LOSS IS AWFUL.

Russian Casualties Now Estimated at 40,000.

Tokio, Oct. 16.—In the reports of the great battle which continue to arrive from the front the most striking feature is the terrible record of Russian dead.
Before the severe fighting October 14, General Oku's army alone recovered and buried 2000, making the total number of Russians buried by the Japanese, with Nodzu's army still to learn from, 6500. Applying the usual calculations and making reasonable allowance for the fighting of the 14th and 15th, the Russian losses will exceed 40,000.

Fragmentary reports of Japanese casualties are coming in. General Oku, up to and including October 14, lost 3500 men. Estimates of the total Japanese losses are not possible, but they are small in comparison with the frightful losses of the Russians. Reports dispatched late yesterday from the field are in the following chronological order:

"The main force of the right army, which had already occupied Chouchiafun Heights, reached a line on the Shakhe River. But one division of the enemy continues to offer a stubborn resistance. The center army has reached its objective and has been heavily engaged since the morning of October 15.

"On the morning of October 15, the enemy in front of the left army continued holding its positions north of Shahopo and Lamuntun, and offered a strong resistance. The center column is engaged in taking Shahopo and the main body of the right column is advancing against Lamuntun and is attacking that position. The enemy has six batteries between Shahopo and Sugantai, which are vigorously shelling and attacking column and our position at Linchienpo, but the bombardment is not strong enough to prevent our advance. October 11 the left column of the center army lost 261 killed and wounded.

"The casualties to ourselves and the Russians and the number of trophies captured by the left army follows:

"During the five days from October 10 to October 14, inclusive, our losses were about 2500 killed and wounded officers included. During the four days from October 10 to October 13, the number of corpses left by the enemy and buried by us reached 2000. The enemy's dead after the battle of October 14 were very numerous. The prisoners taken numbered 80.

"The principal trophies were 30 guns and many rifles, uniforms and accoutrements. The latter are still uncounted.
There are some forces of the enemy on the right bank of the Shakhe River in front of the main strength of the right and center armies, but no battle on a great scale has occurred. The forces of the enemy at Shahopo and Lamuntun, facing the left army, have been offering a stubborn resistance, but have been dislodged and their positions have been captured.

"On the afternoon of October 15 a force of the enemy appeared near Santaokangtzu and continued to offer resistance until sundown, portions of our center and left armies engaging them."

A Matter of Health

There is a quality in Royal Baking Powder which makes the food more digestible and wholesome. This peculiarity of Royal has been noted by physicians, and they accordingly endorse and recommend it.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO., NEW YORK.

Lake county stockmen would like to exhibit at the Lewis and Clark fair, but cannot, on account of the distance.
Stock could not be driven that far in the spring, and to winter them in Portland would be too expensive.

The law against shooting pheasants before October 1 has evidently been more honored in the breach than in the observance. Lawful hunters found few pheasants.
