MUCH ACTIVITY IN LIVESTOCK

THOMSON AND STANFIELD MAKE HEAVY CATTLE PURCHASES.

Steady Movement in Sheep at Still Prices—Feeding of Lambs Will be Tested.

Asa Thomson came in from the interior country Thursday where he has been associated with Bob Stanfield in buying cattle.
Messrs. Thomson and Stanfield have made some big purchases.
Mr. Thomson visited the Bear creek and Izee country in Grant county and was also in the Silvie River country in Harney county.
They purchased 1300 head of three year old steers which will be taken to Butter creek to be fed on alfalfa.
Messrs. Thomson & Stanfield are among the big feeders on Butter creek and have a large amount of alfalfa hay, the crop in that district this season being a heavy one.

Asa Thomson has purchased 1000 head of Shropshire lambs from John Madden & Son of Lone Rock. The price paid was $2.90 per head with a 20 per cent cut.
The lambs came in January and February and being of a large breed will make a choice lot for feeding. Mr. Thomson stated that these lambs were purchased for feeding which is an experiment. No one has ever tried feeding lambs and the results will be watched with interest by the alfalfa growers of the country.
The lambs will be carefully weighed before being put on the feed and when they are turned off to market will be weighed again in order to give the question of lamb feeding a thorough test.

T. J. Matlock of this city has sold 200 head of his stock cattle to Asa Thomson of Butter creek.
The price paid was $20 per head all around.

W. W. Stabler of Buffalo, Wyoming, who came here to buy sheep and horses returned Friday from a trip to Grant county. Mr.
Stabler purchased 3000 ewes from Templeton Bros. While here he purchased 1000 ewes from the Penland Land & Livestock Co., also 2000 ewes from Swick & Wilcox. Mr. Stabler has also purchased 20 head of heavy brood mares.

D. O. Justus this week purchased 600 head of mixed lambs from Geo. B. Hufford, of Butter creek.
The price paid was $2.75 per head.
Mr. Justus has purchased about 6000 head of sheep this season.

Fred Mulkey, of Lone creek brought in 750 head of mutton sheep which were purchased by Joe Hayes and shipped this week.

D. W. Lane & Son, of Shoshone, Idaho, bought this week of E. F.
Pratt 1400 head of lambs at $2.75 per head and 500 ewes at $3.35 per head. These sheep are being ranged at present in Logan valley and are to be delivered on October 1.—Blue Mountain Eagle.

J. D. Combs had scarcely returned from his trip to Baker with a bunch of cattle for the Carstein Bro's of Seattle, when he went in to the lower John Day and Wheeler countries and picked up a bunch of 900 head, steers and cows. It required only a few days, less than a week, to complete the deal. Mr. Combs paid $22 for two-year-old steers, $30 for three-year-olds, and varying prices according to quality, for cows.

He says the stock was not in every instance of the best, but that he secured some splendid animals.
He has not determined what disposition to make of the bunch yet, and may feed them. Mr. Combs is usually both a buyer and seller, and looks at the market from the stand point of both.
Hence his operations in the market are watched with a good deal of interest by growers in the valley.
—John Day News.

Several stock buyers have been in this city during the last two weeks. Among them we have noted: Wm. Matlock, Frank Sloan, Jeff Jones, W. W. Stabler, W. Spencer, Mr. Tobey, Henry Schersinger and two gentlemen from Pendleton. Some of them are buying sheep others horses or cattle, some seem to be willing to buy any kind of stock if it is offered at prices to suit them.—Mountaint Enterprise.

Lawrence Sweek, a sheepman of Monument, last week sold a band of 1400 wethers to H. S. Toby, of Condon, for $3.25 per head. He also disposed of a band of 1300 mixed lambs to N. S. Whetstone, of Heppner, for $2.60 per head.
Emmet Cochran and J. J. Simas, two sheepmen of the same locality, each disposed of a band of lambs, the former 2000 head and the latter 1000 head, at $2.75. The buyer in this instance was not learned, the sale being made through Geo. Conser, of Heppner.

STOLEN HORSES ARE RECOVERED

Twenty Head Which Were Being Shipped Out of Grant County Stopped at Pocatella.

Twenty head of horses belonging to J.
H. McHaley, L. Sweek, R. S. Snyder, G. V. McHaley and others in Grant county, were recently stolen. The thief was successful in getting on board the train and they were as far as Poca-tella, Idaho, when they were apprehended by Deputy Cassidy. D.
Williams was in charge of the stolen animals. Both horses and man have been brought back.

WORKING FOR JAMESTOWN FAIR

COMMISSIONER BLACKMAN SAYS PEOPLE FAVOR EXHIBIT.

Has Just Returned From Extensive Tour of the State in Interest of Exposition.

If Oregon's exhibit at the Jamestown exposition is not a good one it will not be the fault of Hon. Henry Blackman, the commissioner from Eastern Oregon.

Now, that Oregon is to have an exhibit, the commission appointed by Governor Chamberlain consisting of Jeff Myers, of Salem, A. H.
Devers and Tom Richardson, of Portland, D. H. Jackson, of Jackson county, and Henry Blackman, of Heppner, is not shirking duty in doing everything possible to make Oregon's exhibit a leader among the states of the Union.

Ever since Mr. Blackman's appointment, he has been active and on the lookout all the time in the interest of the big fair down in old Virginia. Being a thorough and experienced exposition man, having been in close touch with the workings both in preparatory work and the exploiting of exhibits at all of the big fairs within the past decade, he knows how and is making use of valuable experience.

Mr. Blackman has just returned from a months' trip over the state in the interest of the fair. He visited Eastern Oregon, Southern Oregon, the Willamette valley and to the Pacific Ocean in the Northwestern portion of the state.

He was interviewed by more than 30 newspaper men and articles of from half a column to two columns appeared in more than 30 newspapers all over the state, making a large amount of the best possible advertising that could be given.

The main object of the trip was to get the sentiment of the people in general in relation to a state exhibit and also to impress the people with the valuable advertising too be had by the proper steps at Jamestown.

Coming as it does so soon after the Lewis and Clark fair which gave Oregon such a boost by placing our great state in her true light all over the Union, the Jamestown fair will again take up the chain almost unbroken.

"I find it a common expression," said Mr. Blackman, "that Oregon is now on the map, and is coming to the front."

Mr. Blackman is looking after the collection of grain, grasses, wool and the agricultural exhibit in general.

Our exhibit will depend greatly upon the action of the next session of the legislature.

The Lewis and Clark fair commission turned back to the state $60,000 in cash and $80,000 worth of property. With this surplus which is practically velvet to the state, a good appropriation could be made without the burden of additional taxation. For the Jamestown fair for all departments, the government has already appropriated $1,700,000.

The state of Virginia including county appropriations, is $450,000, while a great many of the states have made liberal appropriations.

Within a radius of 315 miles of the site of the exposition there is a population of 21,000,000, and from this vast amount of people there will certainly be a great attendance.

While the big fairs of the country have been held on the anniversaries of great national events, no date is of more significance than the time of the establishment of the first permanent English settlement in the United States. To visit the fair will take the visitor back to the beginning of our country, in the time of Captain John Smith and Pocahontas.

The occasion is not only historical but the fair will be made historical in character by exhibitions of not only colonial buildings but the every day life, methods and handiwork of the early settlers.

It will bring together people from widely separated parts of the country and will help to cement the bond of American patriotism.
