

The Week's News

Local and Personal Happenings in and About the City.

Vio Groshens went to The Dalles, Friday.

A. L. Ayers returned from Portland, Monday.

Father Kelly was an incoming passenger Monday.

J. J. Wells went to Hood River Monday morning.

D. F. Warner, of Currinsville, Oregon, is in the city.

Ole Johnson returned Monday evening from the fair.

Price Florence returned from Pendleton, Monday evening.

Semi-Weekly Portland Journal and Heppner Gazette only $1.75 per year.

Dr. Higgs, Eyes, Ear, Nose and Throat. Glasses properly fitted.

Wells & Warnock will handle your real estate and charge only the usual commission.

List your lands with Wells & Warnock. We sell only on a straight commission.

Commissioner Henry Blackman returned to Portland Saturday morning.

Chas. Hayes and family have returned from the Lewis and Clark fair.

Mr. Walford, of the Morrow County Meat Co., was a passenger for The Dalles, Friday.

Sunday was the hottest day of the season, the mercury lingering around the 90 mark.

F. C. Hostetter, traveling salesman for a St. Louis Med. company, was in the city a few days.

County Clerk Crawford issued a marriage license Monday to William A. Horn and Miss Margaret F. Frey.

A marriage license was issued Friday by County Clerk Crawford to James Scott Ball and Anna Mabel Gosson.

Earl Conser has resigned his position as deputy county clerk. Garfield Crawford has been appointed deputy clerk to fill the vacancy.

Sam Wilkinson, the wool buyer, came up from The Dalles, Monday. Mr. Wilkinson came up to wind up his wool buying business for the season.

The farm residence of Layton Jones, of Six Dollar, was destroyed by fire last Saturday. The house and nearly all the contents were a total loss. No insurance.

Lost—Wednesday or Thursday, between Heppner and Hiram Clark's place, Elgin silver watch with buckskin string for fob. Finder will please leave at Gazette office.

Mr. and Mrs. S. E. VanVactor left Monday morning for the Lewis and Clark fair. After visiting the fair they will spend a couple of weeks with relatives at Bay Center, Wash.

Webster Chandler is visiting his parents, Rev. and Mrs. Chandler of this city. Mr. Chandler has just finished a course at the law school of the Boston University, where he was acquitted with high honors. He will visit in Heppner during the summer.

Don't let your wire fences sag, keep them up and make them look respectable. The Superior Fence Machine will put your fences in good shape, make them stay in shape, makes them stronger and protects cattle and horses from injury. Cheaper and better than any other cross stay made. Make your own Farm Fencing and Poultry Netting. For sale by Gilliam & Bisbee, Heppner, Or.

Vester Carr returned from Condon, Tuesday.

Attorney S. E. Notson visited Lexington, Tuesday.

R. Newman and wife, of Clem, were Heppner visitors this week.

Mrs. John Rasmus has returned from a visit to Salem and valley points.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Borg were passengers for Portland, yesterday morning.

Earl Conser and C. O. Huelat are spending a few days in the mountains.

There will be no preaching at the Baptist church Sunday, the pastor will be at Ione.

James Carty and family, of Lower Morrow county, were Heppner visitors yesterday.

Miss Lenah Waters who has been visiting Mrs. James Hart left Monday morning for Seaside.

Mrs. D. Hallock will leave Sunday morning for her homestead on Swale creek where she will spend the summer.

Ed Cummings, of Lexington, who was confined in the pest house, afflicted with diptheria, has recovered and has been discharged.

Upon complaint of Sheriff Shutt all of the saloon men of Heppner are under arrest charged with violating the Sunday closing law.

I will be prepared to furnish board at my mountain home at Swale creek during the summer. Rates $5 per week for table board.—Mrs. D. Hallock.

Noble & Campbell who were engaged in the harness and saddlery business in this city have dissolved partnership, Mr. Campbell retiring. Mr. Noble is now sole proprietor. The transfer occurred yesterday.

Phil Metschan, Jr., is in receipt of a letter from W. Rea, of Forsyth, Montana, stating that his brother, John Rea, died at Forsyth, Montana, on July 8. The remains were buried at Fargo, North Dakota. Deceased was a member of the firm of Rea Brothers, the well known sheep men, and was well known in Heppner.

R. Holman arrived in the Meadow creek country in the north part of Grant county early this week from Cisne, Illinois, and in two days time had purchased over 160 head of range horses, at prices ranging from $6 to $15 per head. Although the prices he paid were small, he took everything that was offered him.—Canyon City Eagle.

Jack McCullough, Harve Mid-delworth and Orin Ledgerwood brought in the last wool of the season the latter part of last week from the John Day and Mt. Vernon country. The freighting outfit consisted of two eight horse teams and one 10 horse rig. The wool brought in at the one trip was worth over $5,000. They took out a load of supplies and saw mill machinery for a new mill on Beech creek.

Among the great attractions which the Lewis and Clark Exposition will afford the visitors to Portland during this month will be the opening of the race meeting given by the Multnomah Fair Association at Irvington Park Track, beginning on July 22. More than 500 horses will be stabled at Irvington during the 49 racing days, which by the way, will be the longest race meeting ever held in Oregon. The horses that will start in the stake and handicap events are the pick of those that raced last winter at Oakland and at Los Angeles.

THE FAIR STORE

THE FAIR STORE

ANNUAL JULY STOCK TAKING

SALE

Every ARTICLE REDUCED

FROM

Saturday July 1st. To Sat. July 15th

A BARGAIN EVENT

THAT YOU MUST NOT OVERLOOK

THE FAIR STORE

THE FAIR STORE

S. P. Garrigues returned from Portland, Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Beymer returned Tuesday from a visit to Baker City.

Good milch cows for sale. Inquire of G. W. French at the Quaid ranch.

Mrs. C. W. Bamford, of Creighton, Mo., a sister of Dr. M. B. Metzler, is the guest of Dr. and Mrs. Metzler.

By mutual agreement the retail stores of Ione will keep open on Sundays for business, says the Proclaimer.

Misses Esie Leezer and Daisy Hendricson left Monday morning for a visit to the Lewis and Clark fair. They will also visit Newport before returning.

John L. Sperry, an Oregon pioneer who recently died in Portland, was a former resident of Heppner and is well known by the older residents of this city. Mr. Sperry came to Heppner in the early 70's and was engaged in the stock business here for a number of years. In 1878 he was elected sheriff of Umatilla county and moved to Pendleton. After the expiration of the term of office he moved to Portland.

MARRIED.

BALL—GOSSON—At the residence of A. J. Stevenson in this city, Sunday evening, July 9, 1905, Mr. James Scott Ball and Miss Anna Mabel Gosson, Rev. Chandler officiating. Mr. Ball is a popular brakeman of the O. R. & N. Co. Miss Gosson is an accomplished young lady of The Dalles.

The ceremony was performed in the presence of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Reed, Mr. and Mrs. Claude

The Cash Shoe Store

See Our Window Display Of Harvest Shoes and Gloves At Special Prices

We will help you to save your hard earned money by making close prices. . . . .

Ask for Our MOOSE SKIN unlined shoe the best value for $2.50 ever produced you can't rip em. . . . .

Men and Boys Work Shoes $1.25 to $3.50
 Buckinham & Hecht's rivited Chrome Tan $3.50
 All Buckskin & Horse hide Gloves REDUCED
 We give you the best Sox for your Money
 Repairing of all kinds promptly attended to
THE CASH SHOE STORE

Davis, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Gibson, John Stephenson, Ed. Stephenson, H. Hinshing and Mrs. Hunt.

K of P Installation.

The following officers of Doric Lodge No. 20, K of P, were installed Tuesday evening:

Garfield Crawford, C. C.; Chas. Thomson, V C; Louis Kinney, Prelate; Thos. Brennan, M of W; Walker Richardson, M A; J. G. Griffith, I G; L. E. Bisbee, O G; W. W. Smead, K of R S; D. O. Justus, M of E; Dr. E. R. Hunlock, M of F.

ESTRAY NOTICE—Came to my place on Spray road, 10 miles south of Hardman, July 3, one mare colt about three months old, color brown, white spot in face. Owner can have animal by paying expense of keeping and advertising.—V. H. Heath.

WANTED—Man, under 35, from Heppner, to prepare for good position as Railway Mail Clerk. Experience in postoffice not necessary. Entrance salary $800 per annum. Gradual promotion. An exceptional opening. Examination soon. Address immediately, P. O. Box 1553, Denver, Colo.