Hermann will be a help to the Oregon delegation.

The decision in the Northern Securities case against the railroad merger is not only a triumph for Governor Van Sant, of Minnesota, but a victory for the people, especially of the Northwest. It forces Mr. Hill to consider the people who would have been at the mercy of this gigantic trust. It also proves that the law is effective. The only fear that can be entertained is of reversal of the decision by the higher courts, but this is not probable. The railroads are a very important part of the business of the country that should be treated fairly, but when it comes to a combination where all competition is entirely shut out, this should be stopped. This late decision will act as a good governor to equalize and steady down the aspirations of a few men who want too much at the expense of the people. To the Republican Congress and Attorney-General Knox this is gratifying and will be argument that cannot be gotten around. Republican leaders in Congress say that the Republican party has demonstrated its sincerity in its promise to regulate the trusts. A Republican Congress has provided the law, and a Republican President and Attorney-General have executed it. One thing is certain to the minds of the Republican Congressmen who discuss the attitude of trusts, if the great financial interests, the corporations and trusts dare to utter a word of protest or whisper a threat against the Republican Administration for this action, it will do more good to the party in the next campaign than all the contributions to the campaign fund by the trusts could accomplish.

EASTER SERVICES.

The Day Observed With Special Services in Heppner.

Easter was generally observed with special services at the different churches in Heppner.

At the M. E. church there was a special program consisting of literary exercises by the different Sunday school classes. The Easter star drill by 16 young ladies was a special feature, that was highly appreciated and the young ladies deserve much credit for the beautiful work. The exercises closed with a beautiful tableau. The special choir music was well rendered. The church was beautifully decorated with holly and potted plants. The church was crowded, there not being enough seats to accommodate the large audience.

Regular services were held at the Baptist church by Pastor J. W. Mount.

At the Christian church there was a special musical program and divine services.

Rev. F. O. Jones, of Newport, conducted Easter services at All Saints church.

At the Catholic church Easter was celebrated by Father Kelly, there being a good audience.

Regular morning service was held at the M. E. church south by Rev. F. C. Adkins.

PLEASANT BANQUET.

D. D. G. E. R. McDaniels Entertained by Heppner Elks.

D. D. G. E. R. Dr. McDaniels, of Baker City, paid Heppner Lodge No. 358, B. P. O. E., an official visit Thursday evening, and the occasion was celebrated by the Elks of Heppner in a manner for which the Elks are noted.

Neat invitations were sent out by the lodge notifying all the members of the visit and each member was invited to bring ladies.

The lodge met in session and after the proceedings and official business was attended to all went to the banquet room where a lunch was served.

The lodge room and banquet hall had been neatly decorated for the occasion.

The visit of Dr. McDaniels will be remembered as one of the pleasant fraternal events by the Heppner Elks.

Lieutenant John S. Fair, of the Ninth Cavalry, at Fort Walla Walla, has been transferred to the Presidio, San Francisco.

Roy Hulburt is under arrest at Eugene for horse stealing. He was implicated with Elliott Lyons in the scrape that led to the murder of Sheriff Withers.

Shamrock III.

All true lovers of sport in this country will look forward with much interest to the arrival of the new cup challenger, Shamrock III, which the English people expect will lift the cup this year. While America has held the supremacy in yacht building for years she also holds the supremacy in medicine. Take Hostetter's Stomach Bitters as an example. No other country in the world has been able to produce a medicine so good to restore the appetite, build up the run down system in the spring or cure nausea, indigestion, flatulency, dyspepsia, constipated bowels, biliousness or malaria, fever and ague. It is therefore deserving a trial. Be sure to get the genuine with our Private Stamp over the neck of the bottle. It will cure you.

Epitaphs was the subject; the Riggs house, Washington, was the place, and Lefe Pence, former representative, was the speaker. He said:

"I remember one that adorned the cemetery at Leadville, in the palmy days of that great mining camp. It seems that in the course of a barroom brawl one Jim O'Brien, a well-known character, had his existence terminated prematurely. He was a good fellow in the main, and not without friends. One of the dead man's associates, in deep grief over his demise, erected a wooden slab over his grave, on which he had written in large letters:

"Jim O'Brien departed for heaven at 9:30 a. m."

"A local humorist happened along soon afterward and appended the following:

"Heaven, 4:20 p. m.—O'Brien not yet arrived. Intense excitement. The worst is feared."—Buffalo Times.

The German government proposes the acquisition of six private railways in Prussia. The railroads of Germany are partly owned by the government and part by private corporations.

MRS. L. S. ADAMS.
Of Galveston, Texas.

"Wine of Cardui is indeed a blessing to tired women. Having suffered for seven years with weakness and bearing-down pains, and having tried several doctors and different remedies with no success, your Wine of Cardui was the only thing which helped me, and eventually cured me. It seemed to build up the weak parts, strengthen the system and correct irregularities."

By "tired women" Mrs. Adams means nervous women who have disordered menses, falling of the womb, ovarian troubles or any of these ailments that women have. You can cure yourself at home with this great women's remedy, Wine of Cardui. Wine of Cardui has cured thousands of cases which doctors have failed to benefit. Why not begin to get well today? All druggists have $1.00 bottles. For any stomach, liver or bowel disorder Thedford's Black-Draught should be used.

CARIBOU MURDER.

Large Companies That Slaughter Hundreds of the Animals in Newfoundland.

Newfoundland is probably the only country in the world where venison, salted or fresh, is a staple article of diet for the masses. The coast folk make their plans with method and deliberation, says Outing. From the harbors where they reside they go in their boats to the rivers and fords which strike into the interior. When navigation is no longer possible they debark and continue on foot to the deer country. They carry barrels filled with salt and sometimes go in large companies.

When the rendezvous is reached they camp. Then they ambush themselves along a promising "lead" or deer track, armed with a long, six-foot muzzle-loading sealing guns, which they charge with about "eight fingers" of coarse gunpowder and "slugs" of lead, fragments of iron or bits of rusty nails, whichever they may have. They fire point blank into a herd of caribou, as it passes, and being usually good shots, contrive to kill almost anything they aim at, or to wound it so badly with these dreadful missiles that it soon collapses. Then they skin and cut up the meat, for these men know a little of every trade, and pack it in the barrels with the salt as a preservative.

Lost Jewelry in Laundry.

Before sending linen to the laundry look every piece over for forgotten collar buttons and stick pins. The laundries are repositories of more lost articles of this description than is dreamed of by the public. Every day quantities of gold and jeweled articles are picked up. Some of them are identified and restored, but more are simply pocketed by the finders. Money was frequently found in the pockets of washable waistcoats worn last summer.
