Tea will be served at the residence of Mrs. W. P. Dutton next Wednesday, for the benefit of the Episcopal church. Tea will be served from 3 p. m. to 9 o'clock.

The Star Brewery people have purchased the Brewery saloon in Heppner, formerly owned by J. B. Natter on upper Main street. The transfer was made this week. The consideration was $5000.

A carload of very fine water-melons were shipped in from Irri-gon this week. They were purchased by Minor & Company and the Pastime and found ready sale, being of fine flavor and large in size. Morrow county is allright when it comes to growing almost anything.

Jim Ross who is well known in Heppner, was seriously hurt one day last week while packing for Mills Bros. sheep camp near Dale. Mr. Ross was thrown from a wild horse, striking against a tree. For a time it was thought that he would not live, however, he is now improving.

The first day of the district fair at Pendleton will be dedicated to Morrow county. There will be an effort to get a special train to go from Heppner on that day.

Dr. Winnard, Ear, Eyes Nose and Throat. Glasses properly fitted.

The pleasant showers have been agreeable to all, and the street sprinkler is out of business.

What is perhaps the finest shipment of mutton sheep sent out of the inland empire this season has just been loaded out of Walla Walla by Davin & Mitchello of that place. There were 2420 head of 2-year-old Merino wethers in the shipment which average 112½ pounds each at the Walla Walla yards, and sold for 4 cents per pound, making the price $4.50 per head at Walla Walla.

Robert Stanfield of Butter Creek, has leased for a period of five years all the land and sheep owned by Joe Vey. About 20,000 acres of land and nearly 20,000 head of sheep are included in this deal. It is reported that the annual rental is to $7000, and that Stanfield is to pay all taxes and repair expenses as well as to return at the end of the contract as many head of stock in like condition as he receives.—Pendleton Tribune.

C. A. Minor, manager of the Penland Land and Livestock Co., informs the Gazette that the wheat that has been threshed by the company this year, is apparently not injured in the least and has made a good average crop. The company has about 900 acres of wheat this year which will be all used for hay and feed on the big stock ranch of 30,000 acres. The company expects to sow in the neighborhood of 1500 acres to wheat next year.

Notice to Taxpayers.

Monday, Oct. 1st, 1906, is the last day on which the last half of your 1905 taxes can be paid without penalty and interest. Ten per cent penalty and twelve per cent interest must be added after the above date.
