

The Week's News

Local and Personal Happenings in and About the City.

B. R. Patterson was a passenger for Portland, Monday.

Dr. M. A. Leach was a passenger for Portland Saturday.

J. J. Wells returned from Hood River Thursday evening.

Semi-Weekly Portland Journal and Heppner Gazette only $1.75 per year.

Dr. Higgs, Eyes, Ear, Nose and Throat. Glasses properly fitted.

Dr. F. B. Kistner returned from Portland Thursday evening.

Elmer Spaulding was a passenger for Portland Monday morning.

Clyde Ellis, from Iowa, is the guest of his uncle, Frank Roberts.

Attorney F. H. Robinson, of Ione, was a Heppner visitor Friday.

Wells & Warnock will handle your real estate and charge only the usual commission.

List your lands with Wells & Warnock. We sell only on a straight commission.

The Canyon City public school library contains over 300 volumes of good literature.

Dr. A. K. Higgs went to Portland to attend the meeting of the medical association.

Miss Pearl Vanderpool, of Pineville, is the guest of her sister, Miss Addie Vanderpool.

Fred Zilla, the popular representative of the Irwin Hodeon Co., was in the city this week.

Dr. E. R. Haulock left with his son, Charles, Monday for Portland. The child will be operated on for appendicitis.

Ex-County Assessor Howard Gove, who is attending dental college in Portland, is visiting friends in this city.

Jim Mitchell and Chas. Lefler left Monday morning for the Greenhorn mountains where they have placer mining claims. They will stay a month in working their claims.

In expediting the books of Sheriff Taylor's office in Umatilla county a shortage has been discovered. Part of the shortage covers a time during the term of office of W. H. Blakely. That the sheriff and his predecessor will make good to the county all shortage is not doubted, says the Tribune.

Wednesday evening at Lexington, Charles Whittlesy went on the war path and being handy with a gun was arrested for his trouble. He was given a hearing before Recorder Leach on a charge of an assault with a dangerous weapon and was placed under bonds of $100 to appear before the circuit court.

Morrow county fruit is now getting ripe and is being placed on the market. Mr. Wattenburger brought in a load Saturday. Whit Mauldin brought in a big load from Percy Jarmon's place Monday. The fruit consisted of peaches, apricots and apples. The fruit was very fine and met with ready sale at high prices.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Campbell left Monday morning for The Dalles for permanent residence. Mr. Campbell has accepted a position in the saddle manufacturing concern of Victor Martin. Mr. Campbell learned his trade under Eugene Noble, the well known saddle artist, and it is unnecessary to say that he is a fine workman.

Mrs. N. A. Kelly has returned from Portland.

Dan Doherty was up from Lexington, Monday.

Attorney S. E. Van Vactor returned from Portland, Tuesday.

W. B. McAlister, of Lexington was a Heppner visitor, Tuesday.

The Cash Shoe store for the best in suit cases, telescopes and valises.

B. F. Scott, of Pendleton, was an incoming passenger Monday evening.

Miss Fannie Catton was a passenger for Portland Tuesday morning.

Miss Edythe Jenkins, of Pendleton, was an incoming passenger Monday evening.

FOR SALE—Almost new Singer sewing machine. Price reasonable. Inquire at this office.

W. R. Irwin, accompanied by his son, Stephen, came up from Portland, Tuesday.

You can save money by buying your suit cases, telescopes and grips at The Shoe Store.

Chief Deputy C. P. Doris in Sheriff Taylor's office in Umatilla county has been removed.

Klamath county ranges are being cleared of horses infected with mange. Sixty-nine head were shot at one round up last week.

Mrs. H. W. Peterson, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Otis Welch, was a passenger Tuesday morning for her home in Portland.

Pastor W. C. Sale will discuss the following subjects at the Baptist church Sunday: "Justification" and "The Sufferings of Christ and Their Designs."

In a letter from Dr. E. R. Ellis, of Detroit, Mich., the doctor reports that the four Gunn children whose parents were drowned in the flood are all well and hearty.

Mrs. H. A. Wright, of Seattle, who has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. O. Borg, left Tuesday morning for her home. She will visit the Lewis and Clark fair before returning.

The Condon merchants are complaining somewhat at a 95 cent rate from Portland. This is about 10 cents higher than the old rate when goods were hauled by them from Arlington.—Arlington Appeal.

At the solicitation of our patrons we have reopened our ice cream parlors in rear of postoffice where we will serve the celebrated Hazelwood ice cream, soft drinks, etc. The Pastime, E. C. Ashbaugh, proprietor.

Dr. M. S. Lantz has just returned from Elgin where he superintended the dipping of 30,000 head of sheep from the Wallowa district, and which were shipped to North Dakota, Michigan and Wyoming, says the East Oregonian.

Joseph and Enterprise, Wallowa county, will soon see the passing of the stage lines, for the O. R. & N. has decided to build from the terminus of the Elgin branch east to Joseph. It has been determined to push the construction of this extension without delay. The route over which it will travel will approximate 65 miles, and will be through a rich and fertile section.

Messrs. Erickson & Petterson, of San Francisco, have been awarded the contract for constructing the O. R. & N. Northern Pacific connection between Riparia and Lewiston. The line will be started immediately, and according to the terms of the contract is to be in shape for operation April 1, 1906. The estimated cost is between $1,700,000 and $2,000,000. Laborers are already being hired.

A Notable SPECIAL

Beginning Monday July 24, continuing until Saturday Evening July 29.

CORSET COVERS

Half-Price

Complete line of sizes. Many pretty ones, neatly made, sanitary and serviceable.

The corset covers in our Muslin Underwear section are a little more numerous than they should be and this generous price reduction will certainly reduce the number soon. See window display.

The Fair

THE PLACE TO SAVE MONEY

F. P. Farnsworth returned from Portland, yesterday.

G. M. Booth, D. D., presiding elder of The Dalles district, died very suddenly at his home at The Dalles, last Friday. Rev. Booth was an able and earnest worker. He was well known in this city.

The case of the city of Heppner vs. the saloon keepers of Heppner charged with violating the Sunday closing ordinance, came up for trial yesterday afternoon. The arrests were at the instance of Sheriff Stutt, and the prosecution was in charge of City Attorney C. E. Woodson. S. E. Van Vactor appeared for the defense. A large number of witnesses were examined. The defense asked for time in which to prepare a written brief to test the validity of the ordinance. Time was granted until September 1.

MARRIED.

SCHERZINGER-SHIPLEY—At the residence of the bride's mother, in this city, Thursday, July 20, 1905, Mr. Henry Scherzinger and Miss Charlotte Shipley, Rev. Perry Chandler officiating.

Miss Shipley is a well known and popular young lady. Mr. Scherzinger is one of Morrow county's prosperous stockmen. Mr. and Mrs. Scherzinger left this morning for Portland.

Whiteis-Lamb.

Mr. George Whiteis, of Heppner, and Miss Gertrude Lamb, of Newberg, Oregon, were married at the latter place on Monday, July 10.

Mr. and Mrs. Whiteis returned to this city Thursday evening to make their home in Heppner.

Miss Lamb is quite well known in this city, having formerly been one of the teachers in the Heppner public schools. She is an accomplished and charming young lady and has made many friends here. Mr. Whiteis is a member of the firm of Whiteis & Patterson and is a well known resident of Heppner.

Mr. and Mrs. Whiteis have the best wishes of a large number of friends.

The first harvesting of wheat near Pendleton began Monday. Two headers and eight header beds are used in cutting the wheat and the handling of the grain is

The Cash Shoe Store

Good News About Summer Shoes

Now is the time to wear Summer Shoes. This is the place to buy them. We have a large assortment that we will offer at reduced prices.

READ ABOUT THE GOOD Things we offer, then come in Before your size is gone.

Special Prices on Low Shoes

Children's Barefoot Sandals, all sizes.....	75c
Misses Black Strap Sandals, $1.25 values.....	75c
Children's Rubber Sole Tennis Shoes.....	45c
Mens' and Womens' Tennis Shoes.....	95c
Womens' Kid Oxfords, $1.50 values.....	75c
Mens' Vici Oxfords.....	$1.75 values $1.00

All Broken Lines Reduced in Price

We sell FARRANTS GUARANTEED GLOVES, the best made and best fitting Glove on the market, for dress or work, 50c to $3. See window display.

expedited by the use of nets in the boxes. Thirty men are employed to run the different parts of the machine and 75 horses are used on the different wagons in the outfit.

Oregon needs and must have more railroads.

WANTED—Man, under 35, from Heppner, to prepare for good position as Railway Mail Clerk. Experience in postoffice not necessary. Entrance salary $800 per annum. Gradual promotion. An exceptional opening. Examination soon. Address immediately, P. O. Box 1553, Denver, Colo.