OUR ANNUAL WHITE FAIR

Is now on and in full swing. All white goods reduced in price this month. We are glad to note that the people of Heppner and Morrow County are realizing more and more that The Fair Department Store does not make promises they cannot fulfill. When The Fair advertises they can save you money they are there with the goods and can and do prove it to you, as you all know from experience. Our Muslin Underwear Sale was a decided success and everyone who could availed themselves of the opportunity, because we advertised standard goods at prices below all competition, and we sold just as we advertised, and the people were not slow to recognize merit. Don't overlook our White Fair.

MUSLIN UNDERWEAR AT SALE PRICES THIS MONTH

Our bright new stock of Undermuslins for ladies and children, consisting of the sheerest of materials and the daintiest of trimmings, as well as the plainer and substantial kinds, will be on sale all this month at special prices. You know that when we say special prices it means something. Our reputation for Quality is also of the best, and we give you back your money if you are dissatisfied.

A Roosevelt club was organized with a big membership at Monument last Saturday evening with the following officers: President, Oscar Schaefer; secretary, Henry Murphy. This is the first Roosevelt club to be organized in Grant county.

County School Superintendent J. W. Shipley has sent to the clerks of the several school districts of Morrow county blanks for taking the annual census reports in order to comply with the law which requires every district clerk to enroll annually during the last week in February, for school purposes, all persons in his district over four and under 20 years of age.

An interesting and hotly contested game of basket ball occurred at Lexington last Saturday afternoon between Heppner and Lexington teams. At the end of the second half, honors were even with the score tied. The final result of the game was a victory for Heppner by a score of 14 to 16. Following is the line up of the game: Heppner—Will Hendricson, center; Edgar Ayers, forward; Carl Rhea, forward; Carl Farnsworth, Jesse Hale, guards. Lexington—Carl Beach, center; Roy Bre-shars, forward; Howard Lane, forward; Willcox, Frank Parker, guards.

Valentine Party.

Miss Mabel Ayers entertained a few of her friends last Saturday evening in a most charming manner by giving a valentine party. The invitations sent out were in rhyme, which were to be answered in the same manner, and were to be read aloud, and the one composing the masterpiece received a prize. This proved that Heppner was far from being devoid of poets. Earl Conser's answer was the winning number. A dainty luncheon was served, which was not at all the least entertaining of the enjoyable events of the evening.

The house was decorated with innumerable red hearts, which produced a pleasing effect.

A very enjoyable time was had and it proved without a doubt that Miss Ayers is a royal entertainer.

Clark-McDowell.

An interesting wedding was solemnized at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Arlet Brock, at 525 Couch street, Portland, Oregon, Sunday, February 14, at 8:30 a. m., in the marriage of Mr. M. D. Clark and Mrs. Minnie McDowell both of Heppner.

Immediately after the marriage ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Clark took the train for Spokane, for a short wedding trip.

Mr. Clark and Mrs. McDowell are among Heppner's most popular people, being well known here where they have many friends who will welcome and congratulate them on their return to this city.

Mr. Clark is an energetic and enterprising young business man and is a member of the firm of Minor & Co., who own one of the largest department stores in Eastern Oregon. By strict attention to business and good judgment he has been no small factor in helping to build up a great business.

The part he has played with Cupid has been kept a secret, the announcement of his engagement only being made to a few intimate friends.

Mrs. McDowell is an accomplished and charming young lady, and being also well known here, has a host of friends.

MARRIED.

WOOD—MADDOCK—at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. S. E. VanVactor, in this city, Tuesday evening, February 16, 1904, Dr. J. F. Wood and Miss Mary K. Maddock, both of Condon. Father Kelly officiating.

Dr. Wood is one of the leading physicians of Condon. Miss Maddock is an accomplished and popular young lady.

Steel & Freeland Show Co.

Whenever this company comes to Heppner a crowded house is assured, as it is a foregone conclusion that the people will not be disappointed. The entertainment given in Roberts' opera house Monday evening excelled all former shows and was highly appreciated by Heppner people. The house was packed to overflowing. Many new features have been added since their last appearance here.

"The trip to the Moon" was very interesting, for we doubt if many of our people have had an opportunity of visiting that world. One thing that the Heppner people admired above all was the flower gardens of California. The illustrated solos and duets were well rendered.

Messrs. Steel & Freeland are always welcome in Heppner and a crowded house is assured should they return again.

C. E. Election of Officers.

At the regular monthly business meeting of the Christian Endeavor Society of the Christian Church, the following officers were elected for the ensuing year.

President, Howard H. Gove; vice-president, Ethel G. Reed; recording secretary, Mabel Ayers; corresponding secretary, Gertrude Crawford; treasurer, Mrs. Jennie Beckdolt; organist, Lenna L. Reid. The president appointed the following as chairmen of the various committees:

Lookout, Lenna L. Reid; prayer-meeting, Gertrude Crawford; social, Gertrude Lamb; music, Dora Prater. Delegates were chosen to attend the Union State Endeavor Convention which meets in Pendleton, Feb. 19-22, 1904. Those who will represent the society at this place are the Misses Reid, Dora Prater, Esther Ford, Mary Behrens and Gertrude Crawford.
