A Grim Tragedy

is daily occurring in hundreds of homes, as Diphtheria, in each case, another victim of Consumption or Pneumonia. But when Coughs and colds are properly treated, the tragedy is averted. F. G. Anley, Oakland, Ind., writes: "My wife had the consumption, and three doctors gave her up. Finally she took Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, Coughs and Colds, which cured her and today she is well and strong." It kills the germs of all diseases. One dose relieves. Guaranteed at 50c and $1.00 by Slocum Drug Co., druggist. Trial bottle free.

CHIEF OF CREEK INDIANS.

Gen. Porter Has Always Been an Ally of the United States Government—His Career.

A distinguished resident of Muskogee and one whom all men delight to honor is Gen. Pleasant Porter, principal chief of the Creek nation, says the Kansas City Journal. Gen. Porter was born near the town of Clarksville on the Arkansas river, September 26, 1830. He received his early education in the Presbyterian mission at Tallahassee. Work congenial to him presented itself shortly afterward, and for several years he devoted himself to the rehabilitation and building up of the Creek schools that had suffered severely during the internecine strife. Again, in 1882, Chief Porter was compelled to take up arms, this time to settle a dispute between his own people. As general of the Creek national army he ended the war speedily and for all time, and succeeded at the same time in establishing himself more firmly in the affection and esteem of his people, who, in 1899, elected him their chief. As leader of his people, Gen. Porter has ruled with wisdom and judgment.

He has always been a true friend to his people and a faithful ally of the United States government. At the age of 32 he married the daughter of Chief Justice Reilly Keys. She died, leaving him three little children. Another little one was left him by his second wife, who died when the child was but seven years old. To-day, at the age of 68, he is as hale and hearty, as pleasant and cheerful as ever. Gen. Porter was reelected principal chief of the Creeks recently. He is not a full-blood Indian.

Dried Apple Fruit Cakes.

Two cupfuls dried apples cut up and soaked over night in water; in the morning add three cupfuls molasses, one teaspoonful grated nutmeg; let this cook slowly for two hours until reduced to one-third the quantity; when cool, add the following ingredients and bake: Four eggs, two-third cupful butter, one teaspoonful soda dissolved in one tablespoonful water, and flour enough to make a stiff batter. This will make two loaves.—Good Literature.

LOCAL HAPPENINGS.

An Editor's Opinion of the Royal Gorge.

Elyth Tozier Weathered, in describing a recent trip over the Denver & Rio Grande Railroad, says in "The Exposition":

"At last the goal of the ambition of years has been reached—marvelous, wonderful, grand and inspiring Royal Gorge is on either hand. The only disappointing thing is you only have one pair of eyes, while the train darts in and out of the tremendous chasm. If a y who have never seen it are wondering how it looks just go and see. Thousands have tried to describe it, yet every attempt falls short of giving the subject justice."

If you contemplate a trip East, write W. C. McBride, 121 Third street, Portland, Ore., for booklets picturing Colorado's famous scenery, and any other information you may desire.

Hereafter no messages will be received by the cable companies, directed to Port Arthur or Deluey, all the wires having been closed.

A new railroad from Portland to Tillamook has been proposed by Portland capital.

Lincoln's birthday will be fittingly observed by the republican clubs of Portland, on February 11.

Senator Mitchell has secured the passage of a $15,000 relief bill for the Clatsop and $10,250 for the Tillamook Indians.

Sickening Shivering Fits

of Ague and Malaria, can be relieved and cured with Electric Bitters. This is a pure tonic medicine; of especial benefit in malaria, for it exerts a curative influence on the disease, driving it entirely out of the system. It is much to be preferred to Quinine, having none of this drug's bad after-effects. E. S. Munday, of Henrietta, Tex., writes: "My brother was very low with malarial fever and jaundice, till he took Electric Bitters, which saved his life. At Slocum Drug Co.'s drug store; price 50c, guaranteed."

THE SUNDAY JOURNAL

MONEY FOR BOYS

Buy at least one in every town, large or small, in the Oregon country—can earn money, and earn it easily, selling THE DAILY and SUNDAY JOURNAL. No money is required to make the sale, and only the ability to make a sale. To any boy who will sell the plan we will send 10 copies of THE SUNDAY JOURNAL. After that all papers that are required will be delivered to him by mail or express at wholesale price, and he will receive a "Trail" (freight newspaper dealer). You can start any time, and if successful handling THE SUNDAY JOURNAL, then orders can be sent in for THE DAILY JOURNAL.

THE SUNDAY JOURNAL contains ALL THE NEWS, and many special features of interest to men and women, and, besides, has all the children's comic papers carried by the big Sunday papers of the east.

JOURNAL boys are making as much as $2 to $3 a week in small towns in the northwest. Don't you want to try it?

$25 IN CASH

as extra prize, will be divided monthly, in addition to the regular profits, among those JOURNAL boys who do the best work—who increase their orders the largest percentage. In this way the boys in the smaller places will have as much chance to earn this extra money as those in the larger towns. Get in THE JOURNAL profession: THE JOURNAL is a winner!

Address: THE JOURNAL, Portland, Or.

If you take this paper and The Weekly Oregonian you won't have to beg your news.

BANKING BY MAIL

For the convenience and accommodation of those who cannot call at the bank we have devised a special system by which accounts can be opened and general banking business transacted by mail. Already this system has become popular, and we have many of such accounts on our books. Opening an account by mail is a simple matter. Send a money order, check, express order, or inclose money in registered letter and mail it to us. By return mail we will return you your book and a card for you to fill out. The latter serves as an identification in subsequent transactions

What Has Happened?

Fritz went to town and met Hans.
Hans—"Hello, Fritz, where are you going?"
Fritz—"To town to get some flour."
Hans—"Oh dear, you just remind me."
Fritz—"What is that?"
Hans—"I got some flour from the Heppner Bakery."
Fritz—"Has he some for sale and is it good?"
Hans—"I saw the nice bread that he made from it, so I wanted some of the same flour."
Fritz—"What kind of flour does he keep?"
Hans—"Only one kind and that is Heppner Fairy Queen, made in Heppner and the finest of all."
Fritz—"I will go and get me some from the Bakerman."
Hans—"You do so, also you can have fine groceries, fruits, fancy candies and all kinds of nuts at the HEPPNER BAKERY, OTTO FRIEDRICH, Proprietor."

A Frightened Horse.

Running like mad down the street, dumping the occupants, or a hundred other accidents, are every day occurrences. It behooves everybody to have a reliable Salve handy and there's none as good as Bucklen's Arnica Salve.
