

Miss Alice Bailey, of Atlanta, Ga., tells how she was permanently cured of inflammation of the ovaries, and escaped the surgeon's knife, by the use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

The universal indications of the approach of woman's great enemy, inflammation and disease of the ovaries, are a dull throbbing pain, accompanied by a sense of tenderness and heat low down in the side, with occasional shooting pains. On examination it may be found that the region of pain will show some swelling. This is the first stage of inflammation of the ovaries.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I wish to express my gratitude for the restored health and happiness Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has brought into my life. "I had suffered for three years with terrible pains at the time of menstruation, and did not know what the trouble was until the doctor pronounced it inflammation of the ovaries, and proposed an operation. "I felt so weak and sick that I felt sure that I could not survive the ordeal, and so I told him that I would not undergo it. The following week I read an advertisement in the paper of your Vegetable Compound in such an emergency, and so I decided to try it. Great was my joy to find that I actually improved after taking two bottles, so I kept taking it for ten weeks, and at the end of that time I was cured. I had gained eighteen pounds and was in excellent health, and am now. "You surely deserve great success, and you have my very best wishes."—MISS ALICE BAILEY, 50 North Boulevard, Atlanta, Ga.

Another woman saved from a surgical operation by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Read what she says:—

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I cannot thank you enough for what your Vegetable Compound has done for me. If it had not been for your medicine, I think I would have died. "I will tell you how I suffered. I could hardly walk, was unable to sleep or eat. Menstruation was irregular. At last I had to stay in my bed, and flowed so badly that they sent for a doctor, who said I had inflammation of the ovaries, and must go through an operation, as no medicine could help me, but I could not do that. "I received a little book of yours, and after reading it, I concluded to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and I am now a well woman. I shall praise your medicine as long as I live, and also recommend the same to anyone suffering as I was."—MRS. MINNIE OTTOSON, Otho, Iowa.

All sick women would be wise if they would take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and be well.

Data Obtained.

The Board of United States Engineers detailed to investigate conditions at the site of the proposed canal and locks on the Columbia River above Celilo, have returned, and the members will leave for their respective stations in various portions of the country.

Major W. E. Langfitt, who was with them yesterday, said the trip in the river was a very pleasant one and the board had no difficulty in obtaining the data they went after. President Mohler, of the O. R. & N., had placed his own car at the disposal of the board and the engineers took their own time in making the inspection. They will probably render their report to the Government in time for Congress to act on the project at the next session.

There are various plans projected for the construction of the canal and locks, and some provide for the works on the Oregon side, while others favor the Washington side of the river. Although the engineers are reticent as to their conclusions, it is considered likely that the project favored is that of a canal nine miles long on the Oregon side. In this distance a fall of 81 feet has to be overcome and this will be done by means of three locks, each capable of raising a steambot to a height of 27 feet. The cost of the proposed work will range between $3,000,000 and $4,000,000. Great care is being taken by the engineers to gather all the data bearing on the proposition, so as to save much valuable time when actual construction shall have begun. There is ample means for this, as most of the appropriation made for the boat railway several years ago is yet unexpended and has been turned over to the canal and locks fund.

Engineers View Obstructions.

The Dalles, May 15.—The Board of Engineers sent by the Government to visit the obstructions in the Columbia River near this city arrived here last night at midnight in President Mohler's car. At an early hour this morning an engine took the car up the river to the scene of the proposed improvements, giving the engineers opportunity to visit the various points at their leisure.

The party returned to this city in time to take the west bound noon train for Portland. Hon. Malcolm A. Moody accompanied the party in its inspection of the obstructions.

Leaving of Shamrock III.

Gonrock, May 15.—A storm rendered it impossible this morning to start the proposed 55 mile race between the Shamrocks from here around the Channel fleet, off Lamblass, Isle of Aron, for a prize of $500.

It is expected that the dismantling and refitting of the two Shamrocks will be accomplished in record time. The sails and spars for the ocean rigs are practically ready. The date on which the yachts will start for the United States has been previously fixed for May 30.

WU'S GAS METER.

He Sprung It on the Empress Dowager and It Was a Puzzle to Her.

"This," observed Wu, as he lifted a box-like affair from his trunk, "is one of the greatest wonders of America." "It doesn't look very wonderful," commented Tsi Ann, tucking one foot up where she could sit on it and the throne at the same time, relates the Chicago Tribune.

"No, but even in America no one can understand it. Listen. "Don't put that thing to my ear," cautioned Tsi Ann. "Is this another of those telephones?"

"O no. This is worse than the telephone. It is a gas meter."

"A gas meter? What does it do?"

"The consumer?"

"How does it work?"

"That is a mystery. It is only known that it works always and untriflingly. It works while you sleep and while you wake. It never stops. It is constructed after the Newtonian theory of creation. It has something in it that just keeps it whirling on and on, at so much per revolution, and nobody knows what keeps it moving, and nobody can stop it."

"That's funny."

"Funny, yes. But very sad in America. Listen to it. Hear it running right along. Thank Confucius and the 900 gods of the Pale Green mountains! The gas company never will get the chance to read what this meter has recorded."

"But," said the empress, "is there no escape from this in America?"

"None."

"It must be worse than manifest destiny."

"It is."

"Wu," remarked Tsi Ann, with that intelligent smile which has enshrined her in the hearts of curio collectors, "Wu, I am glad you were sent to America. At one time I almost had decided to become civilized."

"So had I," acknowledged Wu, "but the bite of the dog, as the foreign devils put it, will cure the hair."

"I wrote to Dr. Pierce for advice though I thought surely I would die."

"After my baby came in January, 1900," writes Mrs. Nancy Abner, of St. Paul, Ark., "I suffered severely from all sorts of aches and pains, until the following May, when I read one of your pamphlets, treating on female diseases. I wrote to Dr. Pierce for advice, although I thought surely I would die, as our physician told me I was more liable to die than to get well; your fatherly advice caused my health to be restored. I took five bottles of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, three of 'Golden Medical Discovery' and three vials of 'Pellets,' together with your other remedies, and I am now able to do all my work."
