

Rheumatism

Is one of the constitutional diseases. It manifests itself in local aches and pains, - inflamed joints and stiff muscles, - but it cannot be cured by local applications. It requires constitutional treatment, and the best is a course of the great blood-purifying and tonic medicine

The Original Porous Plaster.
It's Alcock's, first introduced to the people sixty years ago, and today undoubtedly has the largest sale of any external remedy. Millions have been sold annually throughout the whole civilized world. There have been imitations, to be sure, but never has there been one to even compare with Alcock's—the world's standard external remedy.

For a weak back, cold on the chest or any local pain the result of taking cold or overstrain, it's not only known to compare with this famous plaster.

The Humane House of Representatives is the largest in the world. It has 751 members.

TEN YEARS OF PAIN.

Unable To Do Even Housework Because of Kidney Troubles.

Mrs. Margaret Emmerich, of Clinton St., Napoleon, O., says: "For fifteen years I was a great sufferer from kidney troubles. My back pained me terribly. Every turn or move caused sharp shooting pains. My eyesight was poor, dark spots appeared before me, and I had dizzy spells. For ten years I could not do housework, and for two years did not get out of the house. The kidney secretions were irregular, and doctors were not helping me. Dean's Kidney Pills brought me quick relief, and finally cured me. They saved my life."

Sold by all dealers. 50 cents a box. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y.

NEWS OF RECENT BOOKS

Those Kindly Persons.
It happened in a railway station. The baby cried and cried and cried. "Perhaps he desires his bottle," suggested a fatherly looking old party. "He has not been raised on the bottle," cuttlingly replied the handsome young woman who held the infant. The baby's shrieks grew terrific. He made unmistakable signs that he wanted his dinner.

"Beg pardon, ma'am," said the elderly party, "but may I suggest that you permit the child to—er—take nourishment?" "This baby belongs to my sister," replied the young lady, blushing furiously, "and she won't be here for half an hour. I'm holding it for her."—Louisville Courier-Journal.

Motherly and Mr. Winslow's Boasting
Syrup the best remedy for their children during the teething period.

Philologically Logical.
Mrs. Gayboy—That's where you are wrong. You don't seem to understand the use of words. If a thing is "round" it can't be any "rounder."
Mr. Gayboy—Then there is no such thing as a "rounder." Thanks, dear. You won't call me one again, will you?

Beware of Ointments for Catarrh that Contain Mercury
as mercury will surely destroy the sense of smell and completely derange the whole system when entering it through the mucous surface. Such articles, unless never be used except on prescriptions from a reliable physician, as the damage they will do is tenfold to the good you can possibly derive from them. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O., contains no mercury, and is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. In buying Hall's Catarrh Cure be sure you get the genuine. It is taken internally, and comes in a package of 50 cents, and in a box of $1.00. Sold by druggists, price 75c. per bottle. Hall's Family Pills are the best.

Table Mustard.
Common, ordinary, every-day table mustard obtained its name in a remarkably curious way. It is said that Philip, Duke of Burgundy, granted to Dijon some armorial bearings on which was the motto, "Moutte me tarde."

This was later carved in a stone archway of the city, but as the years went by the central word became effaced. A certain firm in the city was engaged in the manufacture of soap, which was the former name for mustard, and, wishing to label its products with the city arms, copied the incomplete motto. Thus, ignorant people seeing the name "moutte-tarde" on the jars, fell into the custom of calling the contents by that title. In time "moutte-tarde" was contracted to mountarde (mustard).

General Maxwell is the framer of an interesting theory respecting George Eliot's choice of her pseudonym: "Many years ago—some time in the 40's—a young officer of the Bengal Cavalry—a very fine young man, I believe—called George Donithorne Elliot, was accidentally drowned in the lake of Nynce Tal, in the lower Himalayas. Now, it will be admitted that Donithorne is a very uncommon name; yet we have Arthur Donithorne in "Adam Bede," and we have the rest of that young man's name, "George Elliot," as the novelist's pseudonym. I think there is something in this. It is too remarkable a coincidence to be due to mere chance. Who knows but that the George Donithorne Elliot, of Nynce Tal, was an early friend, flame or ideal of Marian Evans, and hence her adoption of the name George Elliot?"

Big Suit Over Small Sum.
A Georgia railroad and one of its patrons have got as far as the Supreme Court of that State with a lawsuit in which the sum of money at issue is 18 cents, but there is a principle involved which both sides are determined shall be settled for all time.

In Atlanta, as in most cities south of New England, one cannot enter a train without exhibiting a ticket and having it punched at the gates. An Atlanta man to aid a woman with a good deal of hand baggage bought a ticket to the nearest station beyond at the price named. It was stamped "redeemable if not used." The purchaser before leaving the station presented it for redemption, but this was refused. He went then to the local court, which decided in his favor. The railroad company then appealed to a higher court, on the ground that in his purchase of the ticket he simply pretended to enter a contract and his purpose was to defraud.

Again the purchaser obtained a judgment and the case is now before the Supreme Court of Georgia. The principle of the plaintiff is that the railroad had no right to question his motives when he presented the ticket for redemption and that of the railroad company is that the existence of the gate system is at issue.

A Democratic Spirit.
"It must be a fine thing to have a gallery of ancestral portraits," said the man who admires pedigree. "I don't know," answered Miss Cayenne. "Gallery ancestors are usually so red-nosed and sleepy-eyed. When I look over our own family album I'm inclined to think that plain, everyday grandfathers are much better looking."—Washington Star.

Haunting Notes.

There was a peculiar sound from the direction of the woods as the member of the Birdlovers' Society sat in the window of her friend's country home one summer afternoon.

She quickly took her small "Bird Guide" from her ever-present bag, and rapidly turned the leaves. At last she paused with a smile of satisfaction, and listened, with her finger between two leaves of the little book, till the sound came again.

When it was repeated an expression of doubt flitted across her features, but still she was hopeful.

"You probably know many of the bird notes, living so near the woods and in such a quiet spot," she said to her friend. "Can you tell me what bird that is?"

"That," said her friend, briefly, "is our goat. We shall have to move him farther off."

WHAT JOY THEY BRING TO EVERY HOME

as with joyous hearts and smiling faces they romp and play—when in health—and how conducive to health the games in which they indulge, the outdoor life they enjoy, the cleanly, regular habits they should be taught to form and the wholesome diet of which they should partake. How tenderly their health should be preserved, not by constant medication, but by careful avoidance of every medicine of an injurious or objectionable nature and if at any time a remedial agent is required, to assist nature, only those of known excellence should be used; remedies which are pure and wholesome and truly beneficial in effect, like the pleasant laxative remedy, Syrup of Figs, manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. Syrup of Figs has come into general favor in many millions of well informed families, whose estimate of its quality and excellence is based upon personal knowledge and use.

Syrup of Figs has also met with the approval of physicians generally, because they know it is wholesome, simple and gentle in its action. We inform all reputable physicians as to the medicinal principles of Syrup of Figs, obtained, by an original method, from certain plants known to them to act most beneficially and presented in an agreeable syrup in which the wholesome Californian blue figs are used to promote the pleasant taste; therefore it is not a secret remedy and hence we are free to refer to all well informed physicians, who do not approve of patent medicines and never favor indiscriminate self-medication.

Please to remember and teach your children also that the genuine Syrup of Figs always has the full name of the Company—California Fig Syrup Co.—plainly printed on the front of every package and that it is for sale in bottles of one size only. If any dealer offers any other than the regular Fifty cent size, or having printed thereon the name of any other company, do not accept it. If you fail to get the genuine you will not get its beneficial effects. Every family should always have a bottle on hand, as it is equally beneficial for the parents and the children, whenever a laxative remedy is required.
