BOURNE'S NOMINATION.

The news of Jonathan Bourne's nomination for United States Senator, coming as it did at the last moment when even Mr. Bourne himself had conceded the election to Mr. Cake and had tendered his congratulations, came as a surprise. While Mr. Bourne was always considered a strong candidate, the early returns from the primary election indicated that Cake was a sure winner.

Mr. Bourne's nomination is entirely due to his own efforts. It is the result of an able, active, honest and straight forward campaign that won the respect and support of the voters of the state of Oregon.

The people have been clamoring for many years for the election of United States Senators by a direct vote. Statement one of the direct primary law will ultimately force a condition that will be near this desired result.

In championing statement one, Mr. Bourne went before the people with a platform that was equal to every attack.

He is a man of ability and energy, and being the choice of the majority of the Republicans in a Republican state should be given the loyal support of Republicans and be sent to Washington as our representative in the upper house.

The commercial organizations of Portland are giving great publicity to the agitation of the idea of "Made in Oregon," which is already a popular slogan. It is a catch phrase that is being used on stationery and on buttons that are worn by many. And why should it not be popular. Everybody in Oregon should take it up and become impressed with a movement that cannot help but build up the state. It is not only a matter of pride, but a question of good business sense. Oregon is good enough and so are Oregon made goods.

The Proper Spirit.

H. M. Cake, candidate at the primaries for the Republican indorsement for United States Senator, will support his victorious rival, Jonathan Bourne, at the general election in June. More than this, Mr. Cake will tender his services to the State Central Committee and offer to stump the state.

"I feel that this is the great opportunity to solidify the Republican party and do away with old factions and animosities," said Mr. Cake today. "Now is the opportunity to bring about a united party, and in order to obtain this result every Republican must lay aside every feeling of discontent and put forth the best efforts within his power for the good of the ticket,

"I have decided to offer my services to the State Central Committee when organized; to stump the state, if so desired, and in every way possible to contribute my best efforts for the success of the ticket from top to bottom."

Judge Stephen A. Lowell has said that he will support Mr. Bourne. Judge Watson and E. L Smith have pledged their support of the ticket.

Mr. Cake was the next highest man in the Senatorial race, and the announcement that he intends to support the ticket and the Senatorial candidate at the head is regarded by Republicans as encouraging. Mr. Cake was defeated by Bourne by only a few votes, and his friends assert that had it not been for the candidacy of Judge Lowell, Judge Watson and Mr. Smith, he would have been the nominee. Judge Lowell and Mr. Smith, in particular, drew from the support on which Mr. Cake could probably have counted in a race between himself and Bourne alone.—Portland Tel-gram.

SOCIALIST CONVENTION.

Platform Adopted and Full Ticket Nominated.

The socialists of Morrow county met in this city last Saturday at the court house.

Under the provisions of the direct primary law where a political party fails to poll 25 cent of the entire vote, such a party is not entitled to a place on the nominating election ballots. The law provides for minority parties, that their candidates may be placed on the ticket at the general election by petition.

The object of the socialist convention last Saturday was for the purpose of nominating a county ticket in order that the party could get representation on the ticket at the June election by petition.

There was a good attendance at Saturday's convention and absolute harmony was a feature of the meeting.

Chairman of the County Central Committee Abner Cantwell called the meeting to order at 10 o'clock.

J. L. Swift was elected chairman and Abner Cantwell was elected secretary.

After the appointment of the necessary committees the convention adjourned until one o'clock in the afternoon.

At the afternoon session chairman Swift called the meeting to order and addressed the convention.

After the reports of the committees the following ticket was named:

Joint Senator—J. L. Swift, of Eight Mile.

Joint Representative—J. P. Hadley, of Hardman.

Commissioner—Frank Burrows, of Ione.

Treasurer—Joseph Gibson, of Heppner.

Clerk—A. S. Akers, of Heppner.

Sheriff—George C. Aiken, of Heppner.

Surveyor—F. E. Miller, of Heppner.

The following platform was unanimously adopted by the convention:

"First—We, the Socialist party of Morrow county, in convention assembled, reaffirme the principles of the Inter-National and National Socialist party. We congratulate the comrades of the state and nation on the rapid progress of the Socialist cause.

"Knowing the cause of the present unrest and dissatisfaction of the people will surely bring the desired result, we commend the platform of the Socialist party to the consideration of all the unprejudiced producers of wealth, knowing that the country must accept its political and industrial independence from and by the laboring class.

"Second—We submit the platform of the industrial, social and political principles of the Socialist party of Morrow county.

"Election of men and measures by direct vote of the people, by initiative and referendum. No discrimination, political or otherwise on account of sex. Equal suffrage to all.

"The collective ownership of all the means of collecting, producing and distributing the nations resources.

"To labor the full product of its toil.

"The industrial class must take over to itself by the ballot the powers of government for the purpose of doing equal and exact justice to all. The struggle between labor and capital will continue until this great end is attained. The emancipation of the workers must come by and through their own efforts.

PROHIBITTION CONVENTION.

Ticket Nominated at Harmonious Meeting.

Morrow county Prohibitionists held their county convention at the court house in this city last Friday.

Being a minority party a convention was necessary to come to a conclusion on the selection of candidates in order to get on the ticket by petition at the general election in June.

Owing to a misunderstanding as to the date of meeting the attendance was not as large as it would have been had the date been better understood, however, there was a fair attendance.

It was strictly a business meeting there being no speeches.

J. J. Adkins was elected chairman and W. C. Lacy was elected as secretary.

Following is the ticket nominated:

Joint representative—H. C. Gay.
Commissioner—J. J. Adkins.
Treasurer—J. L. Yeager.
Coroner—W. P. Scrivener.

Oregon Weekly Weather Bulleton.

The weather last week was cloudy and showery up to Saturday, when clearing weather set in, and Sunday and Monday were warm, sunshiny days. The showers, although generally light, were well distributed and were very welcome on account of the previous dryness, which had parched the soil and caused the roads to become very dusty. During the showery period very little sunshine prevailed, and the temperatures at night were about normal and in the afternoon they were slightly below normal. Light frost occurred in the southern and eastern sections on the morning of the 26th. There were no high winds.
