

Different and Better

CLOTHES FOR MEN AND BOYS

NOW IS THE CRITICAL time for every man who is thinking about clothes. The next few weeks, perhaps the next few days will decide what value, what satisfaction he is going to get for his money and it will decide how he is going to look for the next three or four months. If you care for your personal appearance, if it makes any difference to you how you look in your clothes, it will pay you to look at these superbly tailored suits.

KIRSCHBAUM CLOTHES are worn by hundred thousand good dressers in the United States. They are popular in every great fashion center in America. They are offered to the men of this community at prices as low or lower than they are asked to pay in most stores for common place and inferior goods. You will see the force of our argument as soon as you try these clothes on.

Some New Things on for July 4

If you have never traded at our store this is a good time to get acquainted. It doesn't make any difference what your ideas are now. Men have but one opinion when they see and try on Kirschbaum clothes. Come in and ask for your size in the different styles. It costs nothing to look and it may put you on the way of better clothes satisfaction. It takes some move on your part if you are to get better wear and service for your money. We are the exclusive buyers and sellers in Heppner of this make of clothes.

THE FAIR STORE

The Week's News

Local and Personal Happenings in and About the City.

Mrs. Ada Parker, of Parker's mill, was in the city Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Conser returned from the fair Friday.

Semi-Weekly Portland Journal and Heppner Gazette only $1.75 per year.

Wells & Warnock will handle your real estate and charge only the usual commission.

List your lands with Wells & Warnock. We sell only on a straight commission.

M. C. Fuqua was a passenger Tuesday morning for Portland and valley points.

Sam Wilkinson, the well known wool buyer, was an incoming passenger Thursday.

Mrs. Geo. Shick was operated on at the Heppner Sanitarium Monday. She is improving rapidly.

Rev. and Mrs. W. C. Sale returned Thursday evening from the Lewis and Clark fair and a visit to the seaside.

There seems to be an unusual number of song birds in Heppner this season. As soon as day breaks hundreds of different voices send forth sweet music to sweeten the slumbers of Heppner people.

B. S. Griffith, a brother of Jake Griffith and Mrs. John Patterson, of this city, was instantly killed by the O. R. & N. train at Squally Hook, near Arlington, last Saturday night. Mr. and Mrs. John Patterson and Jake Griffith attended the funeral at Arlington, Monday.

P. O. Borg returned from Portland, Monday.

C. C. Patterson returned from a visit to the fair Monday.

D. E. Baxter and wife, of Spray, were registered at the Palace Monday.

Mrs. Tunis Sweek, of Cottonwood, was listed at the Palace Monday.

The hardware store of S. P. Garrigues & Son has been repainted.

Geo. Aiken and family have returned from a visit to the Lewis and Clark fair.

Mr. Brooks, traveling representative of the Portland Journal, was in the city yesterday.

Frank McKnight left yesterday morning for Vale, Malheur county. Mr. McKnight will locate in the Malheur country in the sheep business.

Mose Asbbaugh this week closed a real estate deal in which 430 acres of the Wm. Stauffer place, near Lexington, was sold to Earl Conser.

B. F. Watkins, of Grant county, returned Monday from the Lewis and Clark fair. He took along a bunch of horses and found a ready market at good prices.

Judge Ayers this week sent another installment of products for the Morrow county exhibit at the Lewis and Clark fair. An exhibit representing an Eastern Oregon sheep camp will be arranged. Judge Ayers sent along some sage brush to make the camp more realistic. Corraling, shearing and dipping will also be represented. For the wool exhibit a sack of wool was sent and also a quantity of Heppner flour.

A free rural delivery has been established at Madras.

John Harbke, of Ione, was a Heppner visitor Friday.

Hiram Wickersham, of Ione, spent Sunday in Heppner.

Miss Helena Rhea was a passenger for Portland Monday.

T. A. Rhea and wife went to Portland Monday to take in the fair.

Dave McAtee and daughters Misses Ida and Mary, were passengers for Portland Monday.

Oscar Schaefer, a prominent sheep man, of Monument, was a Heppner visitor the first of the week.

Miss Gertrude Lamb left Tuesday morning for Willamette valley points where she will spend the summer.

Miss May Bayley, of McKittrick, Calif., a former teacher in the Heppner public schools, is visiting friends in this city.

LOST—Between Heppner and Jack Matlock's place on Hinton creek, a large black hand bag, containing money, a watch, and letters with the name of the owner. Finder will please leave at Gazette office and get suitable reward.

J. G. Edwards, of Hay Creek, who is one of the most extensive sheep raisers in the state, at the present time, has 30,000 sheep on his Hay Creek ranch. He has just sold a carload of registered rams to Wright & Dimmock, of Vermont, who will send them to Natal, South Africa, for breeding purposes. The strains are Rambouillet and Baldwin. They stated that the 50 which they secured from Mr. Edwards were the finest to be found in the country.

WHEN YOU COME TO PORTLAND

Make your plans to stop at a home-like hostelry; a place where you will be shown every courtesy and treated as you would be in your own home, town or city.

THE FORESTRY INN

Is such a place, and it stands within one block of the Exposition Entrance, on 25th Street facing Upshur. THE FORESTRY INN is constructed on the log cabin style; furnishings, cuisine, and management conforms thereto. It has 150 large commodious rooms, all opening on broad, cool verandas; with electric lights; hot and cold water and free baths. From the roof garden a view is had of the Exposition grounds, the city and surrounding country. Car service direct to all parts of the city. European plan. Dining service a la carte and reasonable in any part of the city.

Price of Rooms, $1 and $1.50

Special Rates to Parties of two or more.

MEALS A LA CARTE

THE FORESTRY INN, Inc.,

Address,

P. C. MATTOX, Manager, or H. M. Fancher,
25th and Upshur Sts. PORTLAND, ORE.

Huge Task.

It was a huge task to undertake the cure of such a bad case of kidney disease as that of C. F. Collier, of Cherokee, Ia., but Electric Bitters did it. He writes: "My kidneys were so far gone I could not sit on a chair without a cushion; and suffered from dreadful backache, headache, and depression. In Electric Bitters, however, I found a cure, and by them was restored to perfect health. I recommend this great tonic medicine to all with weak kidneys, liver, or stomach. Guaranteed by Patterson & Son, druggists; price 50c."

Garfield Crawford returned from Portland Monday.

FOR SALE.

Three Mules, one Jersey Cow and one yearling Jersey Heifer. Apply W. T. H., Box 114, Ione, Ogn. July 5

Preaching at the Baptist church next Sunday both morning and evening by the pastor.