

HURRY, BE QUICK, HURRY

If you are going to be one of the hundreds who are daily saving dollars by taking advantage of the awful slaughter of prices at the "The Fair," it will be necessary for you to "HURRY." This splendid stock by odds the most complete and up-to-date ever shown not only in Heppner but for 100 miles around here, is fast melting away under the most merciless slashing of prices this section of the country has ever known. Let our competitors stand in awe and say that we cannot buy merchandise at the price we are selling it for. "True Every Word of it." But were it not for the fact that this stock must be closed and closed quickly we could not sell at such sensational prices. Once more we caution you to "HURRY." Watch our window Monday morning for the largest and most complete line of fall Millinery ever brought to Heppner. The same sensational prices will prevail.

Hanged in His Jail Cell.

Everett, Aug. 24—William Henning, 52 years of age, committed suicide by hanging himself early this morning in a cell in the city jail. Henning was arrested for wife beating. He took the ropes in the hammock in his cell, threw one end over the low door and made a rough noose, the door being so low that to kill himself Henning was forced to kneel down and lean against the rope.
