

The Week's News

Local and Personal Happenings in and About the City.

Robert Watkins and wife were in from their ranch Saturday.

Semi-Weekly Portland Journal and Heppner Gazette only $2.00 per year.

R. C. Kelly and L. H. Ziegler, of Ione, were in the city, Monday.

Dr. Higga, Eyes, Ear, Nose and Throat. Glasses properly fitted.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Ayers, of Parker's Mill were in the city yesterday.

Engene Noble shipped three of his well known saddles to Idaho this week.

Chas. Bockler and daughter, of monument were Heppner visitors Saturday.

Seed Rye, Wheat, Barley and Alfalfa for sale at Heppner & Co. Warehouse.

It is reported that J. J. McGee will be a candidate for Sheriff on the democratic ticket.

Mrs. Luie Young entertained a number of her friends with a card party yesterday evening.

Phill Cohn will pay Highest Cash price for Beef Hides, pelts and furs at Heppner & Co. Warehouse.

J. L. Howard and family returned Monday evening from Troutdale. They have been visiting Alex Lindsey, Mr. Howard's son-in-law.

A. K. Fuller, republican candidate for sheriff was in the city Monday. It seems to be generally conceded the Mr. Fuller is in the lead for the nomination.

Yesterday was a busy day in U. S. Commissioner J. P. Williams' office. Special Agent McMechen was here and there were ten applicants for homestead final proofs.

A bouncing baby boy is reported as the latest arrival at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Hart at Cambridge, Idaho. Mr. and Mrs. Hart are former well known residents of Heppner.

Chas. Parker, of Lexington while pruning fruit trees for James Hager, near the city was quite seriously hurt Monday. He fell from a tree and received a bad fracture of the shoulder. Dr. Kistner attended to his injuries.

The severe cold weather and snow of the last week have disappeared and spring weather has again returned. While some damage from the cold weather has been reported, the losses will not be great. In a few cases light losses are reported among early lambs. In some districts the wheat crop was injured. Fall wheat generally over the county was not injured.

Mr. and Mrs. S. E. VanVactor were pleasantly surprised Tuesday evening by a number of their friends. The comfortable home was taken possession of and the evening was spent in games and social conversation. The visitors were well prepared with lunch. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. S. E. VanVactor, Mr. and Mrs. Phill Cohn, Dr. and Mrs. M. B. Metzler, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Minor, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Warnock, Mrs. Henry Blackman.

Klein & Ashbaugh have received their new 16 foot lathe for iron work. This will be a valuable addition to their already well equipped iron and wood working establishment. They are also making improvements in their foundry which will enable them to turn off any class of work that comes along. The fact that they have a good foundry speaks much for their enterprise. It will be a great convenience for Morrow county people and will save money and time for people who formerly sent castings to Portland.

Thos. Morgan, of Gooseberry, republican candidate for county clerk was in the city this week.

C. C. Hutchinson, superintendent of the Oregon Land & Water company, has purchased the Irrigon Irrigator of A. A. Bennett, who will seek a location elsewhere.

The Ladies Aid of the Christian church will give a supper in the Masonic Hall, Saturday night March 24, 1906. Supper begins at 5 p. m. Price 25c. All are invited.

H. J. Bean, of Pendleton, republican candidate for nomination for circuit judge for the sixth district, was in the city this week in the interests of his candidacy. Judge Bean informs the Gazette that the outlook for the nomination is very bright. He will get a good vote in Morrow county.

There was a meeting of the Royal Arch Masons of Heppner last Friday and Saturday. Newt. Robison, Nick Long and F. E. Westerberg, of Monument, and Ben Wilson, of Heppner were given the degrees of the order. The meeting ended with a big banquet on Friday night and a general good time.

After two weeks, spent in Portland studying Spring styles in Millinery, Mrs. L. E. Cohn invites the ladies of Heppner to call and inspect the large stock selected for them, from the San Francisco houses and Gage Bros. & Co., of Chicago, whose agency she has for Heppner. Largest stock and lowest prices. A call will convince you of this. Pattern hats and novelties now ready.

Regular Communion services at the Christian church Sunday morning at 11:15; at the evening service, 7 o'clock, the subject will be, "The Logic of a Lawyer." The argument will be to prove the claims of Jesus as the Messiah—The Savior of the world. Anyone who may doubt the divinity of Christ is urged to be present to hear this discussion. A cordial welcome to all. Regular Christian Endeavor services at 6 p. m., Subject "Bountiful Sowing."

Mr. Arthur K. Fuller, formerly one of Sherman county's successful farmers, but now of Morrow county, is a candidate for the Republican nomination of Sheriff of Morrow county. Mr. Fuller's reputation is of the "square deal" kind, and Morrow county can not do better than elect such men to office. Mr. Fuller's many friends in Sherman county will be pleased to hear of his success in receiving the nomination, which is equivalent to an election.—Wasco News.

There are said to be more large land and cattle owners in Harney county than in any other county in Oregon, nine companies holding land as follows: California & Oregon Land company, 19,722 acres; John Devine estate, 14,660 acres; French Glenn Livestock company, 106,331 acres; Wm. Hanley, 10,308 acres; F. C. Lusk, 15,640 acres; Oregon Stock & Butchering company, 10,327 acres; Oregon Accidental Stock company, 19,819 acres; Pacific Livestock company, 86,374 acres; Willamette Valley Road company, 243,161 acres; making a total of 516,794 acres of taxable property assessed at $1,265,650.

Frequent sales has characterized the sheep business of Wallowa county the past few weeks. A large band was recently purchased by J. Frank Stubblefield, of Enterprise, for which he paid $5 each for the ewes. Even now $5.25 is offered, without takers, for choice stock. Wool is being contracted by some for 20 cents a pound, while many producers are holding for 22 cents or better. Ross Falconer, a wealthy sheep man who went East several months ago, has returned, and says that he is ready to purchase more stock to take the place of that sold by him last year. He had thought he sold well until he investigated conditions in the eastern states. He now expresses greater faith in Wallowa sheep than ever.

Rev. H. S. Shangle the Presiding Elder, will preach at the Southern Methodist church, Sunday night.

Rev. H. A. Green our associational missionary is in Heppner and will be here for several days to come. When he comes to your home with Bibles and religious literature please receive him kindly, for his visit will be a blessing to you. You may also call at the Baptist parsonage to see him if you desire to purchase some Bibles and good books. Brother Green will preach at the Baptist church next Sunday morning and evening. Brother Green is an able preacher. He was the former pastor at Eugene. W. C. Sale.

PROGRESSIVE MAN.
H. M. Cake, Candidate for Senator, Has Good Record.

People who know what H. M. Cake has done as an organizer of the greater Oregon movement, know that if he is elected to the United States Senate, he will get results of a substantial character.

Few men in this state have devoted as much time and energy to making the state progressive as H. M. Cake. He has always championed the policy or an amendment to the Federal constitution, providing for the election of United States Senators by the direct vote of the people.

He has a good record on the labor question and is strenuously opposed to any change of the Chinese Exclusion law that would admit the pauper labor of China into competition with the intelligent workmen of this country.
