SHEEPMEN
RELIEVED
CAN NOW ENTER BLUE MOUN-TAIN FOREST RESERVE.

When Evidence Has Been Produced That Proper Fees Have Been Remitted.

The following telegrams received this week by R. F. Hynd, secretary of the Heppner Wool Growers Association will be a great relief to Morrow county sheepmen.
Being all ready to go to the mountains the sheepgrowers were without permits to enter the Blue Mountain Forest Reserve owing to the fact that there has not been time enough for the permits to come from Washington. The sheepmen were informed by the supervisor at Sumpter that they would not be allowed to enter the reserve without permits.

This left the sheepmen in a bad position and the matter was immediately taken up by R. F.
Hynd, the secretary of the wool growers association.

Mr. Hynd sent the following telegram:
Gifford Pinchot, Forestry Bureau, Washington, D. C.: No permits arriving to admit sheep on Blue Mountain Forest Reserve.
Sheep starving. Can't you authorize by wire their admission where fees remitted. Answer.
(Signed) Heppner Wool Growers Association.

The following answer was received from the Forestry Bureau:
"Have wierd instructions forest officers to admit sheep Blue Mountain Reserve where evidence is produced that fees have been remitted."

A DARING ROBBERY
IRWIN FOSTER RELIEVED OF $85 IN GOLD.

Lon and Dodge Cline Locked up in Jail Charged With the Crime.

Lon Cline and Dodge Cline, brothers are now in jail charged with the robbery of Irwin Foster in this city at the Pacific Lodging House, last Tuesday night.

The Cline brothers and Foster are strangers, the former coming from Missouri and the latter from Michigan.

They came here early in the spring and went to work out on Butter creek about the first of April.

Last Tuesday the three men came to town to attend the circus.
All brought checks from their employers and got them cashed at the First National bank.

During the day they attended the circus together and proceeded to have a good time. They registered at the Pacific, Lon Cline and Foster occupying the same room.

When they got up in the morning, Foster who had $85 in gold, discovered that his money was missing. Cline also claimed that he had been relieved of $110.

Young Foster who is not very bright was greatly worried over the loss of the money but was told by his companions not to say anything about it, the Cline's saying that there was no use as he never could find the guilty parties.

Dodge Cline who slept with Foster told of the occurrence around town in several different stories and acted in such a suspicious manner that the matter was taken up by Sheriff Shutt and Marshal Rasmus.

One of the Cline's had secured a job of D. O. Justus but turned it over to Young Foster who went to Mr. Justus' ranch. Sheriff Shutt went out to see him yesterday while Marshal Rasmus shadowed the Cline's.

Early yesterday morning they were arrested at the depot by Sheriff Shutt and Marshal Rasmus and one was placed in the county jail while the other was put in the city jail.

Sheriff Shutt found Foster's purse from which the money was taken secreted in a water closet which the Cline's had been fre-quenting.

Several days ago a man working for J. L. Howard overheard the Cline's planning a scheme to get Young Foster drunk and take his money away from him, and Foster was warned.

The men while at the depot seemed very nervous and asked for rates to St. Louis, Mo.
The officers claim to have a strong chain of circumstantial evidence pointing to the guilt of the men now in custody.

WORK OF CONGRESS
Wider Scope of Federal Control Feature of First Session of 59th Congress.

Washington, June 24—Important measures extending Federal regulation and control have been enacted at the first session of the 59th Congress. The railroad rate and the meat inspection bills will soon become laws, and before adjournment both houses will have passed pure food bills, which, though dissimilar in terms, are both based on the same principle of Federal control.
It is the present intention to try to adjust these differences before adjournment.

There has been no marked division on party lines in effecting these results, the differences being only as to ways and means rather than as to policy.
Besides branching off into this new field of legislative endeavor, the present session has made itself important in other ways. It has added one, and perhaps two new states to the Union, and by so doing has disposed of four territories.

Great results to the people are expected from the removal of tax on denatured alcohol, and, if pre i tions are fulfilled, heat, light, and power are to be supplied by alcohol made from the cornfields of the country, from sugar beets and sugar cane, from fruits and other vegetables.

By a deft turn of legislative points of view the questions that have perplexed Congress for some time regarding the Panama Canal has been settled. The President may dig a lock canal as fast as he pleases. A joint resolution was agreed to requiring canal supplies to be made of American manufacture.

Congress has not dealt with the foreign situation to any ext nt. An act making a much-needed reorganization of the Consular service was passed.
Nothing was done in the Santo Domingo controversy, and the legislation affecting our colonial possessions was meager and unimportant, although tariff revision for the Philippines received the attention and approval of the House, and an act was passed revising the tariff collected by the Philippine government.
A coinage act for the islands also was passed.

Organized labor has succeeded in its requests of the present session of Congress to the extent of securing the enactment of what is known as the "employers' liability bill." This enactment will make it possible for an employee to secure damages for his injuries notwithstanding his own negligence may have been in part responsible for that injury.

Another bill that doubtless will become a law is that limiting the hours of continuous service of railway trainmen to 16 consecutive hours' work, to be followed by ten hours' rest. The much agitated eight-hour day bill received a favorable vote in the House from the labor committee, but too late to secure action at the hands of Congress. The anti-injunction bill was postponed in the committee until next session.

Enthusiasts for the "greater Navy" regard the legislation of the session as initial to proper growth of that arm of our fighting force. Congress authorized the construction of the "biggest battleship afloat," with the provision that before the plans are submitted or bids received or accepted, the plans of the ship must be submitted to Congress at its next session.

A law was passed which will result in appropriate markings being made over the graves of Confederate veterans of the army and navy who died in Northern prisons during the Civil War. The wearing of the insignia of the Grand Army of the Republic or other soldier insignias by other than members of these organizations is made a mis-deemeanor.
