MEN FROM THE FARM.

A Great Majority of Farmers in New Oregon Legislature.

The Oregon Legislature of 1905 is a widely representative body, not only in the geographical location of its members, as the law requires, but also in their occupations and business interests. Though this is primarily a lawmaking body, only 14 of its members are lawyers. Farmers, who constitute the greater proportion of the population, have also the greater proportion of Representatives, there being 20 farmers in the two Houses of the Legislature. If the five stockmen be classed as farmers, the agricultural classes have more than one fourth of the members of the Legislature.

The business interests are represented by five bankers, nine merchants and seven lumber manufacturers. Six doctors and two druggists will be at Salem next winter to look after legislation that particularly relates to the health of the state. Almost every business and industrial interest is represented, and it would be difficult to propose any legislation bearing upon a subject regarding which no member could speak from knowledge gained by experience.

The occupations of the members of the Legislature are as follows:

Farmers, 20—Senators Croisan, of Marion, and McDonald, of Union and Wallowa; Representatives Calvert, of Marion; Ritchie, of Marion, Cornett and Munkers of Linn, Edwards of Lane, Jackson and Von der Hellen of Jackson; Carter, of Benton, Fawk of Polk, West, of Tillamook, Barnes, Flint and Newell, of Washington; Bramhall and Jaggard of Clackamas, Kuney and Burgess of Wasco.

Merchants, 9—Senators Hobson, and Howe, of Yamhill, Holman, of Multnomah and Clackamas, Nottingham of Multnomah, and Representatives Griffin, of Lane, Gray and Sonneman of Douglas, Laws of Clatsop, Hermann, of Coos, and Mears, of Multnomah.

Lumber manufacturers, 7—Senator Booth, of Lane, Miles, of Yamhill, Colwell, Henderson and Hudson, of Multnomah, and Mayger, of Clatsop.

son and Haines, of Washington, and Representatives Settemier, of Marion, Cooper of Polk, and Mills of Multnomah.

The Flag of Victory.

The thirteen Stars and Stripes was triumphant at Saratoga in 1777, also in the War of 1812, Mexican War, Civil War and Spanish War. With such a record our flag has been truly called "The Flag of Victory." On account of the unequalled record of cures made by the famous Hostetter's Stomach Bitters it has also been truly named "The leader of its class." In fact, it is so safe and reliable that prominent physicians all over the country never hesitate in recommending it to their most delicate patients, knowing from past experience that if a cure is possible the Bitters will affect it. A single bottle is all that is necessary to convince you of its value in cases of indigestion, dyspepsia, constipation, biliousness or malaria. Be sure to try it.

Tornado at Moscow.

Moscow, Russia, June 30.—A tornado, swept the city last night causing enormous damage. Forty-five persons were killed and 13 injured are being cared for in the hospitals.

Two villages near here in the track of the storm were destroyed. One hundred and fifty deaths are reported there, while 85 persons were hurt.

The telegraph system was prostrated and railroad communication is interrupted.

Hailstones weighing three quarters of a pound fell during the storm.

In one grove of 250 acres only one tree was left standing.

Worst of all Experiences.

Can anything be worse than to feel that every minute will be your last? Such was the experience of Mrs. S. H. Newson, Decatur, Ala. "For three years, she writes, 'I endured insufferable pain from indigestion, stomach and bowel trouble. Death seemed inevitable when doctors and all remedies failed. At length I was induced to try Electric Bitters and the result was miraculous. I improved at once and now I'm completely recovered.' For Liver, Kidney, Stomach and Bowel troubles Electric Bitters is the only medicine. Only 50c. It's guaranteed by E. J. Slocum, Druggist."

Carried Away by Cloudburst.

Pittsburg, June 23.—Over 500 homes, business houses and schools, a short distance from Pittsburg on the Panhandle Railroad, were inundated by a cloudburst last night. Many buildings and bridges were washed away, horses and cattle were drowned, and at least one life was lost. There were many narrow escapes.

The flood did not subside until daylight, and many families slept out of doors all night. Tracks washed away, and many towns above and below Oakdale and Carnegie are without means of communication. The only fatality reported so far was the drowning of an unknown Italian. The damage will reach $500,000.

Startling Evidence.

Fresh testimony in great quantity is constantly coming in, declaring Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds to be unequalled. A recent expression from T. J. McFarland, Bentoville, Va., serves as example. He writes: "I had bronchitis for three years and doctored all the time without being benefited. Then I began taking Dr. King's New Discovery, and a few bottles wholly cured me." Equally effective in curing all Lung and Throat troubles, Consumption; Pneumonia and Grip. Guaranteed by Slocum, Druggist. Trial bottles free, regular sizes 50c. and $1.00

Driven to Desperation.

MODERN RACE HORSES.

High Average of Speed That Has Been Attained To in the Last Few Years.

The average race of 1903 was run a half second faster than in previous seasons. Years ago when the Suburban and the Brooklyn handicaps were created, they were intended primarily to be endurance races, in which horses should take up strong weights and run a respectable route at a moderate pace, says Outing. We once called those handicaps "distance" races—nothing less than that. The pace is terrific. Five years ago horses sprinted six and seven furlongs. Last summer they sprinted a mile and a quarter, taking the popular handicap routes at a pace that not many years ago would have been that of a quarter horse. The first of the great handicaps is the Metropolitan, a mile at Morris Park in May. Only those horses that are especially "forward" in their preparation may start. So early in the year no great deed is anticipated in the Metropolitan, and yet the running in the season that has just passed was remarkable for the pace. William C. Whitney's splendid four-year-old Gunfire was the winner after a terrific struggle, during which the clipset by the front runners was a strain of the most trying sort. Alternately Gunfire, carrying 168 pounds, and Old England were leading with no great distance separating them at any time. With the field close at their heels they ran the first furlong in 12 3-5, the first quarter of a mile in 24 seconds, the three furlongs in 35 1-5 seconds, and the half mile in 48 2-5, the five furlongs in 1:00 4-5, the six furlongs in 1:14 3-5, and the full mile out, Gunfire beating Old England by a length and a half in 1:38 3-5.

PROBLEM OF DRY FARMING.

Agricultural Department Has Scheme for Raising Plants Without Use of Water.

It is probable that in the near future it will be possible to raise good crops without either natural or artificial irrigation. As is apparent to everyone, even the most liberal system of irrigation reclamation will not exhaust the available arid and semiarid regions of the west, as even when irrigation has been applied to its utmost limits there will remain some millions of acres of fertile land that adjoin these reclaimed wastes. The lands lie principally between the one hundredth and the one hundred and twentieth meridians and comprise areas over which there is a deficient rainfall, with no available neighboring sources of supply which might be brought to them even by canals.

But the department of agriculture has other resources to fall back upon. If the customary crops require water why not develop new crops that can be grown dry? This, in substance, is the problem the bureau of plant industry has set for itself. Dry land farming or "dry farming" is the name of this unique scheme. Just now the world is being searched for industrial plants that can sustain life and mature crops with a minimum of water and an elaborate life study of all such plants is under way.

International Telephones.

Great activity is now being displayed in the extension of international telephones. Brussels and London and Paris and Rome are already connected. Negotiations are now in progress between the Russian and German governments to still further enlarge the area of international telephones by a direct line connecting St. Petersburg and Berlin.

Handkerchiefs for Soldiers.

The Russian government has decreed that in future all soldiers of the empire must use handkerchiefs—heretofore not one soldier out of a thousand has indulged in this luxury—and that all the handkerchiefs must contain pictures emblematic of a soldier's life, both in battle and in time of peace.
