WETHYCOMBE AND DUNIWAY.

Republican Candidates Held Enthusiastic Meeting.

Dr. James Withycombe, Republican candidate for governor, and Willis Duniway, Republican candidate for state printer, opened the Republican campaign in Heppner Tuesday evening with a big and enthusiastic meeting.

Walter M. Pierce, Democratic candidate for joint senator for Morrow, Umatilla and Union counties, was also given time at the close of the meeting.

Owing to the fact that the direct primary law makes the campaign much shorter than under the former system, the work of billing the candidates was made up in a hurry by both parties, and there was somewhat of a clash of dates between the Republicans and Democrats at Tuesday's meeting.

A meeting had been advertised by the Democratic district candidates for Tuesday evening and Roberts' hall had been rented for the occasion. However, when it was learned that the Republican state candidates had also been billed by the state committee for the same evening, S. E. Van Vactor, the accommodating chairman of the Morrow county Democratic central committee, kindly gave way, postponing the Democratic meeting and turning the hall over to the Republicans. Mr. Pierce being unable to be at Heppner at any other date was also shown a return of courtesy by being allowed time at the close of the Republican speaking.

Roberts' hall was well filled with an attentive and appreciative audience.

Hon. E. L. Freeland, state committeeman for Morrow county introduced Dr. Withycombe as the first speaker. While Dr. Withycombe has visited Heppner twice before, this was his first appearance in public. Soon after he commenced to speak it was plainly evident that it was a decided Withycombe audience.

He is an able thinker and has a pleasant faculty of expression which causes intense interest. His argument was characterized by a friendly spirit toward the position of the democrats, but all the time he was throwing cold facts and convincing proofs as to the fallacy of turning over the reins of government to the minority party.

Dr. Withycombe's hearers were brought to a full realization of the results coming from the election of a Democratic governor four years ago. Today, Democratic principles are represented in Washington with as many votes from Oregon in the United States senate, as the Republicans have, and Mr. Gearin is whipped into line with the party lash.

Dr. Withycombe's appearance in Heppner has left a good impression with Morrow county people. It is plainly evident that he is a man of good, sound and safe judgment, with exalted ideas of government and citizenship.

Being a resident of Oregon for the past 35 years, he is well qualified and well acquainted with the needs of every portion of the state. The people of Oregon have every reason to believe that he will keep his promises to use every honorable means to promote the interests of Oregon in the march of progress of one of the most promising states of the union.

Willis Duniway, Republican candidate for state printer, was the next speaker introduced.

Mr. Duniway bears the scars of much work for the Republican cause in Oregon, having gone through many campaigns. He needs little introduction to the people of Oregon in any community. His speech was necessarily short and was confined principally to the duties of the office to which he aspires. Without hesitation he stated that he had made promises as to the conduct of the office should he be elected. He said that he had promised to cut off unnecessary expense. He stated most emphatically that he would not be a discredited man by cause of failure to redeem his promises.

Mr. Duniway touched somewhat on state issues and closed with a review of the ticket. He dwelt somewhat upon the candidacy of Jonathan Bourne, Jr., for the United States Senate. Mr. Bourne's activity, energy, strong convictions and ability were spoken of as strong endorsements for the people's choice for the senate.

E. M. Shutt, Republican candidate for sheriff of Morrow county was the next to occupy the platform. Mr. Shutt stated that he was in favor of the enforcement of all the laws and which was the platform that he was always willing to stand on.

Walter O. Hill, Morrow county's Republican candidate for clerk made a short talk and stated that his experience at the court house for the past four years had been of great value in helping his qualifications for the duties of the office. He said that if elected he hoped to be able to keep up the present high standard of efficiency in the office.

This closed the Republican part of the program and the chairman announced that the meeting would be turned over to the Democrats.

Sam E. Van Vactor, chairman of the Morrow county Democratic central committee, in a short and pointed speech announced that the Democrats would hold a big meeting next Friday evening. Mr. Van Vactor stated that this was a second postponement, but that the Democrats were used to being disappointed.

Hon. Walter M. Pierce, candidate for joint senator was introduced by the chairman. Mr. Pierce covered considerable ground in a general way, however, there was an absence of strictly partisan sentiment. The speaker was applauded when he emphatically stated that if Jonathan Bourne Jr., was given a majority of the people's votes next June, he would, if he had a chance, vote for him.

The meeting was interspersed with music by the Apollo trio from Portland. The members of this trio are C. H. Watson and Taylor brothers. The young men have fine voices that have been well trained and their selections are appropriate and added much to the entertainment of the meeting.

Arrangements are almost completed for memorial services in this city May 30. The program was published in last week's Gazette.

Consor-Leezer.

The marriage of Mr. Earl Homer Consor and Miss Willetta Leezer was solemnized at All Saints Memorial church Wednesday morning, May 16th, in the presence of a large number of their friends and relatives.

Rev. John Warren, rector of All Saints church officiated, using the regular Episcopal marriage service.

The church was beautifully decorated with hot house flowers and potted plants which furnished a pleasing setting for the solemn ceremony.

At seven o'clock just as the bridal party arrived, Mrs. Chas. Huelat sang "Song of a Heart" and immediately Mrs. M. B. Metzler struck the opening chords of Loringren's wedding march and the bridal party entered led by Mr. Harry Duncan and Mr. Clyde Brock who acted as ushers. Following them came the bride's maids Miss Essie Leezer, cousin of the bride and Miss Maude Mills, making a very pretty picture as they came down the aisle gowned in white silk organdy delicately flowered with pale pink roses.

The girdle was of white satin with ends falling to the bottom of the skirt. They wore large picture hats of white chiffon trimmed with long white plumes and pink roses, and carried bouquets of pink carnations tied with pink satin ribbon.

Next came little Ruth Whitner, cousin of the bride, dressed in white swiss embroidery, bearing the ring on a cushion of white satin.

Miss Eva Bailey, of Hillsboro, a schoolmate of the bride, acted as maid of honor. She was charming in a gown of cream silk organdy with a satin stripe, wearing a large hat of neopolitan straw trimmed with pink roses and white lilacs. She also carried pink carnations tied with pink satin ribbon. Immediately following the maid of honor came the bride with her uncle, Mr. Samuel Leezer.

The bride wore an attractive white crape chiffon gown made princess design with a train, over white taffets and carried a beautiful bouquet of white carnations tied with white ribbon. The veil of soft white tulle was held in place with small bride's roses and an exquisite crescent shaped brooch set with pearls, which was a present from the groom.

The bride looked lovely and came to the altar with the same quiet dignity and self possession that is always characteristic of Miss Leezer.

At the altar they were met by the groom and Mr. Will Bennett, who acted as best man.

After the ceremony they marched out to the strains of Mendelssohn's march.

Entering the carriage they drove to the home of the bride's mother where the wedding gown was changed for a light gray traveling suit.

Mr. and Mrs. Consor left on the nine o'clock train in the midst of a shower of rice and good wishes for Portland where they will spend a few days.

They will make their home in Ashland, Oregon.

Mr. Consor has recently been promoted to the position of assistant cashier of the Bank of Ashland. He is a nephew of George Consor, cashier of The First National Bank of Heppner, and has many warm friends here.

Miss Leezer is the daughter of Mrs. W. J. Leezer, of this city. She is an accomplished and charming young lady and has a host of friends in Heppner.

They received many beautiful and valuable presents.

Circuit court will be convened in this city in regular session next Monday by Judge W. R. Ellis. District Attorney G. W. Phelps informs the Gazette that a grand jury will be asked for in order to dispose of cases, should it be necessary.

SHEEP IN GOOD SHAPE.

Very Little Scab Reported By Stock Inspector.

County Stock Inspector Andy J. Cook is getting well along with the work of inspecting the sheep of Morrow county.

Mr. Cook started out on his tour of inspection on the 10th of April. Since that time he has issued permits for 56,000 head of sheep to go to the summer ranges on the Blue Mountains forest reserve. In all he has inspected 100,000 head.

Morrow county sheep have been found to be in good condition. Only five bands have been found to be infected with scab. These have all been dipped but one band and this band will be dipped in a short time. Mr. Cook thinks that scab in this county is now practically under control, and with proper care will soon be entirely eliminated.

About the first of June Mr. Cook will start on his inspection of cattle and horses.

It is reported that a number of range horses along the Columbia river are infected with mange. Mr. Cook is determined to also eradicate this disease. All infected stock will be either dipped or killed.

Mr. Cook believes only in thorough work and is doing everything in his power to get rid of all diseases that are a menace to the stock industry.

L. Montestelli, of Pendleton, is in the city looking after business interests.
