WILL NOT FLEE.

Tarred and Feathered Man Will Remain.

E. E. Cawood, who was given a coat of tar and feathers and ordered to leave the town of Goldendale, Wash., Sunday night was a resident of Portland for some years. He was a native of Marion county, this state, where he was born 43 years ago. His father and mother, after crossing the plains from the East, died shortly after they reached their goal. He was reared and educated by friends of the family in Marion county, and after he became of age came to Portland where he studied dentistry for some time. Later he went to Philadelphia to complete a course in the Dental College of that city. Upon his return to Portland he opened offices in the Marquam building, which he continued for about three years, before removing to the Hamilton building on Third street.

About three years ago Dr. Cawood, during a series of revival services which were being held in different churches in this city, became very enthusiastic over religious matters in the Methodist Episcopal Church at Sunnyside, and professed conversion to that faith. Later he withdrew from the Methodist Episcopal Church and joined the Free Methodist. He went about the city testifying and preaching in various churches for some time and then became superintendent of the Olive Branch Mission on First street near Clay. Since that time he has assisted in revival services in various churches throughout this state and Washington and it was while so doing that he visited Goldendale.

J. L. Howard and family while driving to a farm Heppner Friday last, met with quite a serious accident. When near Ford Bros' place in Sand Hill on the king bolt of the wagon became uncoupled and the team ran away. The occupants of the wagon were thrown out, but fortunately no one was hurt.

Phil Metschan Making Needed Improvements at Palace.

Phil Metschan is making some needed improvements at the Palace hotel. The inside rooms in the building which were formerly very small and crowded have been remodeled. Partitions have been taken out and making one large room from the two small ones in different parts of the house. These rooms which will be furnished with new carpets and furnishings will be well ventilated and will be comfortable and roomy. When this work is completed the Palace will not have an undesirable room in the house. The enterprise shown by Mr. Metschan in going to this expense should be rewarded with a big patronage which he deserves.

Resolutions of Condolence.

At a regular communication of Heppner

Lodge No. 67 A. F. & A. M. held in their Temple on the 4th day of March, 1905, the following resolutions were unanimously adopted:

Whereas, it has pleased the great architect of the universe to remove from our midst our beloved brother, Henry Heppner.

Whereas, it is but just that a fitting recognition of his name and virtues should be had, therefore, be it

Resolved by Heppner Lodge No. 67 A. F. & A. M. that while we bow in humble submission to the will of that One before whom all Messengers bow, we do not the less mourn for our brother who has been taken from us, his labors are ended here below, but we trust he has entered upon the higher and nobler life which can only be reached through the portals of death.

To the family and friends of our beloved brother, Henry Heppner, who as a Mason, labored faithfully upon the Temple until called from his work by the Master Builder of the universe, we tender our heartfelt sympathy.

Resolved that these resolutions be spread upon the records of Heppner Lodge No. 67 A. F. & A. M. and that a copy thereof be transmitted to the relatives of our deceased brother, and to each of the newspapers of Heppner for publication.
