An exchange says whenever you find a man finding fault with a local paper, open it and ten to one he hasn't an advertisement in it, five to one he never gave it a job of work, three to one if he is a subscriber he is delinquent, even odds he never does anything to assist the publisher to run a good paper, and forty to one he is the most eager to see the paper when it comes out.

The committee in charge of the Memorial Day arrangements wish to announce that they have been disappointed in securing a speaker for that day and therefore there will be no exercises at the opera house in the afternoon, but all who can do so, are invited to meet with the G. A. R. and W. R. C. at 2 p. m. at the opera house to go to the cemetery for the Memorial services.

A large amount of wool is now being hauled to the Heppner ware houses. Grant county wool from the Monument district is beginning to move and will be brought in as fast as sheared. Owing to the late spring, shearing is backward in the Spray country and this wool is late in coming in. No wool sales are reported. Owners are waiting for sales days under the sealed bid method. The first sales day will be next Tuesday, June 2. A number of buyers are already here and more will come to bid on the wool.

Death of D. B. Kingery.

D. B. Kingery died Monday morning at 7:30, of stomach and heart trouble, at the residence of A. Andrews in this city, aged 68 years.

The deceased was born in Pennsylvania and came to California when a boy and settled at Ft. Joseph. He afterward moved to McMinnville, Ore., where he has resided for the past twenty years. He had not been well for some time and about three weeks ago came to Heppner thinking it would benefit his health, but gradually grew worse and died Monday morning.

The deceased held some very responsible positions during his residence at McMinnville and was a highly respected citizen. He belonged to the order of Odd Fellows.

The deceased leaves a wife and six children to mourn his loss.

Pleasant Surprise.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter O. Hill were the recipients of a very pleasant surprise Tuesday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Hill were completely surprised. Ice cream and light refreshments were served. Following were present: Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Hill, Mr. and Mrs. N. C. Maris, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Clem, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Morrison, Mrs. E. J. Mrs. Laura S. Webb,
Vice-President Woman's Democratic Clubs of Northern Ohio.
"I dreaded the change of life which was fast approaching. I noticed Wine of Cardui, and decided to try a bottle. I experienced some relief the first month, so I kept on taking it for three months and now I menstruate with no pain and I shall take it off and on now until I have passed the climax."
Female weakness, disordered menses, falling of the womb and ovarian troubles do not wear off. They follow a woman to the change of life. Do not wait but take Wine of Cardui now and avoid the trouble. Wine of Cardui never fails to benefit a suffering woman of any age. Wine of Cardui relieved Mrs. Webb when she was in danger. When you come to the change of life Mrs. Webb's letter will mean more to you than it does now. But you may now avoid the suffering she endured. Druggists sell $1 bottles of Wine of Cardui.
