

Wedding at Douglas.

The 4th of July will be a day long to be remembered by some of the people of Douglas, it being the occasion of the marriage of Miss Aida Pearle Byham to Mr. J. Alfred Troedson. The ceremony took place at the home of the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Loen Troedson, and was performed by Rev. Baldwin, of Arlington, in the presence of a large number of relatives and friends.

Promptly at 12 m., while the wedding march was being played by Miss Wygaul, of Cecil, the bridal party advanced to the parlor through an archway, the curtains of which were held aside by Elyerea and Lillian Troedson who were dressed in white and carried bouquets of sweet peas.

The bridal party consisted of the bride beautifully dressed in white and carrying roses, the groom in conventional black, attended by Misses Nellie Byham and Gussie Swainson, in cream and blue carrying pink carnations, and Messrs. Carl Troedson and Geo. Ely, as bridesmaids and best men.

The room was tastefully trimmed in red and white representing happiness. Immediately after the ceremony Rev. Baldwin presented the bride with a nicely framed marriage certificate.

After congratulations a long table was laid in the parlor elegantly dressed in red and white with leavers' knots of ribbon around the edge and bouquets of sweet peas in the center, sent by Mrs. Wilson, of Ione. Just in front of the bride was a very large bride's cake decorated with a miniature wedding bell in white. After a sumptuous dinner of six courses, the guests were presented with a souvenir in the shape of a pretty box filled with wedding cake.

The presents were numerous and elegant. Every one enjoyed themselves to the fullest extent and the ceremonies closed with songs and an address by Rev. Baldwin, all then dispersing to their homes leaving good wishes for a long and happy life for the bride and groom, who will take a trip to the fair and coast before settling down to their summer work in the harvest field. ### Huge Task.

It was a huge task to undertake the cure of such a bad case of kidney disease as that of C. F. Collier, of Cherokee, Ia., but Electric Bitters did it. He writes: "My kidneys were so far gone I could not sit on a chair without a cushion; and suffered from dreadful backache, headache, and depression. In Electric Bitters, however, I found a cure, and by them was restored to perfect health. I recommend this great tonic medicine to all with weak kidneys, liver, or stomach. Guaranteed by Patterson & Son, druggists; price 50c."

FRENZIED FINANCE.

Lawson Pours Hot Shot Into Big Financiers.

Forest Park, Ottawa, Kan., July 8.—Thomas W. Lawson arrived in a special car at noon, and was greeted by the reception committees representing the Chautauqua and Ottawa business men's association.

It is estimated 15,000 people crowded within the huge auditorium to hear the Boston financier. A large delegation of oil men were present to listen to the address. Lawson was enthusiastically received.

Lawson said in part: "Two factors are inevitable in every robbery, the robber and the robbed. All robbers become honest men or convicts when the other party refuses to participate.

"In the early days of our nation there were robbers. But their victims did not rest meekly under their wrongs. The system of today is bolder, fiercer, more grasping than that of our ancestors who were driven across the ocean in '76.

"It has possessed itself of the resources of our rich country, levies tribute on our coal and iron, our meat, bread and clothes. I have a tax on every motion and function of our lives."

Lawson explained the workings of the "system." He said the big financiers grew more insolent every day flaunting their riches, their superiority before law in the face of the people. As a remedy municipal ownership is a mere will-o'-the-wisp, and financiers like nothing better.

The first step is to sell every share of stock and every bond back to the frenzied financiers at present inflated prices, and to invest the money in government, state and municipal bonds. This will cut the foundation the collapse of the "system" is inevitable.

"If we find a Rockefeller possessed of half a billion dollars, we shall first investigate how he obtained so much money; if he gained it legally, he must never be molested in its ownership, for it would be dastardly if the American people took from any one that which they themselves have given for that is what obtaining property really amounts to in America.

"But the ownership of so large sum is proof positive that it was not obtained legally, therefore we should discover exactly by what methods of squeezing, flogging and plundering it was gotten together, and then take him and his half billion back over the route of his rap, compelling him to drop booty at each twist of the road."

Referring to the vast fortunes made by the "system," Lawson said:

"You ask what will become of my fortune? I answer, it will have to go with the rest, for my fortune, like all others made from the public through the medium of stocks, corporations and trusts, should go back where it came from."

A Noiseless Typewriter Needed.

A noiseless typewriter is something devoutly wished for. The constant din of present machines is said to be very trying on the nerves, not only of the operator, but of those around it as well. There was also a time, many years ago, that a medicine for stomach, liver and bowel troubles was sorely needed, but with the introduction of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, over 50 years ago, this long-felt want was supplied. Today it is recognized by everyone to be the best medicine in the world for the above ailments, and thousands of people are now using it exclusively. It positively cures headache, bloating, heartburn, dyspepsia, indigestion, constipation, biliousness and malaria, fever and ague. It is also invaluable to delicate girls and women who need a tonic and regulator for their weak organs. Try a bottle.

Don't let the children suffer. If they are fretful, peevish and cross, give them Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea. The best baby tonic known. Strength and health follow its use. 35 cents—W. P. McMillan, Lexington, Or.
