Do you want a watch? Most every one does. Everybody needs one. Some people, however, don't feel like paying a large sum of money for one. They try to get along by depending on the public clocks and their friends for the time. Inconvenient of course. We carry in stock the celebrated Hamilton movements, guaranteed to be the best timekeepers and most durable watch made. The prices are so low that you cannot afford to be without one.—P. O. Berg, Jeweler and Optician.

The editor of the Gazette and family visited Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Ayers at Parker's mill, Saturday of last week. Outside of the weather being a little unpleasant for driving, the trip was a very pleasant one. It is unnecessary to say that the entertainment was royal at the beautiful mountain home of Mr. and Mrs. Ayers. The home and sawmill property is located in one of the finest timber belts of the Blue mountains, with between 4000 and 5000 acres of deeded land including a well equipped saw mill, which makes very valuable property. At the home there is about every convenience that is possible to have in the country. Mr. Ayers has been making considerable improvement of late. He has just completed a water system which furnishes water for the house and barn, with good pressure for fire protection at the mill. Everything is admirably arranged for convenience and comfort.

The Lexington band has been reorganized.

C. C. Saling was a passenger for Portland, Monday.

Dan P. Doherty, who recently moved to Pendleton from Lexington, has returned to Lexington, says the Wheatfield.

A Good Company.

The Grace Johnson Co. now at Roberts' opera house under a week's engagement is being well patronized by Heppner people and is very highly spoken of. The company is composed of very clever people and deserves good treatment and liberal patronage. This company is conceded by many to be the best that ever visited Heppner. The company is presenting a clean and new list of good plays that reflect not only credit upon the clever people who delineate them, but also upon the good management of J. C. Brown, the manager.

Man's Unreasonableness is often as great as woman's. But Thos. S. Austin, Mgr. of the "Republican," of Leavenworth, Ind., was not unreasonable, when he refused to allow the doctors to operate on his wife, for female trouble. "Instead," he says, "we concluded to try Electric Bitters. My wife was then so sick, she could hardly leave her bed, and five physicians had failed to relieve her. After taking Electric Bitters, she was perfectly cured, and can now perform all her household duties." Guaranteed by Patterson & Son, druggists. Price 50c.
