STEUNENBERG ASSASSINATED.

Former Governor of Idaho Meets Horrible Death.

Boise, Dec. 30.—Frank Steunenberg, former governor of Idaho, was killed at 6:40 o'clock this evening at his home in the suburbs of Caldwell. A dynamite bomb was placed at the front gate with some contrivance by which it was exploded when he entered. Both of his legs were blown off and he lived but twenty minutes. There is no known reason for the outrage, but it is charged to some member of the famous "inner circle" of the Coeur d'Alene dynamit-ers, whom he prosecuted so relentlessly in 1899, when governor.

Governor Gooding is in communication with the authorities of that county and is preparing to put the full support of the state behind the officials in running down the perpetrators of the crime.
It is thought probable that the leading detective agency of the country will be asked to send some of its best men to the scene and that the state will offer a reward as great as the governor will find he has power to offer.

Steunenberg was governor from 1897-1901. He was 44 years old, and leaves a wife and three children.

The governor has informed the Canyon county officials that the state will offer a $5000 reward for the apprehension of the murderer. A special train is leaving for Caldwell, carrying the governor and others who will assist in running down the criminal. The latest information is that the bomb was placed by the gate post and that the moving gate exploded it. When persons reached the prostrate man, the latter said something like, "Who shot me?" and also something about turning him over, but lapsed into unconsciousness and died without giving any information.

The victim's clothing and shoes were torn to tatters and his back terribly injured. The shock of the explosion was felt all over town and broke all the glass on that side of the governor's house.

Every exit in town is being guarded in the hope of capturing every suspect.
Two men are under suspicion who had been living around Nampa for several days and left for Caldwell today. They lived in the Coeur d'Alenes in 1899, at the time of the riots. Descriptions of them have been wired in every direction.

A Statesman representative, who went to Caldwell, states that when Steunenberg was laid on his bed he said: "Who shot me?" then attempted to sit up, but sank back with the exclamation: "For God's sake, turn me over, I am dying." Though conscious to the last, he did not understand what was said to him and believed that he had been shot.

The dead man's features were not disfigured. He was thrown ten feet from the gate. The gate is gone, not a splinter being found. Mrs. Steunen-berg is prostrated.

Sheep Scarce in Montana.

According to the statements of C. W.
Weidler, of Billings, a sheep man who has done considerable business in sheep deals this season, there are few or no sheep for sale in the state, he having just arrived in Great Falls from the northern part of the state after having failed to make a purchase. Mr. Weidler was on the hunt for sheep to be shipped into Colorado and, after making extensive inquiries, was unable to locate a single band which was on the market.
During the past season hundreds of thousands of sheep have been sold and shipped out of the state and estimates have been made that these shipments from northern Montana alone have reached 1,000,000 head, of which it is believed about 200,000 have been shipped to the southern part of the state, while the remainder went into other states to the eastern markets. In the month of October alone, according to the government inspectors' reports, over half a million sheep were shipped out of Montana, and it is conservatively estimated that the shipments from the state from Nov. 1, 1904, to Feb. 1, 1906, will aggregate at least 1,600,000 head.

Many experts do not believe there has been any decrease in the number of sheep in the western states, holding that Montana is the only one of the "territories" in which there has been a decrease. They declare that the feed lots of Colorado, Wyoming and Nebraska are crowded as never before and that there has been a very large increase in the number of sheep on the ranges of Wyoming.

Helena people who are interested in the Riverside Land & Cattle Company, owning the extensive ranches of Toston, and the Len Lewis Stock Company, of Meagher county, are feeling jubilant over some banner prices recently received for cattle and sheep. Two thousand, two hundred head of 2 and 3-year-old wethers were sold for $4.50 per head, and 100 head of 3 and 4-year-old steers for $37 per head. As far as known, that is the highest price paid this year for both wethers and steers.
The sale was made to L. E. West for Cristen Bros., of Seattle, Wash.— American Wool and Cotton Reporter.

Buildings Sold.

The state commission of the Lewis and Clark exposition has concluded its business, turned over its money to the state and has completed the entire details of its work. All the buildings erected by the commission, with the exception of the Forestry building, have been sold.

The buildings cost approximately $290,000. They were sold for $525. In addition to that sum, however, the commission realized $8,000 for the plumbing and glass that was in the various buildings.

Iafe Pence has purchased several of the buildings, but has not announced what disposition he will make of them.
He has secured an extension of time for their removal.

The dismantling of some of the buildings is progressing rapidly. The Foreign Exhibits building, which was purchased by Robert Wakefield, has been almost completely demolished, and the Machinery, Electricity and Transportation building has been half torn down.

Workmen have changed completely the appearances of the grounds. Thousands of feet of sewer pipe are removed and the site is cut up so that it is difficult to cross from one part to the other.

The two big pumps that supplied the exposition with water have reached Eugene, where they were purchased by representatives of the Rhodes, Sinkler & Butcher syndicate, which owns the waterworks of that city. The pumps will be installed at once. They weigh 5,100 pounds and each has a capacity of 1,000,000 gallons of water a day.

Beware of Ointments For Catarrh That Contain Mercury.

Mercury will surely destroy the sense of smell and completely derange the whole system when entering it through the mucous surfaces. Such articles should never be used except on prescriptions from reputable physicians, as the damage they will do is ten fold to the good you can possibly derive from them.
Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J.
Cheney & Co., Toledo, O., contains no mercury, and is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system.
In buying Hall's Catarrh Cure be sure you get the genuine. It is taken internally and made in Toledo, Ohio, by F. J. Cheney & Co. Testimonials free.

Sold by Druggists. Price, 75c, per bottle.
Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

Spoiled Her Beauty.

Harriet Howard, of W. 34th St., New York, at one time had her beauty spoilied with skin trouble. She writes:
"I had Salt Rheum or Eczema for years, but nothing would cure it, until I used Bucklen's Arnica Salve." A quick and sure healer for cuts, burns and sores.
Sole at Patterson & Son's drug store.

CLEVER ROBBER.

Mose Goldsmith Draws Check at Point of Revolver.

Seattle, Dec. 29.—Mose Goldsmith, a theatrical booking agent and owner of the Strand theatre, was held up in his room in the Lincoln hotel, one of the most fashionable hostleries in Seattle, this afternoon, by a man who gave his name as Burke, and was made to pay over $2750. It was one of the boldest and best planned tricks ever turned in this city.

Yesterday Burke, who said he was part owner of the Butte Miner, arranged a meeting with Goldsmith, pretending he wished to buy a half interest in Goldsmith's two vaudeville theatres. They met again today to discuss the matter, and when closeted in Gold-smith's room the first thing Burke did was to tell Goldsmith to read a letter lying on the table in the room. The letter stated that Burke needed $2750 and if Goldsmith did not "come through" with the amount his head would be blown off. Goldsmith looked up from the letter and down the barrel of a Colt's revolver.

At Burke's command Goldsmith wrote a check for the amount and sent the hotel clerk to the bank for the money. Pocketing the money, Burke told Goldsmith that Goldsmith was a gentleman, and that he would not take Goldsmith's diamonds. He locked Goldsmith in the bathroom, telling him to make no outcry for fifteen minutes.

After a ten minutes' wait, Goldsmith began yelling and attracted the attention of a woman in the next room, who summoned the porter. Burke escaped and is believed to have taken either a Northern Pacific or Great Northern train out of town. The police in the neighboring towns have been notified.

Teeters Arrested.

Advises have been received from Colorado Springs that Judd Teeters, who is wanted in Pendleton, has been arrested here. He was accused of stealing horses in the Butter creek country. He jumped his bail two years ago, and has just been arrested at Colorado Springs, and will be brought to Pendleton for trial. County Sheriff Taylor has been making a still hunt for the thief since a year last June, and requisition papers are now being secured from the governor, and the sheriff will leave in a few days to secure his man.

Teeters formerly lived at Castle Rock, on the Columbia. He was accused of having operated in the Butter creek country with George Ditty, who is now serving a term of three years in the penitentiary. The two men stole a number of horses in the Butter creek country and drove them to the Willamette valley for sale. Teeters was arrested at the time and released on bail, when he made his escape, while Dity was found some time later in Dakota, brought to Pendleton for trial and convicted.

Oregon's Exhibition.

The recent celebration at Portland of the hundredth anniversary of the expedition sent to secure our title to Oregon was an event which commanded the attention of the entire world. Another event which attracted the attention of the entire world 53 years ago was the introduction of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, and during those years its record of cures has been so wonderful as to hold the public attention continuously. Doctors and druggists everywhere have taken note of its wonderful efficacy and now freely prescribe and recommend it to their patients. It always cures sick or nervous headache, indigestion, dyspepsia, constipation, heartburn, flatulency, chills, colds, grippe or female ill. Get a bottle today from your druggist, also ask for a free copy of our 1906 Illustrated Almanac. It is very interesting.

Independent and reliable—The Oregongonian.
