Your stomach churns and digests the food you eat and if foul, or torpid, or out of order, your whole system suffers from blood poison. Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea keeps you well. 35 cents, Tea or Tablets. W. P. McMillen, Lexington, Oregon.

Captain Warren, a pioneer of Morrow county and father of H. E. Warren, formerly of this place, but now of Wheeler county, arrived in this city last night from Long Beach, California, where he has resided for some time. The Captain will spend the winter with Harry on his ranch near Spray.

In a communication to the Oregonian from Corvallis regarding the Cadet Military Band at the Agricultural college, the names of Otheo Crawford and Ray Luper appear to the effect that they are of very material importance to that organization. Otheo plays baritone and Ray B bass. It also states that the band is the best in years.

The increase in value in timber lands in Oregon during the past year has been remarkable. The increased price of more than 50 per cent has caused many individual owners to sell their claims. It is estimated that over 100,000 acres of timber lands have been bought up by big timber companies during this year.

On last Thursday evening at about 5:30 the fire alarm was turned in from the electric power house. A fire was discovered in the roof of the power plant and it took several minutes of hard fire fighting to extinguish the flames. The blaze was caused from the smoke stack becoming to hot thus setting fire to the roof. Again on Monday night an alarm was turned in from the same place, but the blaze was checked with little trouble. The lights were closed down all Thursday night but were not damaged to any great extent. The blaze Monday evening caused no damage.

BASKET BALL.

Resulted in Tie Game Between Lexington and Heppner.

The most exciting and interesting game of basket ball that has ever been witnessed in Heppner was pulled off in the big gymnasium Friday night, when a team from Lexington met a team from the Commercial Club and played a tie game of 3 to 3. The game was void of wrangling and good spirit prevailed at all times. Davis of Lexington played the star game for his team, being almost a sure goal tresser, while McCarty and Bisbee played equally as good for the local team. In fact every man on both teams were in the game from the time that Referee Scott blew the whistle.

The local team made three points in the first half and Lexington made three in the second. The captains, Garrigues and Beach decided to let the game stand at that and to play a future game at Lexington.

The personnel of the teams were as follows: Lexington: K. Beach, Raney, White, Eskelson and Davis; Heppner: Garrigues, Bisbee, Ayers, McCarty and Turner. Officials: W. G. Scott, referee, Jack Nichols, Umpire, and Garfield Crawford, time keeper and scorer.

At the conclusion of the game a team representing the Lexington schools and one from this school played a game which resulted in a victory for the Lexington boys to the tune of 11 to 3.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Beymer were in from their Hardman ranch the first of the week.

Ed Farnsworth left for Monument Wednesday afternoon to be gone all winter. Mr. Farnsworth has purchased several thousand sheep in that vicinity and will spend the winter in looking after his flock.

Miss Alma Hallock who has been visiting with her aunt Mrs. W. P. Dutton of this city, left on Monday mornings' train for Pendleton, where she will visit with friends and relatives before returning to her home at Portland.

There will be preaching at Liberty school house next Sunday by Rev. T. P. Graham, his appointment there having been changed from the first Sunday to the third. The people generally are cordially invited to attend these services.

The Oregonian has passed its 56th birthday. For half a century the present owners have kept the paper a little in the lead in the march of progress. The remarkable growth and success of the Oregonian which ranks today with the great papers of the country, is a monument to the energy and brains of the powerful combination of a great business man and a great editor, Pittock and Scott.

A goodly number of people attended the bright social given by Mrs. Woodson's Sunday school class in the M. E. church last Friday evening. The recitations by Masters Alley and Notson, and the responses to toasts by Mrs. White, Messrs Shipley and Notson, and the music by Mrs. Rood and the girl choir were fitting companions to the elegant repast. A great preparation is going on for the coming Christmas eve entertainment. Child in the Manger, packages from Santa Claus, music, reading and recitations will mark the joyous hour. The new Hymnal used by the two great methodisms of the United States has been put into the M. E. church of this city with good results. The Rev. B. J. Hoadley preaches next Sunday at 11 a. m., on "Kids or Lambs," for minutes to boys and girls and to all on "Death Making Life." In the evening, "Guests make the Supper." Welcome to all.
