MINOR'S CATTLE
WERE WINNER'S
Prominent Feature in Stock Show at Pendleton Fair.

One man to whom too much credit can not be given for the part he has played in the making a success of the Morrow-Umatilla counties district fair, is W. O. Minor of Heppner, known throughout the country as a breeder of the finest short horn cattle the world produces. Mr. Minor not only made a personal sacrifice in bringing his stock to show at this fair, but he, together with Hynd, Patterson and Gilliam, are responsible for the interest and part Morrow county has taken in the big undertaking. At a personal sacrifice of time and money he went about through his part of the district arousing interest and enthusiasm in the enterprise.

Mr. Minor stated to a Tribune reporter yesterday afternoon that nothing less than the pride he has in his county could have induced him to come to Pendleton. His efforts, however, have been fully appreciated by the fair management, the people of Morrow and Umatilla counties and every one who attended the fair and had the pleasure of seeing his matchless herd of cattle.

In the band that he brought to Pendleton, and which carried off everything in sight, there are 16 animals, all taken from his famous Mountain Valley herd of Short Horns and they show the result of from 14 to 15 years devoted to the business. During this time he has purchased domestic and imported cattle that have taken first prizes at state, national and world's fairs, time and time again.

In his herd there flows the blood of such cows as "Sally Girl," and "Orange Blossom of Fairview 3rd," both world beaters and both formerly owned by him. The first named took first prize at the World's fair in St. Louis, and is now dead, while the second took first at the Lewis and Clark fair, and is now owned by the Ladd estate.

"Orange Blossom" is the dam of the two-year-old bull, "Orange Bloom," that heads the band he had here on exhibition. This bull weighs exactly a ton and looks every inch the prize winner that he is.

"Sassy Frantic" is the cow that stood in the same stall with the big bull and in her veins there runs some of the best short horn blood to be found in the world. Her dam won the first prize in the international stock show at Chicago, and she is a full sister to "Frantic" that was one of the herd that won first at the Lewis and Clark exposition, and was the sweep-stakes cow at the Oregon State fair.

The next animal in his prize herd was "Vera 2nd," a two-year-old heifer whose dam was "Vera," one of Mr.
Minor's great show cows that weighed 2050 pounds and whose first calf he sold for $800 and the next two for $500 each.

But if there was any one member of the band that attracted more attention than any other, and one upon which cattle men delighted to feast their eyes, it was "Lovely Lady," a yearling, whose dam was "Lovely of the Valley." Lovely Lady is as nearly perfect as it is possible for any thing in the shape of a cow to be. She looks like a picture cow, but more beautiful than it is possible for any picture to be. Her mother, "Lovely of the Valley," cost Mr. Minor $1,100, but he declares that it is was a bargain.

"Bright Hope" is another promising yearling, but the animal which Mr.
Minor says is the favorite of the herd is a 11 months old suckling calf named "Valley Pride," that carried off the first prize in its class without any difficulty and that is surely destined to be a prize winner in any show on earth.

Another fine animal which carried off a blue ribbon, and is sure to make a good herder for some men, is "Star Onward," an 18-months-old bull of a deep red color and very pretty. The remainder of the herd was composed mostly of calves and yearlings, and though every one is a beauty and capable of carrying off prizes, Mr. Minor said he just brought them along to fill out the band.—Pendleton Tribune.

REDUCTIONS IN
NUMBER OF SHEEP
Official Notification Pertaining to Pasturage Apportionment.

An official announcement of the reductions that are to be made in the number of sheep allowed next year in the Blue mountain, Wenaha, Wallowa and other forest reserves was brought from Portland last evening by Dan P.
Smythe, secretary of the State Woolgrowers' association, says the East Oregonian. The reductions will be as follows:

During his stay in Portland M.
Smythe met A. F. Potter, associate forester and chief of the grazing department of the forestry bureau, and to that official he made known the wishes of the state association. Mr. Potter was in Portland attending a conference of forestry officials with the superintendents and rangers who are stationed throughout the northwest. At the meeting the proposition of the reductions to be made next year were up for settlement and the action finally taken is very close to the recommendations of the association as made known by Secretary Smythe.

According to Mr. Smythe he was officially informed by Mr. Potter that the reductions in the various reserves would be as follows:

Blue mountains reserve, eastern division, 25 per cent, reducing the number from 238,000 in 1906, to 180,000 for 1907; Blue mountain reserve, western division, 20 per cent, reducing the number from 275,000 to 220,000; Wenaha reserve, 15 per cent, reducing the number of sheep from 117,000 to 100,- 000; Wallowa reserve, 10 per cent, reducing the number from 165,000 to 150,- 000; Cheenimus reserve, an increase of 10 per cent, raising the number from 45,000 to 50,000.

In admitting sheep to any of the reserves lambs will be disregarded instead of counting two lambs as one sheep as was done this year.

In the eastern division of the Blue mountain reserve a band will be considered as consisting of 1200 and permits for one band will be issued without reduction. A grower having less than one band may secure a permit increasing his number to 1200, provided the increase is not greater than 20 per cent.

With growers having from 1200 to 2000 sheep in the reserve this year a cut of 20 per cent will be made, provided such a cut will not reduce the number to less than 1200.

Growers having 2000 to 4000 sheep this year will be reduced 30 per cent provided such will not make the number less than 2000.

Those having 4000 or more sheep in the reserve this year will be cut 40 per cent, provided such a cut will not make the average cut for the entire division greater than 25 per cent.
Should a lower cut be possible and still maintain the 25 per cent average, it will be made.

In the western division of the Blue mountain reserve the same plan will be followed as in the eastern though the general cut will be 20 per cent.

LEASED MOUNTAIN GEM.
O. R. & N. Will Operate River Boat
On Upper River.

The steamer Mountain Gem, which is now running on the upper river carrying freight for the portage road, has been leased by the O. R. & N. and it is expected will go into service for that company about the 15th or 20th of October, carrying wheat and also supplies for the construction camps along the line of the Riparian-Lewiston branch of that system.

There is some question, however, as to whether or not she will be able to navigate the Snake as it is extremely low and is continuing to fall.

By that time the Open River Association will have its own boats ready to handle freight for the portage.

Business at the portage is lively, and this morning 3000 sacks of wheat were piled up at the Big Eddy ready to be brought down by the Spencer.—The Pallas Chronicle.

This is the season of decay and weakened vitality. Nature is being short of its beauty and bloom. If you would retain yours, fortify your system with Orchard a Ravine Maniac.

Denver, Sept. 29—Harry Orchard, the self confessed murderer of Governor Frank Steunenberg, on whose testimony the state of Idaho is depending on convicting Haywood, Moyer and Pettibone, the officials of the Western Federation of Miners, now confined in that state, is now a ravine maniac.

Advices which have been received at Denver contain the information that Orchard's mind has given way under the terrible strain to which he has been subjected for almost a year. It is reported that Orchard is confined in the hospital ward of the Idaho penitentiary at Boise and that the most radical measures are necessary to guard him.
According to Orchard's statement, he, with the assistance of Jack Simpkins, set the bomb by which Governor Steunenberg met his death at Caldwell December 30 last.

Shortly after his arrest Orchard made what purported to be a confession, in which he implicated the officers of the Western Federation of Miners. In addition to the Steunenberg murder, he confessed to a number of other crimes, which he declared were planned by the three men, Moyer, Haywood and Pettibone, who were kidnaped from Colorado.

In all the months of his confinement Orchard has not been allowed to meet any one from the outside or any of the attorneys for the Western Federation of Miners. He has been kept in practically solitary confinement and the long siege of seclusion together with the weight of the many crimes he has confessed to having committed have broken down his reason.
