GREATEST BATTLE OF WAR

Fierce Fighting Now on at Liao Yang.

RUSSIANS HOLDING OWN

Two Companies of Attackers Are Mistaken for the Enemy and Annihilated.

London, Aug. 30.—A dispatch from Liao Yang to a news agency dated August 30, says:

"The Japanese artillery fire only ceased at 8 o'clock this evening.
The casualties have not yet been ascertained.

"The Third Russian Corps repulsed a Japanese assault, the Japanese being hurled back by bayonet charges, firstly, by the Twenty-third, and then by the Twenty-fourth Regiment, which received and repulsed the enemy no less than six times.

"Two Japanese companies which succeeded in occupying a Russian position were mistaken for Russians and annihilated by Japanese artillery fire.

"At 4 o'clock in the afternoon the Japanese concentrated their fire on a Russian southern detachment, and also tried to outflank the detachment from the right under the protection of the batteries.

"One company after another was noticed running swiftly to the westward in an attempt to outflank the positions, but a Russian regiment and a battery were ordered to advance, and succeeded in forcing the Japanese to retreat in disorder, evacuating positions they previously had gained.

Armies About Equal.

St. Petersburg, Aug. 31.—The great battle of Liao Yang, which began early Tuesday morning, raged throughout the day with increasing intensity. Every confidence is expressed in General Kuropatkin's ability to meet the Japanese assault on ground of his own choosing, but the city is hungrily awaiting further news of the progress of the fight.

The Japanese forces engaged in this battle can only be estimated here, but they are believed to number about 200,- 000 men.

General Kuropatkin is known to have six army corps, besides 147 squadrons of cavalry, in which great confidence is reposed, bringing the Russian total up to about the same number that the Japanese have. How the armies compare with regard to artillery is not definitely known, though throughout the war the Japanese have shown great preference for this arm and great skill in its use.

Reports from the front credit the Japanese with having about 200 guns and many mountain batteries, and it is known that they recently shipped 24 heavy guns to Yinkow. Four of these guns already have been mentioned as being in action.

A 16-year-old girl lies crippled for life in a Tacoma hospital as the result of an accident while loop-ing the loop at $2 a performance.
This should be anything but stimulating to the girls who want to leave the dull life of home for the gay and merry making show business.
