F. P. Vaughan, one of our successful farmers of the Eight Mile district, was a business visitor in the city Tuesday.

Mass will be said at St Patrick's church, Heppner, on the fourth Sunday of this month, but not on the third Sunday.

A lodge of Odd Fellows was instituted at Morgan last Friday. Gene Noble and Lewis Kinney went down to assist in the work.

Miss Willetta Leezer has resigned her position in the county clerk's office. Miss Vivian Cox has accepted the position made vacant.

Word comes from Little Butter creek that grass is good and sheep are in fine condition. They are getting along well with lambing; it is favorable for a good wool crop and in some sections and exceptionally heavy clip is assured.

Ex-Governor T. T. Geer came in Saturday evening and left Monday morning. Mr. Geer was looking over the political situation in regard to his candidacy for nomination for governor. Mr. Geer met several old acquaintances in Heppner.

In the Oregonian's Yellowstone Park voting contest this week we notice the name of Miss Ona Gilliam in first place in district No. 16. Miss Gilliam is 3,363 ahead, and at the rate she has been gaining will be far more in the lead when the contest ends.

Mrs. S. P. Garrigues returned home Friday from Salem, where she had been a couple of weeks during the illness and death of her brother, Mr. J. A. Nelson, who died two weeks ago last Sunday from a paralytic stroke. Mr. Nelson was formerly a resident here and was well known by many Heppner people.

Heppner Blackman, born and raised in Morrow county, is now engaged in the art department of the Daily Evening Sunday Bulletin the oldest and most prominent paper in San Francisco, Cal. From illustrations and pictures he has in the daily issues. Hep. is destined to become one of the foremost artists on the Pacific coast. He signs all his work under the cognomen of "Hep."

Dr. Chick of Hardman, was on our streets Wednesday. He brought a young man to the hospital who had received a severe gunshot wound on the head.

This is the season of listlessness, headaches and spring disorders. Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea is a sure preventive. Makes you strong and vigorous. 35c. Tea or Tablets. W. P. McMillan, Lexington, Ore.

You feel the life giving current the minute you take it. A gentle, soothing warmth, fills the nerves and blood with life. It's a real pleasure to take Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea. 35 cents. Tea or Tablets. W. P. McMillan, Lexington, O. e.

Don't scold your wife when she cracks about that stinking cigar or pipe that you smoke. You are the one to blame. Suppose you try The Pastime, who has for years been selling only the best cigars and tobacco, and we are sure there will be no more trouble for you. She will meet you with a smile.

The lunch served by the boys of the M. E. Sunday school, Wednesday evening, was a success financially and socially. The one to be given by the girls of Mrs. White's Sunday school class a week from Friday will be a "successor."

The carpenter work on the club building will be finished this week. The painters and paper hangers have their work well under way, and the building is presenting a very neat and imposing appearance; well worthy the pride of an enterprising and energetic community.

Harry Bartholomew has rented 180 acres of alfalfa from Odd Teel for three years at a yearly rental of $12.50 per acre. This land is less than a mile from Echo. Mr. Teel paid a little less than $6 an acre for this property. This is a sample of what enterprise and irrigation will do and is doing.

Johnny Ruh died of consumption Tuesday morning, after a protracted illness. He was about 24 years of age, and had lived the greater part of his life in this county. The body was accompanied to Dayton, Oregon, yesterday morning by his sister, Mrs. Jesse Ford, for burial beside his mother. Mrs. Ford had been at the bedside of the deceased for several weeks.

S. Howarth was in from Butter Creek Wednesday. He reports untold troubles from the Indians in that part of the county. They came over from the reservation and steal everything they can get their hands on, and cut fences, and make themselves a nuisance in general. The citizens are becoming very indignant, and are thinking seriously of taking some strenuous measures to stop their pillaging.

Judge Ayers and Assessor Connor went down to Ione Monday to attend the funeral of Edward Cluff, who died at Salem shortly after being taken there. Mr. Cluff was an old pioneer of Morrow county, and was about 70 years of age. He came to Morrow county in 1867, and had lived most of the time since in the vicinity of Ione. Mr. Cluff died on March 31, and his remains were brought to Ione, the funeral taking place Tuesday. ### We Want You To See This Range

The exclusive agency for its sale has been given us and we would like to show you the good points about this Range—to tell you why Malleable Iron is so superior to the old style cast Range—why it will not only outlast the cast Range and effect a saving in fuel. This Range was awarded the (Gold Medal) Highest Award at the Lewis & Clark Fair and has no superior.
