

LOCAL HAPPENINGS.

J. A. Harbke, of Ione, was a Heppner visitor Monday.

Frank McKnight was in from the big sheep ranch Mouday. Mr. McKnight states that his sheep are doing fine.

W. O. W. don't forget Friday evening, January 27, is the time, I. O. O. F. hall the place. You will be needed, so come.

There will be a grand ball given at the Lexington hall in Lexington on Friday, Jan. 27, 1905.—F. L. Snyder, manager.

There will be regular preaching services in the Baptist church next Sunday, both morning and evening.—J. W. Mount, pastor.

Miss Pauline Reno, of The Dalles, has accepted a position with the Pacific States Telephone and Telegraph Co. in this city.

Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Hynd were passengers for Portland Friday last. From Portland they went to Ellensburg, Wash., for a short visit among relatives.

John Kirk returned from Portland Monday evening. Mr. Kirk went down with C. E. Miller who is suffering with paralysis. Mr. Miller is now at the Mineral Springs Sanitarium at Mt. Tabor where he will stay some time for treatment.

In writing to John Kirk of this city, W. W. Stabler of Buffalo, Wyoming, states that the fine band of ewes that he bought in the vicinity of Heppner last season are doing exceptionally well. The winter has been very open and losses nothing to speak of.

Rev. J. W. Mount returned from Ione Monday where he had been for the past month engaged in a revival meeting. Rev. C. P. Bailey, Missionary Colporteur of Middle Oregon Baptist Association, assisted in the meetings. There were 15 additions to the church. During the meetings a baptistry was built, $7.35 contributed to state missions, $25.20 paid on indebtedness, a Sunday School of 75 pupils organized and all running expenses met. The meetings were a great uplift to Christianity in Ione.

Young Croker Dead.

Ormonde, Fla., Jan. 22.—Frank H. Croker is dead as is also his Mechanician Ruff, as the result an auto accident. They were only driving the machine at the rate of a mile in 40 seconds when the accident occurred.

An Echo man has a yearling colt weighing 1,020 pounds.

Cattle fit for beef taken off the Crook county range last week.

Tillamook is becoming more interested in the talked-of electric railroad.

An Editor's Opinion of the Royal Gorge.

Edyth Tozier Weathered, in describing a recent trip over the Denver & Rio Grande Railroad, says in "The Exposition":

"At last the goal of the ambition of years has been reached—marvelous, wonderful, grand and inspiring Royal Gorge is on either hand. The only disappointing thing is you only have one pair of eyes, while the train darts in and out of the tremendous chasm. If any who have never seen it are wondering how it looks just go and see. Thousands have tried to describe it, yet every attempt falls short of giving the subject justice."

If you contemplate a trip East, write W. C. McBride, 124 Third street, Portland, Ore., for booklets picturing Colorado's famous scenery, and any other information you may desire.

Sickening Shivering Fits
of Ague and Malaria, can be relieved and cured with Electric Bitters. This is a pure tonic medicine; of especial benefit in malaria, for it exerts a true curative influence on the disease, driving it entirely out of the system. It is much to be preferred to Quinine, having none of this drug's bad after-effects. E. S. Masday, of Henrietta, Tex., writes: "My brother was very low with malarial fever and jaundice, till he took Electric Bitters, which saved his life. At Sloan Drug Co's drug store; price 50c, guaranteed."

The Independence postoffice receipts increased notably last year.

The new broom factory at Roseburg is manufacturing 50 dozen brooms a day.

Haines has $1,400 in its treasury.

A Grim Tragedy
is daily enacted in thousands of homes, as Death Claims, in each one, another victim of Consumption or Pneumonia. But when Coughs and colds are properly treated, the tragedy is averted. F. G. Aunley, Oaklandon, Ind., writes: "My wife had the consumption, and three doctors gave her up. Finally she took Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, Coughs and Colds, which cured her and today she is well and strong." It kills the germs of all diseases. One dose relieves. Guaranteed at 50c and $1.00 by Sloan Drug Co., druggist. Trial bottle free.

ANYBODY who uses arms and is equipped with the "STEVENS" has the assurance that the choice cannot be improved upon. There is absolutely no guesswork about the "STEVENS," they look right because made right, and for their particular purposes are positively unexcelled. No wonder, then, that STEVENS RIFLES, PISTOLS AND SHOTGUNS have been adopted in preference to all others—the world around.

STEVENS FIREARMS are sold by all sporting goods and hardware dealers. Ask them for our make—insist on getting it. Don't be put off with something "just as good." The fact that Stevens Arms are GUARANTEED FOR QUALITY should prompt you to be sure to specify this time-honored brand. Send two 2c stamps for Stevens Book and Rifle Puzzle. J. STEVENS ARMS & TOOL CO. P. O. Box 4092, Chicopee Falls, Mass., U. S. A.

The most careful farmers and gardeners everywhere place confidence in Ferry's Seeds—the kind that never fail. FERRY'S SEEDS have been the standard for 40 years. They are not an experiment. Sold by all dealers. 1905 Seed Annual free for the asking. D. M. FERRY & CO., Detroit, Mich.

THE OREGON JOURNAL

MONEY FOR BOYS
"Support them one in every town, large or small, in the Oregon country—can earn money, and earn it easily, selling THE DAILY and SUNDAY JOURNAL. No money is required to make the sale, and only the ability to make the sale. To any boy who will sell the plan we will send 10 copies of THE SUNDAY JOURNAL, so he will be able to see the paper, and he will be able to sell it. You can start any time, and if successful handling THE SUNDAY JOURNAL, then orders can be sent in for THE DAILY JOURNAL. THE SUNDAY JOURNAL contains ALL THE NEWS, and many special features of interest to men and women, and besides, has all the children's comic pages carried by the big Sunday papers of the east. JOURNAL boys are making as much as $5 to $8 a week in small towns in the northwest. Don't you want to try it? $25 IN CASH as extra prize, will be divided monthly, in addition to the regular profits, among those JOURNAL boys who do the best work—who increase their orders the largest percentage. In this way the boys in the smaller places will have as much chance to earn this extra money as those in the larger towns. Get in THE JOURNAL procession: THE JOURNAL is a winner! Address: THE JOURNAL, Portland, Or."

BANK OF HEPPNER

CAUTION IS A CARDINAL VIRTUE WITH EVERY CONSERVATIVE BANKER.

Innovations therefore are accepted by him only after the severest scrutiny. But this is an age of wonderful progress. New ideas, new methods and new policies are rapidly supplanting the old.

The bank that gets the most out of its business is the one that puts the most into it. The people prefer to patronize the bank that wants their business and isn't afraid to say so.

The Bank of Heppner makes loans at eight per cent interest per annum. Pays four per cent interest per annum on Time Certificates and Savings Deposits.

This Bank invites you to investigate our methods of Savings accounts. In this department your money begins to draw you interest at four per cent per annum from the day it is deposited. Amounts may be withdrawn at any time and the beauty of this is, that, the interest is only disturbed on the amount withdrawn.

We charge 8 PER CENT for loans

What Has Happened?

Fritz went to town and met Hans.

Hans—"Hello, Fritz, where are you going?"

Fritz—"To town to get some flour."

Hans—"Oh dear, you just remind me."

Fritz—"What is that?"

Hans—"I got some flour from the Heppner Bakery."

Fritz—"Has he some for sale and is it good?"

Hans—"I saw the nice bread that he made from it, so I wanted some of the same flour."

Fritz—"What kind of flour does he keep?"

Hans—"Only one kind and that is Heppner Fairy Queen, made in Heppner and the finest of all."

Fritz—"I will go and get me some from the Bakerman."

Hans—"You do so, also you can have fine groceries, fruits, fancy candies and all kinds of nuts at the HEPPNER BAKERY."
