DOINGS OF OUR NATIONAL BODY OF LAWMAKERS

Saturday, June 23.

Washington, June 23.—Shortly after noon today Senator Cullom signed the conference report on the railroad rate bill, adding his name to that of Senators Elkins and Representatives Hepburn, Sherman and Richardson. Senator Tillman did not sign the report, and it was turned over to Representative Hepburn to present to the house. It is expected the refusal of Senator Tillman to subscribe to the agreement in regard to the McLaurin commodity amendment, which would permit pipe lines to carry commodities they produce, will result in debate in the senate when the report is presented there for adoption.

Senator Tillman, in refusing to sign the conference report, says he will give his reasons in the senate and will ask the senate to vote whether or not it will yield to the house conferees.

Washington, June 23.—The pure food bill was passed today by the house and the conference report on the railroad rate bill adopted.

Nearly the entire day was taken up with the consideration of the pure food bill under five minute rule, and, while many amendments were offered, most of them were voted down. Those that were adteptd were corrections and changes in verbiage. The pure food billwas passed by a vote of 242 to 17.

The conference report on the railroad rate bill was taken up, and while there was discussion of the anti pass agreement, the previous resolution was adopted by a vote of 121 to 97, the conference report being agreed to, 216 to 4.

Friday, June 22.

Washington, June 22.—The oposition in the senate to the committee amendment to the sundry civil bill appropriating $25,000 annually for the payment of the traveling expenses of the president, which was begun by McLaurin, resulted today in the withdrawal of the amendment by Hale, in charge of the bill, and the subsequent passage of the independent bill providing practically for the same appropriation, which was recently passed by the house of representatives.

Washington, June 22. — Pure food held the attention of the house throughout today. The constitutional features of the pure food bill were debated by the leading lawyers of the house, the Democrats splitting wide on the question whether the bill took away from the states their police powers. Various features applicable to localities and interests were discussed earnestly, but it was early apparent that the bill will be adopted practically in the form in which it came from the interstate and foreign commerce committee.

General debate was closed at 3:30, when the bill was read and amendments offered.

The so-called "package" section was passed over, it being evident that this amendment will create much discussion. The bill was laid aside until tomorrow.

Thursday, June 21.

Washington, June 21.—The senate today took a position in accord with the president and the house of representatives by declaring for a lock canal across the isthmus of Panama. The result was reached after a day's discussion that was almost devoid of interesting incident There was only one record vote, and that was negative in character, coming on a motion to lay on the table the lock type substitute for the sea level bill. This motion was made by Kittredge, and was voted down, 31 to 36.

Washington, June 21. — The space in front of the speaker's desk of the house today resembled a small section of a delicatessen store and a corner grocery, with cereals, jams, jellies, tins of peas, tomatoes, corn, bottles of whiskey and wine, imported sausages, brandied cherries and other edibles and drinkables scattered over the tables. To complete the picture, there were a standard scales with weights, a graduate and a funnel. These were used to demonstrate the contention of the majority of the committee on interstate and foreign commerce that a pure food bill is necessary for the protection of the people.

The house spent the entire day in consideration of the bill and had not completed it at adjournment. It will be taken up again tomorrow.

Wednesday, June 20.

Washington, June 20. — The meat inspection provision of the agricultural appropriation bill was today made the subject of discussion in the senate. The question came up on motion by Proctor to grant the conference requested by the house. The bill went over without action.

There were two speeches on the Panama canal, one by Morgan in support of the sea level plan and the other by Perkins in opposition.

The senate held its first night session, which was devoted to the consideration of the sundry civil appropriation bill.

Washington, June 20.—Twenty bills of more or less general interest were passed today by the house under suspension of the rules. Among them were measures appropriating $25,000 for the traveling expenses of the president, which excited considerable debate; providing for the subdivision of land entered under the reclamation act; increasing the efficiency of the bureau of insular affairs by conferring the rank and pay of a brigadier general upon the chief; and regulating the checking of baggage by common carriers.

The joint resolution increasing the terms of representatives to four years failed to receive the necessary two-thirds vote.

Tuesday, June 19.

Washington, June 19. — Knox addressed the senate at length today in support of the lock type for the Panama canal, contending that in point of feasibility and economy it is far superior to the sea level plan. He took direct issue with Kittredge as to the safety of the Gatum dam.

The agricultural appropriation bill, containing the meat inspection provision, was received from the house and the house substitute ordered printed.

The senate ordered another conference on the naval appropriation bill.

Washington, June 19.—With practical unanimity the house today adopted the substitute for the Beveridge amendment to the agricultural appropriation bill relating to meat inspection, the objectionable features of the former amendments being eliminated and the amendment perfected to meet the wishes of the president. An effort was made to extend the time of debate, but Wadsworth, chairman of the committee on agriculture, desiring to get the bill into conference as soon as possible, objected. After the adoption of the amendment the bill was sent to conference, the conferees being Wadsworth, Scott (Kan.) and Lamb (Va.)

A large number of bills were passed under suspension of rules. Through the efforts of Champ Clark, of Missouri, and Williams, of Mississippi, the subsidiary silver coinage bill failed to secure enough votes to pass it under the rule.

Monday, June 18.

Washington, June 18.—After another day devoted largely to the Lake Erie & Ohio river canal bill, the senate today passed that measure with only 11 votes in the negative. In addition, several bills to which there was no objection received favorable action. There also was further discussion between Tillman and Hopkins over the resolution of the former for an investigation of the question of national bank contributions to political campaigns, which involved a renewed reference to the failure of the Chicago national bank.

The session adjourned upon the official announcement of the death of Lester, of Georgia.

Washington, June 18. — A black-draped desk in the hall of the house of representatives today told the story of the passing of Rufus Lester, late a representative in congress from the First Georgia district Previous to any announcement Wadsworth, of New York, asked unanimous consent, which was granted, that the agricultural bill, with senate amendments, be recommitted to the committee on agriculture. Payne, of New York, by unanimous consent, then fixed Tuesday and Wednesday as suspension days, instead of today, in view of the early adjournment of the house.

Bartlett, of Georgia, announced the death of his late colleague, stating that he had been a member of the house for nearly 18 years. He offered the usual resolutions, which were agreed to. As a further mark of respect, the house then adjourned until tomorrow.

President and Committee Agree.

Washington, June 19.— The basis of a complete agreement on the meat inspection bill between President Roosevelt and the house committee on agriculture was arrived at today at the White House. Speaker Cannon represented the committee in this instance and subsequently spent some time explaining the situation to the committee in its room at the capitol. It will authorize an annual appropriation of $3,000,000 to pay the cost of inspection but contains no provision for court review at the suggestion of the president.

Status of Appropriations.

Washington, June 19.—Of the 14 appropriation bills which are required to run the government but four have become laws. These are the urgent deficiency, the pension, the diplomatic and consular and the army bill. The Indian appropriation bill has been completed so far as congress is concerned, and only awaits the approval of the president. Six others have been passed by both houses and are now in conference.

Lose Unused Rights.

Washington, June 19. — The senate today passed the house bill providing that every right of way grant to any railroad under the act of March 3, 1875, where such railroad has not been constructed and shall not hereafter be constructed within five years after definite location, shall be forfeited to the United States, all land along the unconstructed parts of the road to revert to the government. Roads now building to Portland and elsewhere in the Northwest are excepted, as are all that are being built in good faith.

International Crop Estimates.

Washington, June 18.--Senators Perkins and David S. Lubin, of California, called on the president today to urge him to transmit to the United States senate for ratification a treaty providing for the participation of the United States government in an international arrangement for the estimation of the world's crop of grain each year. A protocol has been drafted carrying the idea into ffect, but the approval of the senate is necessary.

THE KING AND QUEEN OF SPAIN.

The marriage of King Alfonso of Spain and Princess Ena (now Queen Victoria) of Battenberg, niece of King Edward of England, was celebrated in the Church of St. Jeronimo, Madrid, while bells chimed and cannons thundered and thousands of people applauded. The wedding was the culmination of a genuine love romance. Alfonso, not the government, nor the Queen regent, selected his bride and the latter fell as genuinely in love with the King as the latter with her. Probably never before did royal lovers act in such purely democratic ways. In England at first deep opposition to the union was stirred because the princess had to change her religion, but this feeling has been practically obliterated by the romance of a genuine love match and now there is rejoicing in the United Kingdom over the marriage in Madrid. Politically, the union will add to Spain's stability and prestige, for it will win English sympathy and support if the country is exposed to the risks of foreign complications.

AN IDEAL HOME LIFE.

The Fire-Eating Tillman Is a Model Husband and Father.

Senator Tillman of South Carolina, exponent of the strenuous and aggressive life in the Senate, is one of the most pronounced exponents of the simple life in his home. Perhaps there is no man in public life who lives as simply and quietly as does the Senator from South Carolina. His home life is ideal—gentle, healthful and happy. Born and reared on a farm, he early contracted the love of a country life, and he brought the sturdy habits and customs of a farmer with him when he first went to Washington.

B. R. TILLMAN.

The famous South Carolinian has a wife and five children, the youngest one being 10 or 12 years old. The oldest is his son, Benjamin R. Tillman, Jr., who was his father's secretary for many years. This family idolizes the father, and in turn he takes the greatest delight in fulfilling their every want.

A person who did not know Senator Tillman other than in his senatorial capacity might think that he is high-strung, irritable, and hard to get along with. They might pursue his strenuousness, aggressiveness, and fiery, debating temper into his home, and believe that these characteristics were the dominant features of his private life. No one could make a greater mistake. Just as the farmer goes out and leads a busy life all day long, plowing, harvesting, cutting down wood, etc., to come in at night and quietly spend the rest of the hours before retirement, so Senator Tillman lives. Active, ever on the hustle, fiery of temper on the floor of the Senate, he goes home and forgets the cares of the day, simply to enjoy a few hours with is family.

When Congress adjourns and the Senators hurry to their homes, none is quicker to get away than Mr. Tillman. Down near Trenton, S. C., he has a big farm. On this plantation the senior Senator spends most of his time in the summer, except in campaign years, and there goes out and actually tills the soil, just as he did fifteen and twenty years ago, before his remarkable abilities and characteristics brought him into public life.

It is at Trenton that Senator Tillman lives the ideal life. Call upon him there and you will be received with all the hospitality of any Southern gentleman. You will meet all the members of his family. You will hear him up early in the morning, and, unless he is studying some speech, he will go to bed early at night. Senator Tillman in every respect is the ideal father and husband.—Utica Globe.

No Music In It.

Patrick Mulhooly's daughter was within a few weks of her twenty-first birthday, and her proud father decided that he would buy her a music stool, one of those that can be lowered or raised by twisting the seat round. A few hours after he had brought his purchase home his wife discovered him with his coat off and great beads of perspiration on his brow diligently screwing the seat up and down. "Arrah, Pat," said she, "what have ye got there?"

"It's a little present for Kathleen," he explained between his gasps. "Ye know she has a liking for music. Sorra a bit of good this will be to her at all, at all. Shure I've been winding the blissed thing up for the last two hours and niver a tune has it played yet."

Not a Dealer.

Frith, the English painter, tells this story of a fellow artist: "Huskison was an extraordinarily clever fellow, who died quite young. He used to paint imaginative pictures, fairies and that sort of thing. He was entirely uneducated. At a big dinner party at Cheltenham I heard Lord Northwick ask him all down the length of the table who bought his last picture. Was it a dealer? 'No, my lord,' said Huskison, 'it were a gent.'"

If a woman has no intention of buying anything but calico, she collects samples of silk at the silk counter on her way.
