Local and Personal Happenings in and About the City.

J. J. Wells is building a new residence.

Mayor Frank Gilliam has returned from Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Minor were passengers for Portland, Tuesday.

No services at Episcopal church Sunday.—John Warren, Missionary.

C. T. Walker, the lone merchant, was a Heppner visitor Sunday.

Dr. Higgs has moved his office from the I. O. O. F. building to the Fair building.

Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Hynd returned Monday from a visit to Portland, and Elensburg, Wash.

W. B. Parsons, of Ella, was a Heppner visitor this week. Mr. Parsons is postmaster at Ella and is a pioneer resident of Morrow county.

Geo. Vincent came in from his Butter creek ranch Friday. Mr. Vincent says that everything looks promising in his neighborhood.

There will be regular preaching services in the Baptist church next Sunday, both morning and evening.—J. W. Mount, pastor.

District Attorney G. W. Phelps and family will soon move to Pendleton. The duties of the office are such that he can better attend to them by moving to Umatilla county.

E. D. Rood writes to the Gazette, from Portland, that he will soon start for Southern California where he will spend the winter. Mr. Rood goes for the benefit of his health.

The Star Lodging house owned by Mrs. Bartholomew was sold at public auction last Saturday. Mayor Frank Gilliam was the highest bidder, getting the property for $1475. This included the furniture and fixtures and lease on the building.

Several big freight teams left Heppner Friday for Spray loaded with heavy irons which are to be used in building the big bridge across the John Day at Spray. The bridge will be a modern structure and will be pushed to completion as fast as possible.

E. B. Tongue and Thomas H. Tongue Jr., of Hillsboro, were in the city this week. They came to look at Ben Swaggart's racing horses. Oregon Kid, bred and raised by Mr. Swaggart, is now owned by E. B. Tongue. Mounted on Oregon Kid, Mr. Tongue was a winner at a recent meeting of the Portland Hunt Club.

W. S. Conser, the well known railroad conductor, is now a benedict, having taken unto himself a wife in the person of Mrs. Lulu B. Bruce, at Portland recently. Mr. and Mrs. Conser are now in New Orleans where they will enjoy their honeymoon for about six weeks. "Shan" is one of the most popular railroad conductors in the employ of the Southern Pacific Company and his many Sa'em friends and acquaintances extend him hearty congratulations over his becoming a man of more responsibility.—Salem Statesman.

Stockmen in this section have about all their stock gathered off the ranges ready for winter feeding, but owing to the unusually open winter very few have fed anything except old cows and calves. Stock came off the ranges in much better condition than usual at this season of the year, and with about one-half the feeding done last winter it is thought the losses will be very light unless severe weather comes during the late spring months; and even then the loss will be nothing like last spring when so many died of starvation, as nearly all have plenty hay.—Monument Enterprise.

Dan Stalter returned Friday evening from Portland and Willamette valley points where he has been for some time visiting and incidentally working a little in the interests of the Heppner Mining Co., where he sold a good block of stock from this very promising property. Mr. Stalter who owns a controlling interest in the mines and who is president of the company, certainly deserves success for his untiring work and great energy in developing what now has every assurance of becoming a good paying mine. This property is no longer a prospect but is a mine with a large quantity of pay ore now on the dump. Mr. Stalter who is a practical and well informed miner has always had unbounded faith in his mine and now enough has been accomplished to show that his judgment was good. Preparations are now being made for the purpose of a mill which will be put in as soon as spring opens up. Mr. Stalter will soon leave for San Francisco for this purpose and will probably go to Denver, before he purchases the necessary machinery. As soon as the mill is put in the price of stock will be raised.

There is every indication that the year 1905 will show more real estate transactions than any year in the history of Morrow county. The prosperous year with big crops last year and the splendid prospect again this year is enough to prove that Morrow county is all right. Owing to the large amount of advertising that the state has received from the Lewis and Clark fair and the low railroad rates to this coast will, very likely, bring the biggest immigration here ever known in any one year in the history of the state. A great many of these people will come here to stay. They will invest in homes, owing to the fact that we have good inducements to offer them. Morrow county offers as good opportunity as any place in the west. The new real estate firm of Warnock & Wells will do some good advertising in the attempt to get people to come to Morrow county. This firm is in a good position to get buyers and people who have land to sell will do well to list with them. They expect to make a good many sales this year.
