Foraker, Not Roosevelt, says
Senator Morgan.

POWERS AGREE ON POLICY

Exchange of Views Between the Powers Regarding Situation in Macedonia.

Lancaster Pa., Aug. 8.—That J. B. Foraker, and not Theodore Roosevelt, will be the next Republican nominee for the Presidency is a prophecy on which Senator John T. Morgan, of Alabama, is willing to risk his political reputation. Senator Morgan, when seen at White Sulphur Springs, Va., today, said: "The Republican nomination will go to Senator Foraker, of Ohio, and the Democratic nomination to Senator Gorman, of Maryland."

"Gorman," said Morgan, "is the choice of the South, because he stands as the representative of the belief that negro suffrage must be limited. Senator Gorman was returned to the Senate upon this issue."

Mr. Gorman declared that the fifteenth amendment of the Constitution could not, if it were proposed today, command the assent even of the majority of the Northern States, whose people now consider that unrestricted negro suffrage was a mistake. The Senator in conclusion said:

"Gorman is a representative of the Democratic view of the issue, old and new, and is acceptable to the different shades of Democratic opinion."

Joseph Benson Foraker is Senator from Ohio, and one of the leaders of the Republican party in that state. He was prominent before the rise of Senator Hanna, who lately has contested with him the control of the party in Ohio. While generally at odds, the two men often get together, and at the recent state convention both worked harmoniously except upon the proposed endorsement of Roosevelt for President in 1904, which was carried by the Foraker forces against the wishes of Hanna. In the face of the endorsement political leaders in other states will be surprised, if Foraker should become a candidate against Roosevelt, notwithstanding the prediction of Senator Morgan, who is regarded as a shrewd political observer.

Powers Agree on a Policy.

Rome Aug. 10.—It is stated here that there has been an exchange of views between the powers, regarding the situation in Macedonia, and apparently the powers have decided to support Austria and Russia in efforts to re-establish peace.

Reports previously received here from Italian Consuls in the Balkans predicted the present revival of the insurrection, which the Consuls considered to be almost entirely the work of Boris Sarajoff, the Macedonian agitator, who is now in command of the insurgents, it being pointed out that the attitude of the Bulgarian government has been correct since receiving Russia's admonition. The plan of Sarajoff, as understood, is to bring about European intervention by provoking the Turks to a massacre and the murder of the Russian Consul at Monastir, Mr. Rostkovski, is considered here to have played into the hands of the revolutionists in this respect.

Mr. Rostkovski is represented here as being a very arrogant official who upon occasions boxed the ears of soldiers and police whose conduct displeased him.

Hon. Henry Blackman Will Visit Interior Counties.

Hon. Henry Blackman, representative of the Lewis and Clarke fair started Monday morning for an extended trip through the interior counties of Eastern Oregon, to gather exhibits, curios of interest and as much as anything to arouse an interest among the people in relation to the advantages and benefits to be derived from a representative and proper exhibit at St. Louis and at Portland, during the Lewis and Clarke fair.

Mr. Blackman will first visit Canyon City, and from there will go to Burns and across the mountains to Lake and Klamath counties.

He hopes to get a good showing from the agricultural and mining interests especially for the St. Louis exposition. The Lewis and Clarke commission is doing some good work. It is a well known fact that the interior counties have not been properly represented, and that the entire state may be fairly represented is the object of Mr. Blackman's visit.

He will be gone about 60 days.

Notice.

The attention of the Executive Committee has been called to the fact that several watches, rings, silverware articles and other valuables recovered from the Heppner flood are being held by private individuals, who are not the owners of the same. The committee does not wish to bring embarrassment to anyone, but these articles must be returned to the rightful owners. Therefore, all parties holding such articles will kindly hand the same to D. S. Gurdane, city marshal, and the committee will endeavor to return them to those entitled to their possession.

Can of Cheese Travels Far.

Corvallis, Or., Aug. 8.—Canned cheese, made in the cheese canning experiments of Professor Pernot at the Agricultural College, has been successfully shipped more than half around the world and back again. The cheese, in one-pound tins, in which it had been cured, was sent on the long journeys in order to test its fitness for transportation.

One can has just arrived from London, England. It has been four times across the United States and twice across the Atlantic. It was originally started to London by mail, but was stopped at New York and sent back to Corvallis because packages of the sort are not transmissible by mail across the Atlantic. It was reshipped from Corvallis and went to London. There a companion can was opened and the contents pronounced by experts to be perfect cheese in the finest condition. The other can was reshipped to Corvallis, where it was received and opened by Professor Pernot yesterday. As in the case of the can opened in England, the contents were perfect.
