Keogh Seeks De Oro's Scalp. Jerome Keogh, the famous Buffalo pool expert, is hot on the trail of Albert De Oro.

De Oro claims the trophy as his own and says he will sue Keogh for it.

College Basketball Rules. The president of the Intercollegiate Basketball Association has appointed a committee which is to meet at the University of Pennsylvania May 23 and 27 to revise the rules of the game.

Change in the size of the playing courts, raising the minimum size from 2,400 square feet to 3,000.

Elimination of the rules which give the referee power of awarding a point when a player is fouled while shooting for goal.

Changes in the method of scoring from foul, which will be brought about in one of two ways—viz, either lengthening the foul throwers' restraining mark from fifteen to twenty feet or else altering the ratio of the value of the field and foul goals, making field goals count three points and foul goals as one.

A Curious Sign. If you are in a certain Irish town and are looking out for lodgings you would probably come to the conclusion that none are to be had, for, search as you will for the familiar "Apartments to Let" notice so often seen in the windows of houses in other places, you will search in vain.

The Auto as a Nerve Cure. The possession of a motor car is a matter of great importance to the man whose nervous system is on the rack all day.

Faith and Works. A pretty anecdote is related of a child who was greatly perturbed by the discovery that her brothers had set traps to catch birds.

The One Thing Lacking. Anxious Mother—Why don't you marry young Swansen? He has good looks, good family, wealth and everything to be desired.

A Good Distinction. "Remember, son," said Uncle Eben, "dat in dis life you's bound to do some things you's sorry for, but dat ain' no reason for doin' nuffin' dat you's ashamed of."

Ungratefulness is the very poison of manhood.—Sidney.

TRANSIBERIAN ROAD.

The Most Comfortable Railway Traveling in the World.

"Two engines are required on heavy grades, and special twenty wheel locomotives are used on the hilly sections," writes William Greener concerning the Transiberian railway in his book, "A Secret Agent in Port Arthur."

"I am still of the opinion that the Transiberian state express trains afford the most comfortable railway traveling in the world. The cars are as luxurious, but not so sumptuous, as the Pullman palace cars of America.

Paris Hotels. Paris hotels are divided into four classes, according to the price of a room a night, as follows: Over 12 shillings, from 6 shillings and sixpence to 12 shillings, from 3 shillings to 6 shillings and sixpence, and, lastly, under 3 shillings.

The Slow Story Teller. Friar Lawrence checks the impetuous Romeo with, "He stumbles over runs fast," a sentiment true enough, perhaps, but one which ought never to be repeated to the constitutionally slow story teller.

Forest and Pure Air. A Parisian scientist, while testifying to the greater purity of the air in the vicinity of forests, does not attribute the cause to a greater richness in oxygen—the quantity of the latter being the same in the atmosphere of woods as in plains—but to the absence of those agents which vitiate the atmosphere of towns.

Thoroughness. Thoroughness is the twin brother of honesty. When an employee gets the reputation of doing a thing not pretty neatly but exactly right it has more influence with his employer than brilliancy or talent.—Success Magazine.

COLOR OF CIGARS.

The Black Weeds Are Not Always the Strongest Ones.

Probably there is not one smoker in a thousand who would not be surprised, and, in fact, incredulous if he were told that the color of a cigar is absolutely no guide to its strength.

A maker of Havana cigars uses but one grade or blend of tobacco in the body or filler of his cigars. Exactly the same stock is used in his cigars as in his perfectos, in his claros as in his waduros. After the cigars are made, however, his "selector" takes them in hand and classifies them according to the relative shades of the wrappers. This is done to effect a uniformity in the appearance of each box of cigars and to enable the dealer to readily indulge the whims of the self deluded smoker.

Inasmuch as the wrapper constitutes not more than one-tenth of the cigar, it will readily be seen that the degree of its strength or mildness is very inconsideable in effect. In this connection, however, it is interesting to note that tobacco tradesmen versed in the intricacies of the industry rigidly bar the light colored wrapper from their own smoking tables, knowing that it generally indicates that the leaf was prematurely cut and improperly cured and that it impairs the flavor and burn of the cigar.

The prejudice of these natives and of tobacco tradesmen is a logical one and serves to throw into bold relief a peculiar misconception of facts which is both amusing and embarrassing to vendors of the fragrant weed.

COMPLETED PROVERBS.

"Whatever man has done man can do" better. "There's many a slip 'twixt the crackle and the grave." "Look before you leap" out of the frying pan into the fire.

The Slow Story Teller. Friar Lawrence checks the impetuous Romeo with, "He stumbles over runs fast," a sentiment true enough, perhaps, but one which ought never to be repeated to the constitutionally slow story teller.

ANOTHER MT. HOOD RAILWAY.

West Side of Hood River Valley Chosen as Course.

Hood River, Or., May 26.—An electric road through the west side of Hood River valley is consid-red now almost a certainty. Walter Moore and other Portland capitalists have made recent visits to this city, and have declared their belief that the project would be a paying proposition almost from the start.

A Noiseless Typewriter Needed.

A noiseless typewriter is something devoutly wished for. The constant din of present machines is said to be very trying on the nerves, not only of the operator, but of those around it as well. There was also a time, many years ago, that a medicine for stomach, liver and bowel troubles was sorely needed, but with the introduction of Hostetter's St. Macho Bitters, over 50 years ago, this long-felt want was supplied.
