

The Week's News

Local and Personal Happenings in and About the City.

S. C. Jackson went to Ione, Saturday.

Pendleton Business College is thorough.

Frank Farnsworth went to Portland, Monday.

Will Irwin was a passenger for Portland, Monday.

T. A. Rhea was a passenger for Portland, Monday.

Walt Bartholomew went to Pendleton, Tuesday.

Hiram Wickersham, of Ione, spent Sunday in Heppner.

A large crowd of Heppner people spent Sunday at Ditch creek.

Wiley Casey, an old-time resident of Heppner, is in the city.

Semi-Weekly Portland Journal and Heppner Gazette only $1.75 per year.

Dr. Higgs, Eyes, Ear, Nose and Throat. Glasses properly fitted.

Miss Love, of Wasco, was an incoming passenger Saturday evening.

J. J. Adkins, of Rhea creek, was doing business in Heppner, Saturday.

Pendleton Business College reopens September 11th. Are you ready?

John Parker, of Ritter, was in the city the latter part of last week.

List your lands with Wells & Warnock. We sell only on a straight commission.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Walbridge returned from Portland, Saturday evening.

H. Blake and son, Rufo, were passengers for Portland, Monday morning.

Phil Metschan and J. W. Morrow went to Portland, Sunday morning.

Joe Rector, of Hinton creek, was doing business in Heppner, Saturday.

Silas Wright, of Rhea creek, was transacting business in our city Saturday.

Wells & Warnock will handle your real estate and charge only the usual commission.

W. C. Fait, of Seattle, was a Heppner visitor the latter part of last week.

Miss Lena Fawk, of Salem, is visiting her uncle, "Pap" Simons, of this city.

Mrs. Fred Clirgin, of Eugene, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harrison Hale.

Tom Mills and family went to Portland, Tuesday to attend the Lewis and Clark fair.

Wm. Matlock returned from Troutdale, Thursday, where he shipped three carload of cattle.

Miss Lena Glasscock was a passenger for Portland, Friday, where she goes for medical treatment.

A. P. A. Bradbury, traveling salesman for Standard Cracker Co., of Portland, was in Heppner, Sunday.

Geo. Swaggart and family were passengers for Portland, Tuesday, where they will spend several days sight seeing.

Miss Emma Rusk came up from Portland, Saturday to take charge of the Rhea creek school which opened last Monday.

The O. R. & N. will sell return tickets to Portland, on account of Lewis and Clark exposition, Aug. 28, return limit seven days, for $5.25.

Ralph Miller left for Chicago, Monday.

A. Walker, of Ione, was in the city Friday.

C. Johnson, of John Day, was in Heppner, Friday.

W. T. Hislop came in from Pendleton, Sunday.

Tillman Hogue, of Eight-Mile, was in town Monday.

H. Scherzinger was a passenger for Portland, Saturday.

T. W. Marshall, of Portland, was in the city Friday.

Egbert Young, of Eight-Mile, was in the city Friday.

W. H. French, of Hardman, was a Heppner visitor Friday.

James Nunnemaker returned from Hood River, Thursday.

Anderson Hayes returned from Pendleton, Thursday evening.

H. J. Meyer, of Portland, was registered at the Palace, Friday.

R. F. Glafke, of Portland, was registered at the Palace, Friday.

Dave Herren was a passenger for Portland, Saturday morning.

Howard Lane, of Lexington, was registered at the Palace, Sunday.

A. L. Leathers and wife, of Portland, were in the city Saturday.

J. M. Hayes and family, of Rhea creek, spent Monday in our city.

Miss Dottie Slagle, of Kansas, is visiting her aunt, Mrs. Harrison Hale.

J. B. Stevenson, of San Francisco, was registered at the Palace, Friday.

V. Gentry and family are spending a few weeks' outing at Jones Ferry.

Mrs. N. Bacey Stephens, of Portland, was registered at the Palace, Friday.

Rev. C. P. Bailey, of Fossil, held services at the Baptist church last Sunday.

W. T. Hislop was an incoming passenger from Portland, Saturday evening.

Harry Bartholomew, of Pendleton, was in the city a few days last week.

Jeff Hayes and Anderson Neal, of Lone Rock, were Heppner visitors, Friday.

Chas. Bockler, of Monument, was transacting business in Heppner, Saturday.

Mr. McGee, a horse buyer of Seattle, was in Heppner last week buying horses.

Sam Leezer, C. C. Patterson and Chris Borchers were passengers for Ione, Thursday.

Robt. Wigglesworth, of Little Butter creek, was transacting business in the city Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Saling were incoming passengers from Portland, Thursday evening.

Frank Farnsworth came in from Monument Thursday, where he had been on a business visit.

The slaughter house belonging to the Morrow County Meat Co. was destroyed by fire Saturday evening.

T. A. Rhea, W. L. Smith and Dave McAtee went to Ione Thursday to attend the funeral of Tom Davidson.

E. J. Brown, traveling salesman for the Pacific Paper Co., of Portland, was in the city the latter part of last week.

Dr. and Mrs. Hunlock returned from Portland Thursday evening, where they have been spending several weeks visiting the fair.

Standard Patterns for September Now on Sale

The Fair
THE PLACE TO SAVE MONEY

Sole Agents for Topsy Hosiery

Clearance Sale Continues

We must and will have room for our large Fall and Winter Stock which is now coming in. In order to do so we are making some sensational prices on seasonable goods now in stock.

We have so much to tell you of the exceptional values awaiting you that we invite you to come in and see for yourself.

Come in and at least lets become better acquainted. Whether you appreciate August bargains or not, you are always welcome whether you buy or not.

Ladies Lace Hose

50c values now.....38c
45c " "28c
25c " "15c

Wash Shirt Waist Suits

Ladies—to close.....98c
Childrens—to close.....43c

Trimmed Hats

Your choice.....$1.29

Ladies Oxfords and Tan Shoes

The $3.00 kind for.....$1.97
" 2.75 and 2.50 kind for..... 1.83
" 2.25 and 2.00 " " 1.58
" 1.75 kind for..... 1.43

Wrappers

69c to 83c values now.....58c
98c to $1.19 " "78c
$1.25 to $1.50 values now.....1.09

Ladies Vests

Exceptional values at.....4c—8c—11c

Wash Goods

What's left of our line.....7c

Ladies and Misses Sailors

13c and 23c each

Leather Moccasins for the Baby very special.....13c pair

Sunbonnets

While they last.....11c

Are you Aware that we Have a Bargain Section in the rear of the Dry Goods room? Here you will find that your money will do almost double duty in purchasing the little necessities so essential to the prudent housewife, such as Tinware, Woodenware, Graniteware, Lamps, etc.

BEST QUALITIES

"Get the Habit" of Trading at

SATISFACTION

LOWEST PRICES

The Fair

GUARANTEED

Wm. Simmons came in from Butter creek Monday.

J. C. Kirk, of Rhea creek, was a Heppner visitor Monday.

Geo. Perry, of Lone Rock, did business in our city Monday.

W. W. Brannon, of Eight-Mile, was in the city the first of the week.

Rev. J. L. Swift, of Eight-Mile, was a Heppner visitor the first of week.

Wm. Steward is erecting a residence on his ranch on Cunningham Flat.

Mrs. Jake Young, of Gooseberry, was the guest of Mrs. Bisbee the first of the week.

M. Chapler, representing M. Selter & Co., of Portland, was in Heppner, Monday.

Rev. H. S. Shangle, of Milton, conducted services at the M. E. church, south, last Sunday.

Geo. Herford, a prominent sheepman of Big Butter creek, was a Heppner visitor Monday.

Miss Flo Williams, who has been employed by the Crescent Laundry for the past eight months, was a passenger for Hood River, Monday.

The fourth quarterly conference of the M. E. church, south, will be held at Lexington next Saturday evening at 8 o'clock p. m. Preaching at 11 o'clock Sunday morning by Rev. H. S. Shangle.

The Cash Shoe Store

ALL
OXFORDS
HALF
PRICE

Lace Hose One-Third Off

Wm. Barrett and family and Mrs. Cates were outgoing passengers Thursday. They will spend a few weeks at the coast.

Frank Roberts and family left Tuesday morning for Fairhaven, where they go for the health of their little daughter.