W. O. MINOR HOME.

Comes Back With Many Ribbons and Prizes.

W. O. Minor, the well known breeder of fine stock, returned to this city Monday evening, bringing his show herd of Shorthorns with him, after making the circuit of the fairs of the Northwest.

Mr. Minor's show herd of 20 of the finest Shorthorns came back in good condition.

Mr. Minor states that this was the most successful tour that he has ever made and considering the fact that he was in competition with all of the best herds in the country, is proud of the showing of his herd.

He visited Salem, Yakima, Spokane and Walla Walla, and everywhere carried off the lion's share of premiums.

Two beautiful silver cups were offered this year, and he brought both of them home with him.

The first cup was offered for the best yearling owned and bred by exhibitor. This was won by Oregon Rose. The trophy was put up by C. D. Ladd at the Oregon State Fair.

At Spokane another silver cup was offered for the best female of any age or breed. It was a contest for all comers and Mr. Minor's Orange Blossom was
