

The Week's News

Local and Personal Happenings in and About the City.

Dave McAtee returned from Pendleton Thursday.

George Conser returned from Portland Thursday.

Hon. Henry Blackman returned from Portland Tuesday evening.

Semi-Weekly Portland Journal and Heppner Gazette only $1.60 per year.

Miss Gertrude Crawford is visiting relatives and friends in Dayton, Wash.

Attorney S. E. VanVactor and W. L. Smith drove to Condon Friday returning Tuesday.

There will be no preaching services in the Baptist church next Sunday.—J. W. Mount, pastor.

F. M. Courter, of Eight Mile, who has been spending the winter in California, has returned to his home.

Rev. W. C. Sale and wife, recently of Memphis, Tenn., are guests of Rev. J. W. Mount. Rev. Sale will locate in Oregon.

Mrs. E. W. Rhea and children left yesterday morning for Portland where they will visit friends.

Miss Fay Bartholomew, who has been in Pendleton for some time, returned Monday evening.

James Hart opened his new confectionery and fruit stand Saturday last. Mr. Hart has a very neat and attractive place.

Get good wall paper this time. Alfred Peata's Price Wall Paper, the kind that pleases. Sold only by Samuel C. Jackson.

Ed Day, who has been spending the winter in California, returned Thursday. Mrs. Day will stay in California a while longer.

All Saint's Episcopal Memorial church—2nd Sunday in Lent. Sunday School 10 a. m. Services 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. Holy Communion Wednesday and Friday evenings at 7:30 p. m.—John Warren, Missionary.

Evangelist W. E. Neill, who has been holding a series of revival meetings in this city at the Baptist church, left Thursday for Brownsville, Oregon, where he is now holding meetings. Rev. Neill is an earnest and effective worker.

An energetic lady can secure the agency for this city and surrounding country for a high-grade line of Flavoring Extracts, Perfumes, Toilet Articles, Toilet Soaps, etc., by addressing the Peaseall Manufacturing Company, Des Moines, Iowa. They allow a big commission, also give premiums. Write them for sample outfit.

Dr. E. R. Swinhorne has arrived in the city from Heppner and has purchased property on Lewis street. He is planning to build a modern residence and as soon as it is completed will remove his family from Heppner to Pendleton. Dr. Swinhorne is a pioneer citizen of Heppner.—Pendleton Tribune

To all of our readers who would like to take an Eastern paper we have made arrangements to club with one of the very best—the Thrice-a-week New York World. The World in coming three times a week makes it almost equal to a daily. It is a great newspaper, giving all the news and able opinions. Both papers, the Gazette and Thrice-a-Week World only $1.65 per year.

The Gazette has been fortunate in making special arrangements with the Semi-Weekly Journal, of Portland, whereby we can furnish this excellent paper with the Gazette for the very low price of $1.60 per year. The Journal is fast coming to the front as a great news paper. The semi-weekly contains 8 to 12 pages and 40 to 50 columns each issue of coast and general news. It has an exceptionally strong market page, said to be the best market news printed on the coast. The Journal is mailed at the Portland postoffice before one o'clock p. m. on Tuesdays and Fridays, thus enabling it to reach Oregon subscribers on Wednesdays and Saturdays.

Babies Moccasins
Assorted Colors
All Sizes - 13c Pair

The Fair
THE PLACE TO SAVE MONEY

Babies soft soled shoes
A nice assortment of Pretty colors 38c pair

SHOES: FOR WOMEN, FOR MEN, FOR BOYS, FOR GIRLS AND FOR THE BABY

SHOES
SHOES
SHOES
SHOES

that are made just a little better than seems necessary.

that are built for service as well as style, they are made especially for "THE FAIR" therefore you cannot buy them elsewhere.

that are made of the very latest leathers in the very latest styles, selling at the very lowest prices to fit your feet as though they were made to their measure, to wear them makes walking a pleasure

IN THE SPRING TIME MAIDENS FANCY TURNS TO

Oxford ties, Colinals, Bluchers, Sandals and other creations of shoemakers art, such as we are showing in patterns that are most bewitching. An assortment of low cut shoes direct from the "Diamond" brand factory, comprises nearly all of the newest ideas that have won the favors of fashion favorites.

OXFORDS

SHIRTS: FOR MEN SPECIAL THIS WEEK 89c

SHIRTS
SHIRTS
SHIRTS

for the man in the office, for the man in the shop, for the man in the saddle, for the man behind the plow.

that are made of material and colors to meet all ordinary requirements.

that were designed to sell for - - - - $1.25
that we are selling this week for - - - - 89c

Men and these shirts are good things, and the shirts selling at 89c should bring them together at an early date.

98c LADIES' OVER SKIRTS SPECIAL LADIES' OVER SKIRTS 98c

The material is a spring weight worsted, the colors are Black, Navy, Oxford Gray, Navy and White Mixed.

98c Friday THIS WEEK Saturday 98c

Monument is to have a race track.

Chas. Holman, of Portland, deputy collector of internal revenue, is in the city.

Going over the effects of the late Henry Heppner, a check written for $100 was found which he had left as a bequest to the Heppner Sanitarium.

T. A. Rhea has sold his interest in the Liberty Meat Market to Ove Rasmus. Mr. Rasmus has resigned his position with Minor & Co. and is now in the shop.

Emil Scharff has been working on his irrigation ditch this week. Jas. McGee did the surveying, and has raised the ditch nine feet from its old course. This will give Mr. Scharff about one hundred acres more under the ditch than he had before, besides putting the ditch on solid ground. We understand he will seed it to alfalfa this spring.—Monument Enterprise.

Quite a number of yearling wethers have been contracted for in the neighborhood of Arlington. Prices have ranged from $2 to $2.25 per head. This is from 50c to 75c better than the prices paid last year for yearling wethers.

The East Oregonian says that Pendleton's offering to the progress of the country during the past year is 95 new dwelling and business houses, costing $264,000, exclusive of the three new school houses, costing over $60,000.

The Morrow County Land & Trust Company has been reorganized and has been consolidated with the Heppner Milling Co., the new company will be known as the Morrow Warehouse Milling Company. With the addition of the Milling company the capital stock has been increased to $35,000. The old officers of the M. C. L. & T. Co. will hold over until the first meeting of the new company which will be held in July.

Geo. Perry, of Lone Rock, was in the city this week.

I. R. Esteb, of Gooseberry, was in the city Tuesday.

J. H. Alexander, government land inspector, was in the city yesterday.

J. D. White who was arrested on a charge of larceny on complaint of John Musgrave, of South Springs, was given a trial in Justice White's court Monday afternoon. The case was dismissed and White was given his freedom.

The moving picture concert given by Steel & Freeland at Roberts' opera house last Monday evening was very entertaining and the large audience was well pleased. The moving picture scenes from the Russo-Japan war, the great train robbery were life-like and created a thrill of excitement among the spectators. The illustrated songs were features that were well executed.

Should Steel & Freeland visit Heppner again they will get another big house.

Mrs. F. B. McDowds, of Blanton, is in the city, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. George Conser.

For Sale—At 14.00 per ton about twenty tons of alfalfa hay. For further particulars call or write to Gazette office. Mel®

Thaddeus Armstrong, who has been visiting friends in the city for some time, returned Monday to his home at Goldendale.

The office of C. E. Woodson in the Palace building is being enlarged and refitted. Secretary R. F. Hynd, of the Morrow Warehouse Milling company, will have an office with Mr. Woodson. This has made it necessary to add another office room which Mr. Mitschan is having prepared this week.