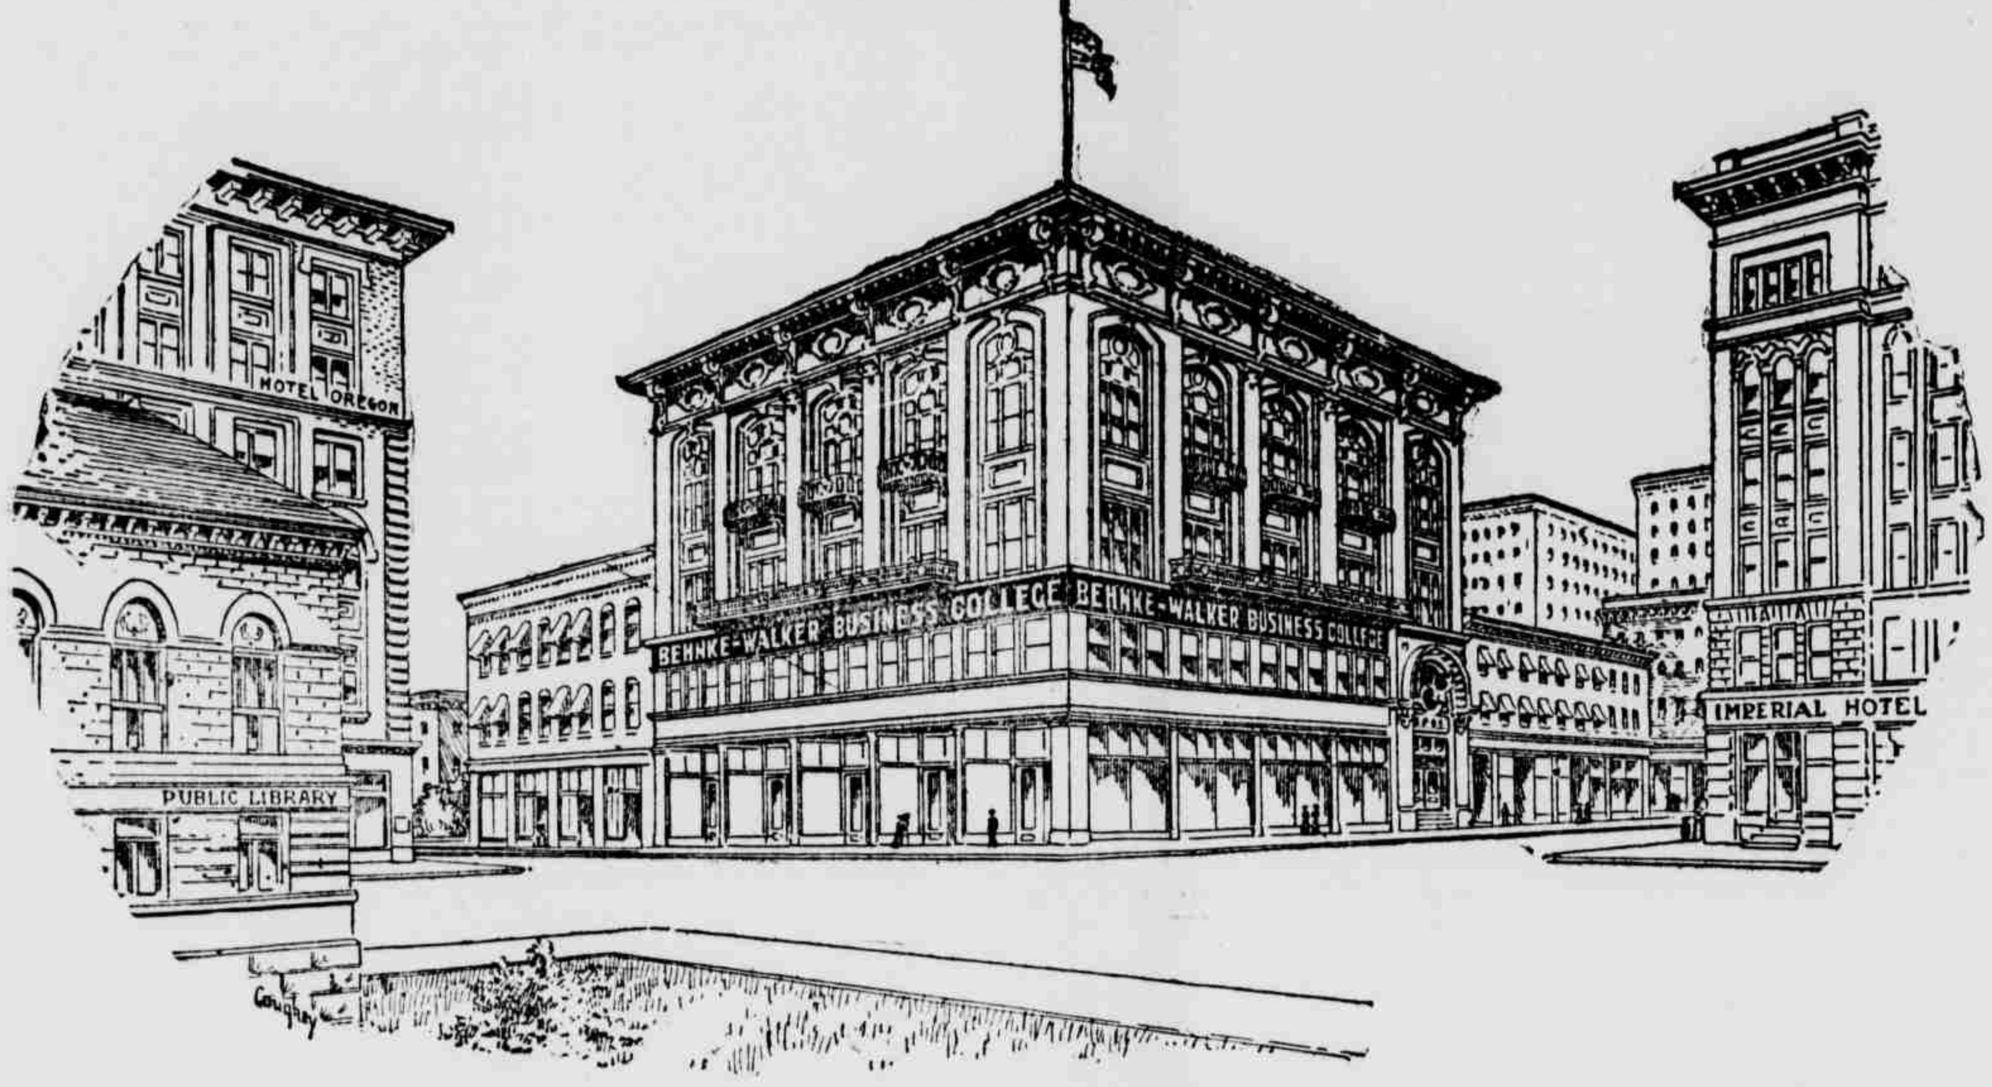
A Fine New Home for You to Study In

New Location of the Behnke-Walker Business College

in Elks' Temple, Opposite Public Library
Portland, Oregon



Next month we move into the new Elks' Building, a complete floor of which has been constructed specially to our order, and is being equipped with the handsomest and most modern business furniture that is manufactured anywhere for college purposes.

Studying in our new home will be a pleasure. You know how much nicer it is to do things amid cheerful, light, inspiring surroundings. We cordially invite you to call and see the premises any time you come to Portland, whether or not you enroll with us as a student. We will take great pleasure in showing you through the different departments.

The pupils in the business practice department occupy individual office desks, each desk containing five drawers. The fixtures in the offices are just like those of a bank, all in oak. The pupils transact business with these offices. Every transaction is performed over the counter, the same as in actual life, from the day the pupil enrolls until he graduates. This enables our pupils to do satisfactory work in business from the start.

Remember that last year we placed 207 Behnke-Walker graduates in positions, and could have placed 500, as there were that many calls from Portland business men. Our guarantee means that you can have the opportunity of your life to obtain a situation in a first-class Portland business house. Once in such a situation there's no limit to your advancement. Grasp every opportunity that comes your way, and you are bound to be successful in life. Grasp the opportunity that exists today—now—by writing for handsome illustrated catalogue. Bryan's Peace Scheme.

Lincoln, Neb., Sept. 14—A letter addressed to President Roosevelt, from William J. Bryan, in which a plan for permanent peace is suggested, was made public this evening. Mr. Bryan congratulates the President on his success in bringing Russia and Japan together, and says:

Why not ask Congress for authority to submit all international questions (when an agreement cannot be reached by parties interested) to an impartial board for investigation and report? Investigation will in nearly every case remove the cause of complaint and reconcile the parties. Questions which a nation might be unwilling to submit to arbitration in advance could be settled by investigation by an impartial international board.

It was a glorious thing to end the war between Russia and Japan, but it would have been more glorious to have prevented the war and saved the frightful loss of life. The moral prestige which our Nation now enjoys would in all probability enable it to lead a successful peace movement. The congratulations which you have received from the heads of European governments strengthen the chances of success. If the leading nations of the world would enter into an agreement to join in the creation of such a board and pledge themselves to submit all disputes to the board of investigation before declaring war, the danger of war would be reduced to a minimum. Few men have had it in their power to do so much for humanity—will you improve the opportunity?

Crop and Weather Report.

Following is the review of the past week by the Department of Agriculture:

The long dry spell was broken on the 12th by good rains which fell generally in the western and northern portions of the state. These rains were supplemented by showers in scattered places on the 13th, 16th and 17th. Some fall plowing and seeding has been done, but the soil is not soft enough for this work to become general. Light frosts occurred in exposed places on several days, but they did no harm.

Hop picking is nearly completed and the crop is turning out better than expected. The rains did not injure the hops, but they were detrimental to prunes, the picking and drying of which are well advanced. Reports indicate that the prune crop will be larger than last year, but much less than a full crop. Late apples are ripening and indicate from fair to good yields.

Corn is nearly ripe and it is a good crop. Potatoes are generally free from blight and the prospects for a good yield of potatoes is much better than it was before the rains set in.

Taxpayers Attention.

The last half of your 1905 taxes will be delinquent after the first Monday in October. Ten per cent penalty and 12 per cent interest. Better hurry.
